Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking their breast, all say) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God

Gloria

Reading I Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

A reading from the Book of Wisdom,

The wicked say:

Let us beset the just one, because he is obnoxious to us;
 he sets himself against our doings,
 reproaches us for transgressions of the law
 and charges us with violations of our training.

Let us see whether his words be true;
 let us find out what will happen to him.

For if the just one be the son of God, God will defend him and deliver him from the hand of his foes.

With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test that we may have proof of his gentleness and try his patience.

Let us condemn him to a shameful death;
 for according to his own words, God will take care of him.
 The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Psalm 54:3-4, 5, 6 and 8

R. (6b) The Lord upholds my life.
 O God, by your name save me,
 and by your might defend my cause.
 O God, hear my prayer;
 hearken to the words of my mouth. R.

For the haughty have risen up against me,
 the ruthless seek my life;
 they set not God before their eyes. R.

Behold, God is my helper;
 the Lord sustains my life.
 Freely will I offer you sacrifice;
 I will praise your name, O LORD,
 for its goodness. R.

Reading II

James 3:16-4:3

A reading from the letter of James,
 Beloved: Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist,
 there is disorder and every foul practice.
 But the wisdom from above is first of all pure,
 then peaceable, gentle, compliant,
 full of mercy and good fruits,
 without inconstancy or insincerity.
 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace
 for those who cultivate peace.

Where do the wars
 and where do the conflicts among you come from?
 Is it not from your passions
 that make war within your members?
 You covet but do not possess.
 You kill and envy but you cannot obtain;
 you fight and wage war.
 You do not possess because you do not ask.
 You ask but do not receive,
 because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.
 The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Galatians 6:14

R: Alleluia, Alleluia.
 God has called us through the Gospel
 to possess the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. R.

Gospel

Mark 9:30-37

The Lord be with you, And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them, "The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise." But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him.

They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in the their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ST. MICHAEL PRAYER

St. Michael the archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God cast into hell, satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

There is something about being first. Whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish their work, great satisfaction is achieved. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills, and achievements. Isn't that what really matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All of the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. You want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the noise of the world, we are going to continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony and peace. When are we going to learn that always striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we really desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. When we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree, life is good. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home, and to live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy.

A Prayer to Be Open to God's Will

Good and gracious God,
I know that life can be unpredictable.
Sometimes I know what is good and right,
but I don't have the courage to do it.
Sometimes I am so busy with my own affairs, I forget to see the needs of people in front of me. Sometimes I am set in my own ways, and I resist growing and learning.
Help me, Lord, to be open to Your will.
When You prompt me to do the right thing,
give me the courage to do it.
When those around me need my help,
give me Your heart to love them.
When I'm stuck in my own ways,
give me the grace to grow closer to You every day. Give me the trust and confidence of Mary. Let it be done unto me according to Your word! Amen © LPI

Sessions, which are free, will be at 9:00AM and repeated at 6:30PM every Wednesday with Deacon Ed. All are welcome!

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 19TH IS CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

This weekend marks Catechetical Sunday, in which we celebrate and thank all those who offer up their gifts and talents to help our young people grow deeper in their faith. In a special way, we are grateful for our PSR teachers, classroom helpers, hall monitors and youth ministry core team members who are a part of our parish family.

Prayer for Catechists and PSR Helpers

Loving God, Creator of all things, you call us to be in relationship with you and others.

Thank you for calling these Catechists and helpers and for the opportunity for them to share their faith with others the gift that you have given to them.

May all the teachers share the gift of faith and help our students discover how you are present in all things.

May our teachers guide our students, helping them come to know you, the one true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent. May the grace of the Holy Spirit guide their heart and lips, so that they may remain constant in loving and praising you.

May our teachers and helpers be a witness to the Gospel and a minister of your truth.

May all their words and actions reflect your love. Amen.
