We welcome patrons into the St. Marianne Cope food pantry buildings again!

We welcome our faithful pantry patrons and all newcomers. As well, we invite anyone to share the name and contact information of individuals or families who may need assistance.

Days/hours of operation and contacts for each pantry are:

- ~ Our Lady of Peace: Third Wednesday of each month, 10am-noon
(Marie Iadanza, 315-345-9833)
~ St. Cecilia: Tuesdays & Thursdays, 9am-noon
(Linda Dudas, 315-488-3221)

Both pantries need reusable grocery bags. We also welcome food items to be dropped off at any entrance of either church. Thank you for your support!

Meeting set for volunteers and new volunteers for both pantries.

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, July 14th at 10am at Our Lady of Peace.

Volunteers from both pantries will meet, and we invite anyone interested in helping out at either pantry to attend. Volunteers stock shelves, sort out expired items, greet patrons, make deliveries and much more.

Please join us and find out what you might wish to do that suits your schedule and your interests.

Fourteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time
July 4, 2021

Hi Friends,

In several of our recent homilies and during our recent Congregational Town Hall Meetings, we've highlighted the importance of evangelization as the rudder that will steer not only our parish community, but our Church. Over the next two weeks, I wanted to share some thoughts with you from Pope Paul VI from his Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Nuntiandi (Evangelization in the Modern World) on the importance of sharing our faith and bringing people to know Jesus.

- Adam Eichelberger
Evangelization Coordinator

The simplest way to say what evangelization means is to follow Pope Paul VI, whose message Evangelii Nuntiandi (On Evangelization in the Modern World) has inspired so much recent thought and activity in the Church. We can rephrase his words to say that evangelizing means bringing the Good News of Jesus into every human situation and seeking to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel itself. At its essence are the proclamation of salvation in Jesus Christ and the response of a person in faith, which are both works of the Spirit of God.

Evangelization must always be directly connected to the Lord Jesus Christ. "There is no true evangelization if the name, the teaching, the life, the promises, the Kingdom and the mystery of Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of God are not proclaimed."

Conversion is the change of our lives that comes about through the power of the Holy Spirit. All who accept the Gospel undergo change as we continually put on the mind of Christ by rejecting sin and becoming more faithful disciples in his Church. Unless we undergo conversion, we have not truly accepted the Gospel.

We know that people experience conversion in many ways. Some experience a sudden, shattering insight that brings rapid transformation. Some experience a gradual growth over many years. Others undergo conversion as they take part in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults—the normal way adults become members of the Church today. Many experience conversion through the ordinary relationships of family and friends. Others have experienced it through the formation received from Catholic schools and religious education programs. Still others have experienced ongoing conversion in renewals, ecumenical encounters, retreats, parish missions, or through some of the great spiritual movements that have blessed church life today.

This is crucial: we must be converted—and we must continue to be converted! We must let the Holy Spirit change our lives! We must respond to Jesus Christ. And we must be open to the transforming power of the Holy Spirit who will continue to convert us as we follow Christ. If our faith is alive, it will be aroused again and again as we mature as disciples.

We can only share what we have received; we can hold on to our faith only if it continues to grow. "But if salt loses its taste," Jesus asked, "with what can it be seasoned?"

The continuing story of salvation in Christ involves each of us one by one as well as society itself. How else could it be? Conversion speaks of the change of heart that, as a member of the Church, each one must undergo. The Gospel speaks across time and space to each human being, each mind, each heart. It asks us what we think about our lives, how we hope, whom we love, and what we live for. If faith is not transforming each heart and life, it is dead.

But faith is not something that only happens to each of us individually or privately, within ourselves. The Gospel also speaks to society itself, with its values, goals, and systems. The Gospel must overflow from each heart until the presence of God transforms all human existence. Sometimes this means that, as believers, we must confront the world as did the prophets of old, pointing out the claims of God to societies that are blind to God. More often, however, this means that we must let our faith shine on the world around us, radiating the love of Jesus by the everyday way we speak, think, and act.

The fruits of evangelization are changed lives and a changed world—holiness and justice, spirituality and peace. The validity of our having accepted the Gospel does not only come from what we feel or what we know; it comes also from the way we serve others, especially the poorest, the most marginal, the most hurting, the most defenseless, and the least loved. An evangelization that stays inside ourselves is not an evangelization into the Good News of Jesus Christ. Evangelization happens when the word of Jesus speaks to people's hearts and minds. Needing no trickery or manipulation, evangelization can happen only when people accept the Gospel freely, as the "good news" it is meant to be, because of the power of the gospel message and the accompanying grace of God.

Our message of faith proclaims an eternally faithful God, creating all in love and sustaining all with gracious care. We proclaim that God, whose love is unconditional, offers us divine life even in the face of our sins, failures, and inadequacies. We believe in a God who became one of us in Jesus, God's Son, whose death and resurrection bring us salvation. We believe that the risen Christ sends his own Spirit upon us when we respond to him in faith and repentance, making us his people, the Church, and giving us the power of new life and guiding us to our eternal destiny.

Attention All

If anyone is interested in serving on the Parish Pastoral Council, please contact Ed Weber or Father Clemente. There is one vacancy that needs to be filled with a voting member.
