My dear People,

I hope you are enjoying a Happy and, thus far, Healthy New Year. Let us all pray for peace and tranquility in an increasingly hostile world; let us pray particularly for our armed forces around the globe, who seek our nation's security.

I want for a moment to go to a rather different topic: Tranquility in church. I know that there are many families here with lots of kids. That's something to brag about! God bless them all.

But sometimes there arises a time when a child is unhappy for some reason known only to the child. If there is too much fussing and noise, I ask that the parent/guardian take the child into the 'crying room' located behind the last pew on the right of the church. It's quiet in there and relatively soundproof. It's warm and lighted. Plus, I had it constructed that way for just such a purpose. PLEASE use it if necessary. Mass is normally less than an hour in length. Please don't force your neighbor and fellow parishioner to have to strain to hear what is going on, for which reason he has come to pray at Mass.

PLEASE BE CONSIDERATE.

Thank you. I hope someone reads this!
God bless you. God bless America.
Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Antinarelli, Pastor
