The Holy Spirit

“Heavenly King, Advocate, Spirit of Truth, Who are everywhere present and fill all things, Treasury of Blessings and Bestower of Life, come, and dwell within us; cleanse us of all that defiles us, and, O Good One, save our souls.”

The Holy Spirit is God’s Special Gift for the Christian. Jesus said in Luke 11:13, “How much More shall your Heavenly Father Give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him.” Receiving Jesus will give you Power to be a Child of God.

On this festive day we decorate our homes and churches traditionally with green branches of trees and flowers; this is to remind us that the feast of the Pentecost, Holy Trinity, and especially - Holy Spirit is the feast of eternal life. We must strive to embellish our hearts and souls to receive the power of the Spirit of God.

Let us cleanse our souls through repentance and prayer, let us fill our souls with the love of our neighbors and with charitable deeds. Then the Holy Spirit will dwell in us.

Receiving the Holy Spirit will give you Power to serve Christ and His Church by being His Anointed Witness. Let us reach out as part of the Catholic Church with arms open wide in faith, and say...

“Yes Lord, I take what you give, Fill me with the Holy Spirit!”

Peter’s Pence Collection - Петрів Гріш

The Peter’s Pence Collection is taken up worldwide to support our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. The collection joins with Pope Francis and will be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters.

Збірка на Петрів гріш створена для підтримки наших братів і сестер по цілому світу, включаючи жертв війни, гніту та стихійних лих. Колекція поєднується з папою Франциском і стане свідком милосердя до наших страждаючих братів і сестер.

The Holy Spirit came upon them. (Acts 19:6)

“Holy what?” The disciples whom Paul encountered in Ephesus did not know there was a Holy Spirit, or even that Jesus was the Messiah. But when Paul shared the good news and prayed with them, their eyes were opened to the spiritual gifts that were now theirs through Christ.

The Ephesian disciples knew that the Spirit had come upon them because they were able to prophesy and speak in God-given tongues (Acts 19:6). Such manifestations were a sure sign of the Spirit’s presence in the early Church, and even today there are believers who experience these “charismatic” gifts (1 Corinthians 12:4-11). While these are two of the more obvious signs of the Spirit, Scripture tells us about other gifts that we might experience (Isaiah 11:2-3):

- When you pray for guidance and receive wisdom, that’s the Spirit.
- When you are tempted to do or say something rash and you resist by saying a quick Hail Mary, God’s Spirit of counsel is Giving you restraint.
- When you are looking for credit for your accomplishments, fear of the Lord reminds you that all your talents come from God.
- When you are confused about Church teaching on a moral issue and you stumble across a podcast that gives you insight, the Spirit is granting you knowledge and understanding.
- When you are at the end of your rope but keep persevering in faith, you are being filled with fortitude.
- When you are feeling restless at liturgy but a hymn fills you with a sense of God’s love, the Spirit is giving you piety.

Pentecost is here, so let us ask the Lord to fill us with even more of his gifts so that we can better serve him and his body. Be sure to ask freely and expectantly. Remember, God “does not ration his gift of the Spirit” (John 3:34). Maybe in this season of your life, you are in special need of fortitude or wisdom. Whatever it is, don’t be shy about asking. God wants it for you even more than you do!

“Come upon me, Holy Spirit! Strengthen your gifts within me.”
