From the Pastor

"We're putting the band back together."
--The Blues Brothers

Dear Parishioners:

Well, not exactly the band, more accurately, The Choir. After a many-months absence due to COVID and summer--it has been since March 2020 that we had the choir present at the 10:30 Mass on Sundays--Nathan Hetrick, the Director of Worship and Music at Holy Spirit, is working to get the Mass choir up and running again.

Choir is a ministry, not a performance. The primary role of the cantors and choir is to help the congregation to sing at the liturgies. There are times that they may do the greater share of the singing, but it is always at the service of the liturgy and of prayer.

Even before COVID, we were lacking the members we needed; even more so now. The choir is looking for all voices, male and female, older and younger (18+), soprano, alto, bass, tenor. If you aren't sure you have the voice for the choir, hear the words of St. Augustine:

> See how he himself provides you with a way of singing. Do not search for words, as if you could find a lyric which would give God pleasure. Sing to him "with songs of joy." This is singing well to God, just singing with songs of joy.

Choir practice is changing nights and will take place on Wednesday evenings, starting September 8th in the Holy Family Chapel at 7:00 pm. If you are interested or have any other questions, please contact Nathan in the parish office.

Finally, I am not above threats: Join the choir. If you don't sing…I will!

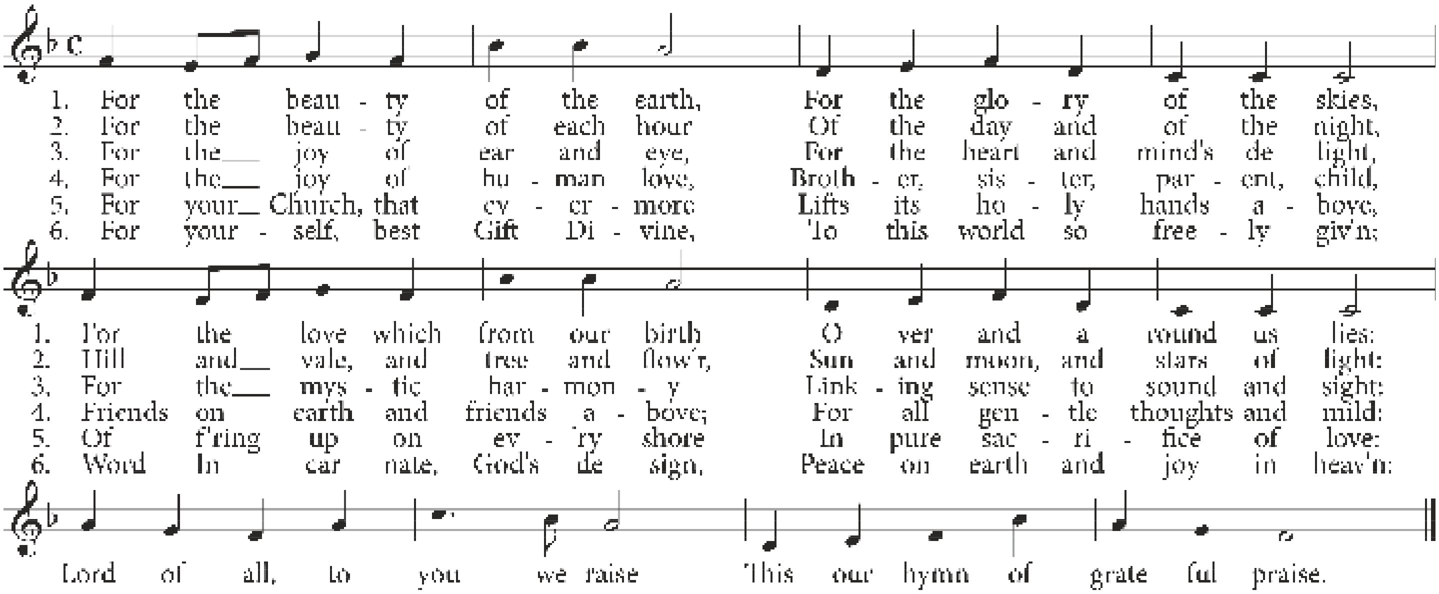
Sincerely,

Rev. Charles F. Strebler, Pastor

Please sing out with full voice! We love to hear you sing!

Entrance Hymn

For the Beauty of the Earth



Text: 77 77 77; Lyra Eucharistica, 1864; Folliott S. Pierpoint, 1835–1917, alt. Music: DIX; Conrad Kocher, 1786–1872; adapt. by William H. Monk, 1823–1899.

Penitential Act

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

-or-

Kyrie, eleison. Kyrie, eleison.
Christe, eleison. Christe, eleison.
Kyrie, eleison. Kyrie, eleison.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy.

Moses said to the people: "Now, Israel, hear the statutes and decrees which I am teaching you to observe, that you may live, and may enter in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. In your observance of the commandments of the LORD, your God, which I enjoin upon you, you shall not add to what I command you nor subtract from it. Observe them carefully, for thus will you give evidence of your wisdom and intelligence to the nations, who will hear of all these statutes and say, 'This great nation is truly a wise and intelligent people.' For what great nation is there that has gods so close to it as the LORD, our God, is to us whenever we call upon him? Or what great nation has statutes and decrees that are as just as this whole law which I am setting before you today?"

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Whoever walks blamelessly and does justice;
who thinks the truth in his heart and slanders not with his tongue.

Who harms not his fellow man,
nor takes up a reproach against his neighbor;
by whom the reprobate is despised,
while he honors those who fear the LORD.

Who lends not his money at usury and accepts no bribe against the innocent.
Whoever does these things shall never be disturbed.

Second Reading

James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

A reading from the second Letter of Saint James.

All good giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no alteration or shadow caused by change. He willed to give us birth by the word of truth that we may be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls.

Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves.

Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark. Glory to you, O Lord.

When the Pharisees with some scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus, they observed that some of his disciples ate their meals with unclean, that is, unwashed, hands.—For the Pharisees and, in fact, all Jews, do not eat without carefully washing their hands, keeping the tradition of the elders. And on coming from the marketplace they do not eat without purifying themselves. And there are many other things that they have traditionally observed, the purification of cups and jugs and kettles and beds.—So the Pharisees and scribes questioned him,"Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders but instead eat a meal with unclean hands?" He responded, "Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written:

This people honors me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me;
in vain do they worship me,
teaching as doctrines human precepts.

You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition." He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile.

"From within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly. All these evils come from within and they defile."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, [All bow until "and became man"]
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

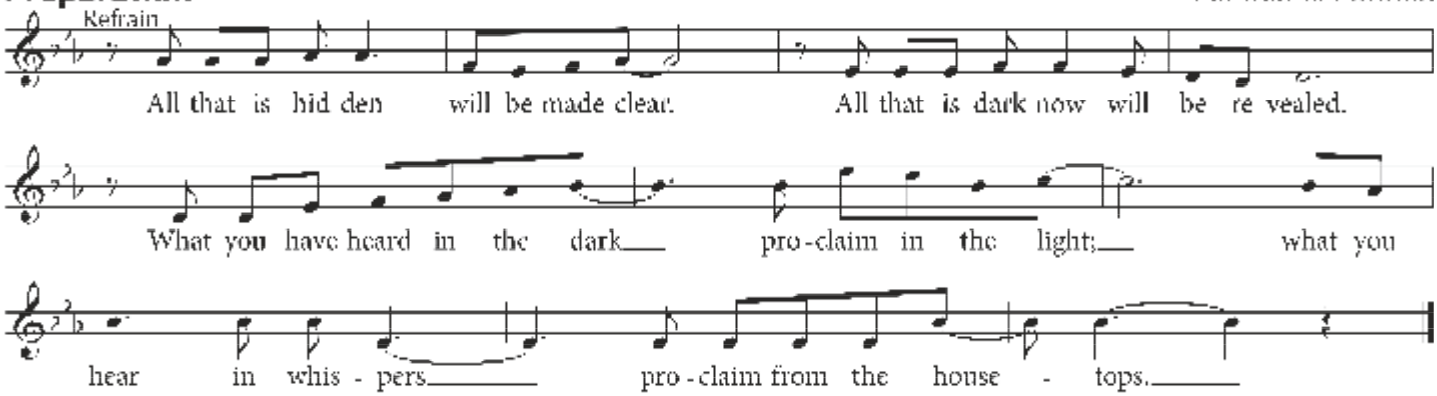
Preparation

All that is Hidden



Text: Refrain based on Luke 12:2–3. Text and music © 1986, 1988, Bernadette Farrell. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.

1. If you would follow me, follow where life will lead:
do not look for me among the dead,
for I am hidden in pain, risen in love;
there is no harvest without sowing of grain.

2. If you would honor me, honor the least of these:
you will not find me dressed in finery.
My Word cries out to be heard; breaks through the world:
my Word is on your lips and lives in your heart.

3. If you would speak of me, live all your life in me:
my ways are not the ways that you would choose;
my thoughts are far beyond yours, as heaven from earth:
if you believe in me my voice will be heard.

4. If you would rise with me, rise through your destiny:
do not refuse the death which brings you life,
for as the grain in the earth must die for rebirth,
so I have planted your life deep within mine.

Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Acclamation

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.

Amen

Amen, Amen, Amen.

Sign of Peace

Please exchange without physical contact with those who are not part of your family. A slight bow or wave is suggested.

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. (two times)
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Worship and Music at Holy Spirit Parish

We are blessed at our parish to have some talented cantors, or song-leaders. This seems like a good opportunity to describe the proper role of the cantor in the Mass. Strictly speaking, the only parts of the Mass that belong to the cantor alone are the verses to the Responsorial Psalm, and the verse to the Alleluia. Cantors can also be helpful when we learn new music. However, the cantor does not function as a soloist, or even necessarily as a leader (even though excellent cantors generally possess leadership skills). The cantor is there, along with the organist or pianist, to facilitate the song of the congregation. To paraphrase Father Strebler's homily last week, to let the cantor sing everything is easy, to sing at Mass with full voice is difficult. However, it is expected, even if there is a choir present, that the members of the assembly and all ministers sing the parts of the Mass that belong to them—the hymns, chants, spiritual songs, responses, and acclamations all belong to you, not to the cantor or the organist. Sometimes the cantor will even step back from the microphone to encourage you, the gathered people present at Mass, to sing out more fully. Let us all embrace our roles as music-makers at the Mass and sing out with a full heart and voice!
