From the Pastor

“May all your troubles last as long as your New Year's resolutions!”—Joey Adams

Dear Parishioners:

I'm not one for New Year's resolutions. They are often made based on what we have been doing in the last weeks and especially the week before—usually eating and eating. Resolutions go unmet for a period of time and are discarded. People make the resolution to exercise in the New Year and then by February the new gym equipment becomes a new clothes rack. The gyms and makers of gym equipment count on this.

I am also suspicious of religious New Year's resolutions. This is not because decisions to pray more, to read scripture, to get to confession more often, to read the bible, to serve others, especially those in need, etc. are bad. It is the approach that is problematic. People start to do these things, then life intervenes, and they drop their resolve to do it.

I suggest that we instead make a “New Day's resolution.” We wake each day to a new day and resolve to do a particular action in our Christian life. If we achieve it that day, great. If not, then go to bed, wake up, and make a new resolution.

Doing it in this way makes us less likely just to give up the whole endeavor. Starting new each day tells us not to worry if we've failed in the past. That was yesterday; this is today, a new day to start anew!

On behalf of the parish staff, let me wish you all a Happy New Day--and a Blessed 2022.

Sincerely,

Rev. Charles F. Strebler,

Pastor

 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

First Reading

Isaiah 60:1-6

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come,
 the glory of the Lord shines upon you.
 See, darkness covers the earth,
 and thick clouds cover the peoples;
 but upon you the LORD shines,
 and over you appears his glory.
 Nations shall walk by your light,
 and kings by your shining radiance.
 Raise your eyes and look about;
 they all gather and come to you:

your sons come from afar,
 and your daughters in the arms of their nurses.
 Then you shall be radiant at what you see,
 your heart shall throb and overflow,
 for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you,
 the wealth of nations shall be brought to you.
 Caravans of camels shall fill you,
 dromedaries from Midian and Ephah;
 all from Sheba shall come

bearing gold and frankincense,
and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

O God, give your judgment to the king,
to a king's son your justice,
that he may judge your people in justice,
and your poor in right judgment.

In his days shall justice flourish,
and great peace till the moon is no more.
He shall rule from sea to sea,
from the River to the bounds of the earth.

The kings of Tarshish and the islands shall pay him
tribute.

The kings of Sheba and Seba shall bring him gifts.
Before him all kings shall fall prostrate,
all nations shall serve him.

For he shall save the needy when they cry,
the poor, and those who are helpless.
He will have pity on the weak and the needy,
and save the lives of the needy.

Second Reading

Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians.

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Matthew 2:1-12

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel."

Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God, begotten, not made,
 consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
 [All bow until "and became man"]
 and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory
 to judge the living and the dead
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
 and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

From the Parish Catechetical Leader

"For by gold the power of a king is signified, by frankincense the honor of God, by myrrh the burial of the body; and accordingly they offer Him gold as King, frankincense as God, myrrh as Man."

St John Chrysostom

This day we celebrate the visit of the three magi to our Infant Lord, the first presentation of the Gospel to the Gentile nations beyond Israel. Indeed, the word epiphany itself means “a revealing, a sudden insight, an intuitive understanding.” Let us join with the magi in adoring our Lord on this day and throughout the year!

For myself, if all goes as planned, I will be returning to work this week at the parish office after my absence. My recovery has taken much longer than I would ever have anticipated when I was initially diagnosed back in November. Thank you to everyone who has been praying for my health. Your kindness and concern has been most appreciated! All is grace!

Christ is born! Glorify Him!
