32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." (Mark 12:43-44)

When encountering a homeless person on the street, it can be tempting to avert one's eyes. In many ways, we shield ourselves from the harsh reality that the poor exist. Yet throughout the Gospels, we see Jesus move among the poor. He forbids his disciples, and in turn each of us, from forgetting about their existence. Not only does he spend time with the poor, but he uses their lives, rather than the lives of the rich, as models for how to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

In today's Gospel, Jesus brings the attention of his disciples to a poor widow who contributed only two copper coins to the temple's treasury. It is a seemingly meaningless contribution. But Jesus reminds his students that this woman has contributed her whole livelihood. Her generosity and act of self-denial is more pleasing to God, than the contributions of the wealthy who give from their excess.

What would it look like to follow the example of the poor widow and give from our livelihood? How would our lives change if we practiced such dependence on the providence of God? When called upon to give charitably, it may be easy, if we do not have much to give, to think "why bother?" But today we are reminded that God judges us, not on superficial status, but on the sincerity of our actions.
