LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I: WISDOM 18:6-9

The night of the passover was known beforehand to our fathers, that, with sure knowledge of the oaths in which they put their faith, they might have courage. Your people awaited the salvation of the just and the destruction of their foes. For when you punished our adversaries, in this you glorified us whom you had summoned. For in secret the holy children of the good were offering sacrifice and putting into effect with one accord the divine institution.

RESPONSORIAL SONG

R. Bless-ed the peo-ple the Lord has [cho-sen,]cho-sen to be his own.

READING II: HEBREWS 11:1-2, 8-12

Brothers and sisters: Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. Because of it the ancients were well attested. By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; he went out, not knowing where he was to go. By faith he sojourned in the promised land as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs of the same promise; for he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and maker is God. By faith he received power to generate, even though he was past the normal age—and Sarah herself was sterile—for he thought that the one who had made the promise was trustworthy. So it was that there came forth from one man, himself as good as dead, descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sands on the seashore.

GOSPEL: LUKE 12:35-40

Jesus said to his disciples: “Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master’s return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have the servants recline at table, and proceed to wait on them. And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Bles - sed the ser - vant the Lord finds rea - dy when he comes.

All music used with permission. Reprinted under OneLicense.net #A-715834

Hail Mary full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

GODPARENTS: Frequently Asked Questions

What are the requirements to be a Godparent?

- A Catholic person, who is not the parent or the one being baptized, who has received all three sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Holy Communion and Confirmation.
- Must be at least 16 years old.
- A practicing Catholic who attends Mass regularly.
- If married, a person who was married in the Catholic Church. (Please note that being legally separated and/or divorced does not in itself prevent a person from serving as a Godparent. However, one who is separated or divorced must be living as a single person and not living with someone else unless the prior marriage was annulled by the Church.)

Must we have both a Godfather and a Godmother?

No. While it is customary to have both a Godfather and a Godmother, the Sacrament of Baptism requires a minimum of one Godparent who meets all the requirements listed in the paragraph above. Note: it is not possible to have two males or two females as Godparents.

Can a non-Catholic be a Godparent?

If a person is not Catholic, but is a baptized Christian who belongs to a non-Catholic denomination and a good example of Christianity in practice, he/she may participate, together with a Godparent who meets all the requirements above, as a Christian Witness of the Baptism (Canon Law, Can. 874.2). They would not be listed as a Godparent, but as a Christian Witness.

Do Godparents have to attend the Baptism class?

This is highly recommended, but not required at St. Rose. They will be your child's Godparents forever, so it is great for them to show that commitment from the very beginning! If they cannot attend the class here at St. Rose, they are encouraged to attend an equivalent class offered at their own parish/area.

Can I just have a Christian witness instead of a Godparent?

No. Remember that a baptized non-Catholic is not the same as a Godparent. Thus, a Christian Witness may be chosen only if a Catholic Godparent has already been chosen for your child. A Christian Witness is chosen in addition to a Catholic Godparent not in place of a Catholic Godparent.

What are the responsibilities of a Godparent?

The godparent makes a profession of faith for the person being baptized and assumes an obligation to serve as proxy for the parents if the parents are unable or neglect to provide for the religious training of the child. Even when the parents provide their child with a religious upbringing, a godparent serves to encourage the child's spiritual growth over time and stands as an example of another adult with maturity in the faith, by practicing the faith, attending mass, etc.
