THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

From the Pastor

And then, just as Wilbur was settling down for his morning nap, he heard again the thin voice that had addressed him the night before.

"Salutations!" said the voice.

Wilbur jumped to his feet. "Salu-what?" he cried.

"Salutations!" repeated the voice.

"What are they, and where are you?" screamed Wilbur. "Please, please, tell me where you are. And what are salutations?"

"Salutations are greetings," said the voice. "When I say 'salutations,' it's just my fancy way of saying hello or good morning." — E.B. White, Charlotte's Web

Dear Parishioners,

Welcome to Cyndi Crellin, Holy Spirit's new parish secretary! Cyndi lives in Avon with her husband, Brad, and their three boys. Getting Cyndi is a real coup for the parish. Her name was first surfaced by Laury Stuebner as a possible successor several years ago when Laury started to plan for retirement. I was surprised by the suggestion because I was already very familiar with Cyndi as she had been a secretary at The Tribunal Office when I began working there in 2000. Cyndi later became an auditor, the person who organizes and handles information on a case for invalidity such as finding missing pieces of data, making and answering phone calls—sometimes from irate or emotional people, doing interviews of petitioners, respondents, and witnesses, and much more. All of these qualities put her in good stead for parish office work. She already knows the Catholic lingo. I promised her that there will be far, far fewer people calling who are going to be irate with her (please don't make me a liar!). She is a fine addition to the parish staff and I am sure that you will welcome her.

SALUTATIONS, CYNDI!

Sincerely,

Rev. Charles F. Strebler, Pastor

First Reading

Exodus 24:3-8

A reading from the book of Exodus.

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us." Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar. Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do." Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

How can I repay the LORD
for all his goodness to me?
The cup of salvation I will raise;
I will call on the name of the LORD.

A thanksgiving sacrifice I make;
I will call on the name of the LORD.
My vows to the LORD I will fulfill before all his people.

How precious in the eyes of the LORD
is the death of his faithful.
Your servant, LORD, your servant am I,
the son of your handmaid; you have loosened my bonds.

Second Reading

Hebrews 9:11-15

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

Brothers and sisters: When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God. For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark. Glory to you, O Lord.

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there." The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, All bow until "and became man" and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A Good Refresher on this Feast Day!

From The Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Sacrament of the Eucharist: Basic Questions and Answers

Produced by the Committee on Doctrine of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and approved by the full body of bishops at their June 2001 General Meeting

4. Does the bread cease to be bread and the wine cease to be wine?

Yes. In order for the whole Christ to be present—body, blood, soul, and divinity—the bread and wine cannot remain, but must give way so that his glorified Body and Blood may be present. Thus in the Eucharist the bread ceases to be bread in substance, and becomes the Body of Christ, while the wine ceases to be wine in substance, and becomes the Blood of Christ. As St. Thomas Aquinas observed, Christ is not quoted as saying, "This bread is my body," but "This is my body" (Summa Theologiae, III q. 78, a. 5).

5. Is it fitting that Christ's Body and Blood become present in the Eucharist under the appearances of bread and wine?

Yes, for this way of being present corresponds perfectly to the sacramental celebration of the Eucharist. Jesus Christ gives himself to us in a form that employs the symbolism inherent in eating bread and drinking wine. Furthermore, being present under the appearances of bread and wine, Christ gives himself to us in a form that is appropriate for human eating and drinking. Also, this kind of presence corresponds to the virtue of faith, for the presence of the Body and Blood of Christ cannot be detected or discerned by any way other than faith. That is why St. Bonaventure affirmed: "There is no difficulty over Christ's being present in the sacrament as in a sign; the great difficulty is in the fact that He is really in the sacrament, as He is in heaven. And so believing this is especially meritorious" (In IV Sent., dist. X, P. I, art. un., qu. I). On the authority of God who reveals himself to us, by faith we believe that which cannot be grasped by our human faculties (cf. Catechism, no. 1381).

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST BY DR. SCOTT HAHN

In this presentation, Dr. Scott Hahn, a former Presbyterian minister, provides the Biblical basis for the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist and the significance of the Feast of Corpus Christi. Message from the St. Kizito Foundation—

From 2006-2012 Fr. Don Dunson assisted Fr. Jim Beatty presiding at masses here at Holy Spirit on weekends. On July 1st Fr. Don will be going on a mission trip to Uganda. Because of pandemic restrictions put in place in this region of the world food insecurity has been on a sharp rise. Holy Spirit parishioners have been very supportive of the ministry of St. Kizito over many years. If you are able to contribute towards emergency food assistance your compassionate outreach will be used immediately to aid our African sisters and brothers most in need.

Worship and Music at Holy Spirit Parish

With many COVID-19 protocols being lifted, our parish is in need of more volunteers for liturgical ministries. We have several opportunities to share your time and talent! We are in particular need of sacristans, which set up the various items that are needed for Mass and assist with cleaning up after Mass. There are also a few duties during Mass. An experienced sacristan will train all volunteers and work with you until you are comfortable on your own. Husband and wife teams or other pairings are welcome! Sacristans don't need to serve every week but a commitment of at least once a month is appreciated. Sacristans are adults who are fully initiated into the Catholic Church, having received Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. If you are interested in giving your time and talent to our parish for this important ministry, please contact Nathan Hetrick at nhetrick@hspal.org or 440-933-3777 ext. 212.
