PASTOR'S NOTES

The Lord be with you!

I do not usually repeat myself, but what happened the last week of April is important enough that I need to make sure that everyone has the right information. After going over the good and bad news, I will reflect briefly on how Our Lady can help us the rest of this month.

First, the good news: the St. Therese school has been leased! As I am certain many of you have noticed from their signs, Brilliant Academy will be operating a charter school there. Mr. Marshall Emerson is their director, and hopefully later in the summer he can give the parish a presentation about the school and what they hope to achieve. Much like with the former Ss. Peter and Paul school, Brilliant Academy will not own (or in this case lease) the building directly. Instead, Brilliant will be subleasing from EJ Allotrope, which is the partnership of Joel Goldman and Elliot Jacobs. The lease will be for two years, and it is a triple-net lease such that St. Therese is not responsible for the building. At the end of the lease, it is our expectation that Mr. Jacobs and Mr. Goldman will purchase the building outright and Brilliant Academy will become a fixture of our neighborhood. We will have access to the school parking lot for weekends so that there is enough parking for us. Otherwise, we do not plan on using the building or having much of a presence there. We do want to be good neighbors, but it is important that Brilliant Academy make the school their own space.

Second, the bad news: three statues were smashed at the Ss. Peter and Paul Shrine. On Wednesday, April 28th at 1:00am I had heard several large thuds and came to the front door of the rectory to investigate. Upon opening that door, I saw a young man destroying the three children's statues of the Shrine and shouted for him to stop, which he did. I then approached him to about twenty feet and confronted him about the damage. He then warned me not to touch him in a less than friendly manner. I told him that I would be calling the police. At that he walked away, crossed Turney, and began going north. It only took the police two minutes to respond to my call, and they were able to catch him such that I could i.d. him from the back of the police cruiser. Charges are being pressed against him. The damage to the Shrine is around $10,000, but insurance should be able to handle it. We are evaluating how to replace the statues so that it will not be as easy to damage them.

What is most important to me is that we have a place fit for our community. Everyone knows that Garfield Heights has changed, and we will need to adapt to those changes. Part of those adaptations is security and how to keep our corner safe. It would be premature for me to speak publicly, but we are pursuing a couple of initiatives to enhance the security of both our parishes.

Cont'd

These two pieces of news are amongst the most important that I have shared with you. They are both significant but in very different ways and deserve our attention. When such moments come about, it is especially fitting to turn to Mary. We want her - in only the way that a mother can - to tell her Son: thank you for the school lease. At the same time, we want her to drape her mantle across our city and invoke her protection over it. Mary always leads us more deeply into love: human and divine. She does so because she is the New Eve - the true Mother of all the living. Through her intercession may we be humble in our victories and hopeful in our defeats.

In Christ,

Fr. John
