"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend them in battle. Be their protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil;

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen."

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

"Blessed is the fruit of thy womb"
Please choose life!

Serenity Prayer

God, grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change.

The courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time;

Accepting hardship as a pathway to peace; Taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is; Not as I would have it;

Trusting that You will make all things right if I surrender to Your will.

So that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with You forever in the next.

Amen

SAINT WHO?

Saint Ethelreda (Audry)
FEAST: June 23

This holy virgin was the third daughter of Annas, the saintly King of East Anglia. Three of her sisters, Sexburga, Ethelborga and Withburga, are numbered among the Saints. She came into this world at Exning, a village in Suffolk. To comply with the desire of her parents she married Prince Tonbert, but she remained a virgin, for they lived in perpetual continence. Three years after her marriage her husband died and she retired to the island of Ely, where she lived a secluded life of contemplation for five years. Her fame reached the ears of Egfrid, the powerful King of Northumberland, who extorted her consent to marry him: and thus for the second time she became engaged in the state of matrimony. With her second husband she lived, as she had done with the first, more as his sister than as his wife, devoting her time to the exercises of devotion and charity. Finally, after twelve years of wedded life, upon the advice of St Wilfred and more or less with her husbands consent, she embraced the religious life. She retired to the monastery of Coldingham near Berwick, where she lived in obedience to the Abbess, St. Ebba. In the year 672, she returned to the isle of Ely and founded a monastery. Her life henceforward was one of great austerity and perfection. She became a model of virtue to all her Sisters. Sufferings were her delight. She thanked God when, in her last sickness, she had much to suffer. After a lingering illness she expired in peace on June 23, 679.

PRAYER Lord God, You showered heavenly gifts on St Ethelreda. Help us to imitate her virtues during our earthly life and enjoy eternal happiness with her in heaven. Amen

NOW A FEDERAL HOLIDAY

June 19, 2021 marks the 156th anniversary of the last African American slaves being freed in Texas. This year, President Biden signed into law Juneteenth National Independence Day Act, S. 475, creating a federal holiday to commemorate Juneteenth. This is the first federal holiday approved since Martin Luther King Jr. Day in 1983.

On June 19, 1865, federal troops arrived in Galveston, Texas to take control of the state and ensure that all enslaved people be freed. This, however was two and a half years after the Emancipation Proclamation went into effect January, 1863. This day, the oldest known celebration commemorating the end of slavery in the United States, has become a day for African Americans to celebrate not only their freedom, but their history, culture and achievements. "On Juneteenth, we recommit ourselves to the work of equity, equality, and justice. And, we celebrate the centuries of struggle, courage, and hope that have brought us to this time of progress and possibility. That work has been led throughout our history by abolitionists and educators, civil rights advocates and lawyers, courageous activists and trade unionists, public officials, and everyday Americans who have helped make real the ideals of our founding documents for all." A Proclamation on Juneteenth Day of Observance, 2021, President Joseph Biden, June 18, 2021

Holy Spirit of light and love, you are the substantial love of the Father and the Son; hear my prayer. Bounteous bestower of most precious gifts, grant me a strong and living faith which makes me accept all revealed truths and shape my conduct in accord with them. Give me a most confident hope in all divine promises which prompts me to abandon myself unreservedly to you and your guidance. Infuse into me a love of perfect goodwill, and act according to God's least desires. Make me love not only my friends but my enemies as well, in imitation of Jesus Christ who through you offered himself on the Cross for all people. Holy Spirit, animate, inspire, and guide me, and help me to be always a true follower of you. Amen.
