The Liturgy for Sunday, October 17, 2021

Entrance Antiphon

To you I call for help, O God, for you will surely heed;
O hear my cause for justice, Lord, attend to my appeal,
You turn your ear to me and hear my words in time of need.
And let my vindication come, your justice now reveal,
O Lord, in mercy, guard me as the apple of your eye;
All praise to God the Father be, All praise to God the Son,
And in the shadow of your wings in safety make me lie.
All praise to God the Holy Ghost, Forever Three in One.

Text: Psalm 17:6,8,1,2; Ego clamavi; Introit, Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time adapted by Luke Massery, ©2020.
Tune: KINGSFOLD

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking their breast, all say) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God

Reading I Isaiah 53:10-11

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah,
The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity.

If he gives his life as an offering for sin,
he shall see his descendants in a long life,
and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.

Because of his affliction
he shall see the light in fullness
of days;
through his suffering, my servant shall justify many,
and their guilt he shall bear.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Psalm 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Upright is the word of the LORD,
and all his works are trustworthy.

He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full. R.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine. R.

Our soul waits for the LORD,
who is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you. R.

Reading II Hebrews 4:14-16

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews
Brothers and sisters:
Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens,
Jesus, the Son of God,
let us hold fast to our confession.
For we do not have a high priest
who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses,
but one who has similarly been tested in every way,
yet without sin.

So let us confidently approach the throne of grace
to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.
The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation Mark 10:45

R: Alleluia, Alleluia.
The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many. R.

Gospel Mark 10:35-45 [10:42-45]

The Lord be with you, And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Glorify to you, O Lord.
[James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you."
He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?"
They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."
Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?"
They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John.
[Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." The Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

AN OPEN INVITATION TO 40 HOURS ADORATION

Are you tired because of the burdens of your duties? Are you heavy laden with guilt from past sins? Are you trying to find hope and meaning in life? Do not loose heart---HE will refresh you.

“Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest”

YOU MAY ASK---HOW DO WE PRAY A HOLY HOUR?

There is no one way to pray during your hour with Him. But here are some simple suggestions.

1. Start by being still and ask the Holy Spirit to fill you.
2. Profess with your heart gratitude for this moment, acknowledge His love.
3. Thank Him for the prayers He has answered and for the crosses He has given you.
4. Examine your conscience, ask Our Lord for forgiveness in the ways we have hurt Him.
5. Speak to Him about everything.... your concernsyour troubles...your joys.
6. Bring with you a good spiritual or scriptural book to read or meditate on. Or take advantage of the books that will be provided in the back of the church.
7. Know that reading should and will lead you to prayer.
8. Pray the Station of the Cross.
9. Say your rosary and ask Our Blessed Mother for Her help and intercession.
10. Finally, finish your Holy Hour, as you started, by asking the Holy Spirit to continue to fill you.
11. REMEMBER.....IF YOU ARE GETTING SLEEPY...JUST STAND UP!

The Forty Hours Devotion is a special forty-hour period of continuous prayer made before the Blessed Sacrament in solemn exposition. The number forty has always signified a sacred period of time: the rains during the time of Noah lasted 40 days and nights; the Jews wandered through the desert for 40 years, our Lord fasted and prayed for 40 days before beginning His public ministry. The 40 Hours Devotion remembers that traditional “forty-hour period” from our Lord’s burial until the Resurrection. While the Forty Hours Devotion nurtures the love of the faithful for our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, three special dimensions have also surrounded this devotion: the protection from evil and temptation; reparation for our own sins and for the Poor Souls in Purgatory; and deliverance from political, material, or spiritual calamities. Here the faithful implore our Lord to pour forth His abundant graces not only for themselves, but their neighbors, not only for their own personal needs, but for those of the world. The Forty Hours Devotion provides a wonderful opportunity for the spiritual growth of each person and the parish as a whole. In a world where temptation and evil abound, where devotion to the Mass and our Lord in the Holy Eucharist have declined, where the practice of penance and confession have been forgotten, we need the Forty Hours Devotion more than ever.
