The Knight's of Columbus

Council 5186 will be offering pink bracelets for

Birthright and Rosary prayer cards at each of the Tri-Parish Masses on Father's Day weekend.

God our Father, from eternity You appointed Your only begotten Son to be the High Priest of the human race.

Lord Jesus, give us priests and holy priests:

To offer up the unceasing sacrifice of the Mass;

To lead the little ones to You;

To strengthen the faith of believers;

To preach the Gospel to all peoples;

To bring forgiveness to repentant sinners;

To give the Bread of Life to starving souls;

To comfort the suffering;

To help the dying;

To spread Your Kingdom in our midst;

Mary, Mother of our High Priest, pray for us;

Obtain for us an increase of holy priests.

Amen

An urgent plea to you...

URGE NY STATE SENATORS TO SAY NO TO
"PHYSICIAN ASSISTED SUICIDE"

The State Assembly approved the so called "Medical Aid In Dying Act" (81-67 vote).

It allows any person 18 and above, who is terminally ill, to request the help of a Doctor in committing suicide. The Doctor provides the means for them to kill themselves; observes the suicide and confirms the person is dead. Canada passed a similar bill in 2016 which, in 2027, will expand the list to those who suffer from depression, anxiety and anorexia. That Bill is now before the State Senate (S138). We should offer the suffering comfort, care and love...not suicide.

Please contact the State Senators who represent our parishes today and urge them to vote NO. Be polite, be brief and thank them for considering your opinion.

Welcome to our new Business Manager ~ I am happy to announce that I have hired Thomas Lupia as our new business manager. He has been our building and grounds supervisor for the past three years (2022-2025). He knows every inch and all the particular details, of our three campuses and has seen to their repairs and upkeep. Previously he was part of the "Ground Operations Unit" at the Syracuse Airport (2012-2022), coordinating multiple teams of personnel and equipment for the arrivals / departures and luggage at the airport. God's abundant blessings upon you in this new position.

Fr. Wirkes

Come, Holy Spirit, Creator, come!
From Your bright heavenly throne!
Come, take possession of our souls,
And make them all Your own!

You who are called the Paraclete,
Best gift of God above,
The living spring, the living fire,
Sweet unction, and true love!

You who are sevenfold in Your grace,
Finger of God's right hand,
His promise, teaching little ones
To speak and understand!

O guide our minds with Your blest light,
With love our hearts inflame,
And with Your strength which ne'er decays
Confirm our mortal frame.

Far from us drive our hellish foe,
True peace unto us bring,
And through all perils guide us safe
Beneath Your sacred wing.

Through You may we the
Father know,
Through You, the eternal Son,
And You, the Spirit of them
both,
Thrice-blessed Three in one.

All glory to the Father be,
And to the risen Son;
The same to You, O Comforter,
While endless ages run.

Amen

Stemma ufficiale del Santo Padre Leone XIV

Here is the coat-of-arms of Pope Leo XIV.

His motto is "In Illo Uno Unum"*, which from the elegance you know is from St. Augustine. Indeed it is, from en. ps. 127.

The arms bear a Marian lily of purity and the symbol of the Augustinians, the arrow-pierced burning heart on the book, for Augustine is a Doctor of the Church. It is simple. That is good.

That Augustinian symbol is so familiar to me, since I studied in Rome at the Patristic Institute "Augustinianum" (while Prevost was there... and his classmate was president).

His name. He told the cardinals that he wanted to affirm the path that the Church took with the Second Vatican Council, underscoring certain elements that both Benedict and Francis emphasized. Hence he took the name Leo, calling to Leo XIII, and the social teaching of the Church. Perhaps it is only coincidence that Leo XIII's family had intimate dealings with Augustinians.

In that talk to Cardinals he mentioned AI. This is a big deal.

His pectoral cross, at least what he has now, has relics of Augustinian saints, including Augustine and Monica.

In the One (Christ), we are One"

ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA

"St. Anthony, St. Anthony, come around! Something's lost that must be found!" Did you learn this rhyme in childhood? St. Anthony of Padua is more than the patron saint for lost items. By his life, he shows a special interest in lost souls. St. Anthony was born to noble parents, but he preferred a simple life of faith to the riches of his childhood. He joined the Franciscan order in 1220. He quickly became known for his eloquence in preaching. He had a way of reaching all sorts, from nobles to clergy to those who had fallen away from the Catholic faith. In addition to preaching, St. Anthony organized supplies for the poor and negotiated release for prisoners of war between Italian city-states. However you or your loved ones feel lost this week, pray for St. Anthony's intercession!
