Baptism of the Lord

After Jesus was baptized, he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and a voice was heard, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." As we give to the poor, we also can hear these same words. As you help those who are suffering, know in your heart the truth of the words "you are my beloved with whom I am well pleased."

NATIVITY NEWS

ROSARY FOR OUR COUNTRY

Please join us in prayer Tuesdays at 4:00PM in church. Pamphlets available on table inside the Weekday entrance door. If you have any questions, please call Barb Bergdorf at 330-714-6446.

ADORATION AND EXPOSITION

Every Thursday from noon—7:00PM in church. Materials are available in the Narthex for your use. "Be still and know that I am God!" (Psalms 46:11)

CLUSTER PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY will meet at 10 am, on Tuesday, January 11, at Nativity Catholic Church. Please bring your shawls and any work in progress. Also donations to our homeless shelter can be brought at this time. If anyone in the parish knows of someone in need of a prayer shawl or any questions about this ministry, please contact Barb Zimmerman at 330-699-4769 or Louise Golden at 330-571-3384.

BIBLE STUDY ON THE EUCHARIST

Join us as we explore the Old Testament roots and New Testament fulfillment of this mystery.

GODPARENTS

My best friend is Lutheran and is a good Christian. I would like her to be my child's sponsor, but I'm wondering, does she have to be a practicing Catholic?

The practice of two godparents for an infant's baptism goes back to the time when church law and civil law were one and the same in Europe. If anything did happen to the parents, the custody and well-being of the child became the responsibility of the godparents. Adult baptism required that one have a sponsor from the church who would act as a guide or mentor, in bringing the person to faith.

Today, being a godparent has no legal implications. It is a spiritual matter. But at least one of the godparents must be a practicing Catholic. The other is called a Christian witness. This distinction recognizes the difference between faith and religion. A Christian can be a witness because of their relationship to God (faith), but the Catholic is a mentor in the practice of the religion.

In any event, it is vital that parents give serious consideration to the people they choose to be a child's godparents. That choice should be based on practice of faith, solid moral character and ability to give good example. Too often the choice is left to whose turn it is in the family, or to friends that parents wish to honor or acknowledge in some way. Your choice of godparents is the first lesson of faith you teach your child. Make it count! ©LPi

LIVE OUT YOUR BAPTISM

Dear Parish Family,

Some of you may have heard about the universal Synod: For a Synodal Church called for by Pope Francis during the years 2021 – 2023. In April 2021, Pope Francis initiated a synodal journey of the whole People of God, beginning in October of 2021 and culminating in October of 2023 in the Assembly of the Synod of Bishops. The entire People of God, in all its diversity, is invited to participate in the upcoming Synod which will focus on the three pillars of a Synodal Church:

- Communion -To gather together as people of one faith
- Participation -To engage in dialogue and respectful listening to one another
- Mission -To witness to the Good News of God's love in the world

Through the end of the year, all Catholics will be invited to participate in this process of listening, dreaming, and discerning God's call for the Church amid the present signs of the times. Diocesan discernment will culminate in a "Pre-Synodal Meeting" early next year.

What is Synodality? - It is a call for intentional listening and journeying together through and with the Holy Spirit. In the words of Pope Francis, a synodal Church is a "listening Church knowing that listening is more than feeling. It is a mutual listening in which everyone has something to learn. We must all listen to the Holy Spirit, the spirit of Truth to know what the Spirit is saying to the Church. Synodality provides opportunities to listen to the Holy Spirit and the People of God in order to discern together and walk forward on a common path, accompanying each other on the spiritual journey as we live out our missionary call."

Next week, I will provide some more details about our diocesan and parish involvement in this process.

God bless you – Fr. Kawalec

TIDBITS FROM THE CHURCH MOUSE

Hi Folks,

As you may recall, I had an interesting trip home from Granny's after our family Christmas, and by the time I got home, I ended up with only the empty stocking that Granny made. (prior 3 episodes are available in the bulletins on the website) I woke up the next morning and looked up at the limp stocking hanging on my wall. I felt a bit sad that all of my new treasures were gone. It had been a wonderful party. I remembered how thoughtful each of the gifts were and the excitement I had felt when opening them. Then I remembered how the Mama chipmunk, the squirrel and the opossum eagerly accepted my gifts, but didn't even thank me. Oh well, it was time to go looking for a snack, since I no longer had my bit of goat cheese.

As I scurried upstairs, I saw all the lights on in church, and you people were swarming in. My curiosity made me look inside, and it almost took my breath away. The church still looked beautiful with lights and trees and flowers everywhere!

The music started and hearing you sing gave me such joy. Even though there are many folks who have packed Christmas away, it continues to be celebrated here through Christmastide. I stayed to watch as Mass was celebrated and afterwards when everyone was greeting each other in the narthex. Seeing such joyful spirit, I began to feel my mood brighten. I even found some Cheerios in the star room!

I made myself comfortable in the corner and napped until I heard music starting again. It was time for the 11:00 Mass. Listening to the Bible readings and homily made me start thinking. Maybe the best part of Christmas is not in getting, but in giving. I thought of how excited I was to receive my gifts, but actually felt even better inside when I was able to give them to others in need. Then I thought of all of you and realized how blessed I am here at Nativity to have you gathering here to celebrate God's gift of His Son. You are my gift all year long and will always be here.

So long for now from Chatter, your friendly church mouse 🐭🐭

A SUCCESSFUL SEASON OF SHARING THE BIRTH OF OUR LORD WITH VISITORS TO THE BETHLEHEM CAVE AND NATIVITY MUSEUM

Over 300 visitors for guided and self-guided tours during December to the Bethlehem Marketplace.

We could not do it without the help of many volunteers, so THANK YOU to Fr. Kawalec, Ada, Kim, Helen, Mary Ann, Dwight, Jim N., Pat, Ed, Donna, Larry, Steve T., Sue, Michele, Philip, Calleigh, Thom, Katie, Adam, Marilyn, Cathy, Jim M., Mike M., Mike R., and Steve C. If you don't know who these wonderful people are, then you should join them next year!

Our parish truly lived its mission to "give birth to Jesus Christ in the hearts of all people..." Unfortunately, we had to turn some people away who wanted guided tours because we didn't have enough trained tour guides. If you are called to share the message of Jesus' birth, training is available and it is a minimal time commitment. For information, contact tours@nativityofthelord.org.

The Baptism of the Lord

“We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ.” — Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.
