READING I LEVITICUS 13:1-2, 44-46

A Reading from the Book of Leviticus
 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
 "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch
 which appears to be the sore of leprosy,
 he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest,
 or to one of the priests among his descendants.
 If the man is leprous and unclean,
 the priest shall declare him unclean
 by reason of the sore on his head.
 "The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare,
 and shall muffle his beard;
 he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!'
 As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean.
 He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PSALM 32:1-2, 5, 11

R. (7) I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation.

Blessed is he whose fault is taken away,
 whose sin is covered.
 Blessed the man to whom the LORD imputes not guilt,
 in whose spirit there is no guile. R.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you,
 my guilt I covered not.
 I said, "I confess my faults to the LORD,"
 and you took away the guilt of my sin. R.

Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you just;
 exult, all you upright of heart. R.

READING II 1 CORINTHIANS 10: 31—11:1

A Reading from the first Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians, Brothers and sisters,
 Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do,
 do everything for the glory of God.
 Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God,
 just as I try to please everyone in every way,
 not seeking my own benefit but that of the many,
 that they may be saved.
 Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION LUKE 7:16

R: Alleluia, alleluia.
 A great prophet has arisen in our midst,
 God has visited his people. R.

GOSPEL MARK 1:40-45

The Lord be with you, And with your spirit
 A reading from the Gospel according to Mark,
Glorify to you, O Lord (while crossing forehead, lips, heart)
 A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him
 and said,
 "If you wish, you can make me clean."
 Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand,
 touched him, and said to him,
 "I do will it. Be made clean."
 The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean.
 Then, warning the him sternly, he dismissed him at once.

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Mark 1:40-45

PROFOUND HEALING, A REFLECTION FOR SUNDAY, 2/14/21

[The first reading from Leviticus provides the cultural and religious context that are essential in understanding the story we hear from Mark's Gospel. The Book of Leviticus can be understood as a collection of laws touching on nearly every aspect of life that is grounded in an effort to maintain Jewish cultural and religious values. As biblical scholar J. Edward Owens, O.Ss.T., observes, Leviticus helped do this through "its preservation of liturgical, social, and other prescriptions that acknowledge God's holiness and seek to inculcate such holiness in the people," (from Leviticus, volume 4 of the New Collegeville Bible Commentary). Part of the way Leviticus does this is by setting the boundaries of what it means to be "clean" and "unclean." This is important because what is at stake here is not just what it means to be holy and righteous before God, but it also speaks about the quality of our relationships with our families and communities.

Chapter 13 of Leviticus (where our first reading is found) is completely devoted to diseases of the skin, none of which can be associated directly with leprosy (Hansen's disease). According to Leviticus, skin diseases, as well as scars and burns, render persons unclean. What is at stake here is the question of contagion and the health of the community. We should notice that there is no association between having a skin disease and being a sinner. Because of their condition, however, the sick person was ostracized from the community. As Owens observes, "On the one hand, no one wanted to contract the disease by proximity or touching. On the other hand, drawing the afflicted person back into the community was a value. Probably victims of skin disease were more pitied than judged." As a result of all this, lepers, and those with other diseases of the skin became outsiders, surviving at the furthest margins of the community.

As we turn to the Gospel and the story of Jesus healing a leper, this sense of being marginalized should help guide our reading of this passage. For the sick man to approach Jesus was a courageous act. Remember, by law he was expected to maintain a specified distance from those who were judged to be clean or healthy. There is more at stake here than physical health. This Gospel passage certainly speaks to Jesus' power to heal, but the deeper meaning that Mark is trying to communicate is that Jesus has the power to restore relationships as he invites everyone — the rich and poor, the healthy and the sick, the sinner and the saint — into the Kingdom.

When he hears the sick man's request, "If you wish, you can make me clean," Jesus has a deep emotional response. The verb used here is splanchnizomai, which literally means to be moved in "the intestines." To say it another way, Jesus has a "gut reaction" to the man's appeal. Instead of turning away from the man, Jesus reaches out to him, touches him, and heals him: "I do will it. Be made clean." Through his encounter with Jesus, the man is not only restored to health, but he is, in a sense, brought back to life by being able to return to the life of the community and to the practice of his ancestral faith. The end of our passage tells that the man publicly professed what God had done for him through Jesus. This is certainly an invitation for us to reflect on how we express our gratitude for the healing and forgiveness we have experienced in our own lives.
