Announcements...

YOUR PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED at all Masses celebrated this week for an end to persecution, our church, for vocation to the religious life, for an end to abortion, for the needs of the Parish, for our sick at home, in nursing homes and in the hospitals, for American Armed forces and Veterans, for world peace, an end to terrorism, and an end to the coronavirus pandemic.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE— “Advice” books abound on marriage and parenting. Jesus tells us in today’s gospel the real secret: satisfying relationships depend on how well we sacrifice our needs to serve others. It is not about “getting,” it is about “giving” ourselves. If you feel like you are a servant to your children and spouse, then you are doing it right.

Is God Calling You? “For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.” To be a priest, deacon, or religious means to serve others. Call Father Jason Hage (315) 470-1468, or write: vocations@syrdio.org.

WE REMEMBER PHILOMENA MALYS

Who entered new and eternal life in Christ. Our parish condolences to her family

Grant to all our dearly departed eternal rest, O Lord, and may your light shine on them forever.
Amen

I am excited to report that Sacred Heart Basilica has raised $19,914.07 toward our HOPE Appeal goal of $42,008.97. Thank you to all who have pledged their support to the HOPE Appeal ministries, programs, and services that benefit so many throughout Central New York, including many in our own parish.

Follow us on the Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus YouTube page for 24 hour streaming. Masses, Novena, and funerals will now be streamed on You Tube only.

REMINDER...There is a Liturgy Committee Meeting this Wednesday at 7:30am

AN INVITATION...We are anticipating and preparing for the celebration of All Saints Day. It is celebrated on Monday, November 1. At the Basilica we will celebrate this feast in a special way at our Sunday liturgy on October 31 during the 9am Mass. Children are asked to come dressed as a saint of their choice. Parents who have children in the Faith Formation Program received a letter with these details on October 18. All Children and youth of the parish are encouraged to come. Please call Sister Melanie at 315-422-4086 with questions. We'll meet in the vestibule of the church no later than 8:45am on Sunday, October 31. The children will be a part of the entrance procession. After Mass, join us for BREAKFAST WITH THE SAINTS in the church hall. We will enjoy a light continental breakfast, watch a 30 minute DVD about St. Benedict, and then work on a simple craft to take home. Everyone is welcome.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What's in it for me?

I think we've all been guilty of looking at a situation and wondering what's in it for us. It doesn't matter if it's a particular work assignment, someone at the parish asking for help with the mission trip bake sale, or your spouse asking if you'll take over the grocery shopping this week. Often, our first reaction to one of these requests is a heavy sigh and the thought: "If I do this, what will I get?"

Sometimes it surprises us to realize that the Apostles were no different. We tend to idolize these contemporaries of Christ as giants who walked with the Savior. But in reality, these individuals were merely human beings struggling to commit to the task of everyday stewardship.

In the Gospels, we see glimpses of them longing for praise and affirmation. We see them jockeying for positions of power within the group of twelve. We see them expect earthly rewards like honor and admiration. We see them acting a lot like us.

But in the end, we see them transformed by the grace of God. Like all the saints, their holiness stems from their commitment to their call. They stumble through, and as they stumble, they keep trusting God. They keep turning to Him. They keep asking for help. They don't give up just because they keep failing at it.

We are defined by what we give when we have no hope of being reimbursed, rewarded, or recognized. The Apostles understood this, eventually, and they gave accordingly. Most of them gave their very lives.

Remember, they're just like us. If they can do it, we can too.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
