WHAT DOES FATHER FOX SAY?

Thank you to Mark Travis and Karen Rosenbeck. On Friday, May 13, our youth director Mark Travis announced on our parish Facebook page that he has accepted a position as executive director of the Relic Shrine in Maria Stein. On Tuesday, Karen Rosenbeck announced her retirement after 20 years of dedicated service. Both Mark and Karen are planning to be available and involved over the summer to assist Father Ned Brown, our new pastor, in the transition.

Although changes like these can be unsettling, they are part of the life of a parish. Karen and her husband Vern, who recently retired as principal at St. Mary School in Greenville, certainly deserve the adventure of retirement together. And Mark is very gifted, so it was inevitable that an opportunity like this would find him. We were very blessed to have his dedicated leadership for eight years.

Moreover, as important as it is to have strong leadership, the deep reservoirs of faith and family life in this parish are what make this parish healthy. The bedrock beneath that, in turn, is the Rock of Jesus Christ Himself. Don't let this season of change disturb you.

Father Brown is already working on this. As I became aware of these things, I have kept our incoming pastor, Father Ned Brown, informed. He understands the importance of our youth and religious education programs. Father Brown told me he intends to move quickly to determine what is needed and to find the right people for the tasks. There may be a few bumps in the near term, but what's important is to plan and choose carefully for the long-term. I also explained to Father Brown that there are great volunteers involved in these programs who will also be able to help fill in the gaps during a period of transition.

Traveling in June. I will be away from the parish from Saturday evening, June 11 – after the wedding – until I return sometime on Friday, June 24, for a wedding rehearsal that evening. I will be attending an ordination for a friend in Baltimore, as well as his first Mass, and also visiting some family and friends and spending a few days at the beach.

Fathers Hoying and Jones will be here while I'm away. Father Stephen "Party" Jones will be here the first week I'm gone, and then Father Ethan Hoying will cover confessions and Mass during the next week. They will also be available for any other sacramental emergency.

Race-consciousness is racism. Last weekend, there was a horrendous crime in Buffalo in which many people were murdered in a grocery store. The apparent perpetrator (I won't say his name, let us deny him the notoriety he craves) wrote a manifesto that seems to be a semi-coherent hodgepodge of views. In any case, the victims were all black and he seems to be white. It appears at least some of his ideas were about white nationalism or white-identity consciousness.

While I certainly don't believe such ideas have many adherents, I am not naïve. Sometimes people get drawn gradually into believing some strange notions. They read or hear a slick presentation that seems to give the "real story" behind some big problem. Many times, I've been shocked to find a friend or relative buying into a crackpot theory.

So now you can hear it from me: any theory or idea of "race nationalism" or "white identity" is just plain old racism, gussied up in new clothing. This is, I suspect, something of a reaction to those promoting so-called "critical race theory," which asserts that racism and race-consciousness are baked into all of us and that we will never overcome it.

The Christian answer is a loud and long "NO!" God created a fascinating variety of human beings, of all shapes and hues, with lots of curious languages and cultures and customs, and every human being has the exact same dignity and worth, period. And that worth is infinite. St. Paul said that in Christ, we are no longer male or female, Jew or Greek, slave or free. And in any case, any notion of "race purity" is utter nonsense. Most likely, we are all "mutts," and who cares? The only purity that matters to God is moral and spiritual.

Things I didn't get done. When I first announced my reassignment, I cautioned that the complications of this transition would probably mean some things getting neglected. So, for example, I was unable to organize a women's event in March as I'd done in prior years, and I see no way to organize our annual men's prayer walk, usually in June. I regret this and hope you will forgive me. I encourage you to bring these matters to Father Brown's attention at some point. I am confident he will be glad to promote any number of traditions, but he may not know about them.

LIVE YOUR FAITH

The family receiving the TRAVELING VOCATION CHALICE this Sunday is Alan and Kelly Schulze. The family receiving it the week of May 29 is Mike and Sara Stueve. Please pick up the chalice from the table inside the rectory door after Mass on Sunday, and return it to the same place the following Friday.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BRING THE TRAVELING VOCATION CHALICE AND RELATED MATERIALS INTO YOUR HOME? Please see the binder in the back of church to sign up. This is a great tool to encourage vocations in your home, as well as to pray for our priests and for more vocations.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE INTENTIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER FOR THE MONTH OF MAY

Universal Intention: We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary's life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates, and the dedication to service.

Message from Mark Travis

A note of gratitude and farewell:

In the words of St. John Paul II, "Time flies, eternity awaits." I can hardly believe it has been nearly 8 years since I started at St. Remy's, and I am eternally grateful for my time here at the parish. I am writing to announce that I have accepted a new full-time job and will be leaving my role as Director of Youth Ministry here at St. Remy's. I want to assure you that I intend to still help the new hire in any capacity deemed fit by our new pastor, the new hire, and the needs of our parish. The toughest part will be moving on, but I am very excited for the new opportunity to continue serving the Church as the new Executive Director for the Shrine of the Holy Relics in Maria Stein. This will take place in mid-June. In the meantime, I am coordinating this with Father Fox and our new pastor, Father Ned Brown, to ensure our summer activities continue as planned. Although change is often a challenge, the Lord will continue to lead the great work here at St. Remy's because of the deep love this community has for Christ and His holy will. I am certain the Lord has someone ready for the job. I wish to thank everyone personally for impacting my life in such a huge way over the years. The list of names is far too long to mention, but I need to thank the St. Remy Church staff. My time here has been so blessed by each of them, and I don't have adequate words to express my sincerest gratitude to them all. St. Remy's has become a second home to me, and the people have become family. To the youth, I know it sounds cliché, but you all have impacted my life in a profound way. Seek the Lord and never give up. Persevere always. From the words of St. John Bosco, "Walk with your feet on earth but in your heart be in heaven." Please know of my continual prayers for all the intentions of the parish and the community, and I'm sure you will still see me around. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Mark Travis

May God bless our council with wisdom and grace as they make decisions on behalf of us all.

Message from Karen Rosenbeck

It is with deepest appreciation and gratitude that I was fortunate enough to have served St. Remy Parish as Coordinator of Religious Education the past twenty years. It is my plan to now retire this summer. I have been most blessed and honored to have worked with co-workers that I consider not only my friends, but family.

It has been a great privilege to witness the faith and spiritual growth of the children and young adults of our parish over these many years. To have been a part of your children's faith formation from kindergarten to graduation, and having been involved in their preparation and reception of the sacraments of Reconciliation, Holy Eucharist, and Confirmation, has been a great blessing in my life.

I want to thank all those individuals from our parish who stepped forward throughout these many years to take on the role of religion teacher at one point or another. The selfless gift of your time and talents given to ensure the continued success of our Religious Ed program is very much appreciated and to be commended. To those seasoned teachers within our program who have taught for twenty-five or more years, may God richly bless you. I personally cannot thank you enough.

Thank you Father Fox, Father Amberger, Father Vonderhaar, the staff, teachers, parents, and parish community for all the prayers and support you have generously given in helping the children of our parish grow and flourish in their Catholic Faith.

I am eternally grateful and humbled to have served Christ and His Church in this capacity, and I will be praying for the continued success of all our faith formation programs.

*In sincerest appreciation and gratitude,
Karen Rosenbeck*

From the Deacon's Desk

The following article was written by Deacon Mike Meyer.

In today's Gospel, Jesus begins to prepare His disciples in advance for His absence so that they will continue to believe in Him and not feel all alone after His return to the Father. After the initial excitement of His Easter appearances, Jesus will remain with His followers in a very different way throughout the centuries.

As our celebration of the Easter Season is coming to an end, the liturgy reminds us that Jesus remains with us through the Holy Spirit, who teaches us everything we need to know, reminds us of all that Jesus taught, and brings us peace.

Please remember to pray for the people listed in the St. Remy Prayer Intentions Book located in the back of church.

Life Information For Everyone

St. Remy Rosary Campaign

Join parishioners and pray a Rosary each day for peace in Ukraine and Russia and throughout the world, for our Supreme Court Justices, and for the conversion of our country!

If you would like to pray with other parishioners, please consider that from now until August 10, the Rosary will be prayed at the Grotto immediately following 6:15 p.m. Mass on Wednesday evenings. The Rosary is also prayed before each Mass.

“Some people are so foolish that they think they can go through life without the help of the Blessed Mother. Love the Madonna and pray the Rosary, for her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today. All graces given by God pass through the Blessed Mother.”

~St. Padre Pio

Congratulations to

Father Ethan Hoying!

After many years of study and preparation, this son of our parish was ordained to the priesthood by Archbishop Dennis Schnurr on Saturday, May 21 at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Peter in Chains in Cincinnati.

We thank Father Hoying for his hard work in our parish and the example that he provides to us. May God bless him as he sets out to shepherd God's people as a holy priest.

Father Hoying's First Mass of Thanksgiving will be celebrated this Sun., May 22 at 1:30 p.m. A reception at St. Remy Hall will follow. Everyone is welcome to participate.

Thank You to our Altar Servers!

So many parishioners and visitors talk about the importance of Mass being reverent, and that they appreciate the reverence they experience at St. Remy. What you may not realize is how important our altar servers are in this.

Our servers volunteer for many years for this duty, and it is a big responsibility, on top of their school work, athletics, and other duties at home or at work. The skill and dedication of our altar servers makes my job easier and helps to make Mass at St. Remy an experience of beautiful worship. I would like to especially thank the following young men who are “retiring” as they graduate from high school:

Jonas Magoto
Jordan Meyer
Vincent Peyton
Jared Poling

I wish these gentlemen God's richest blessings as they continue on their journey with our Lord.
