MEET THE AHMADI FAMILY!

S T. PAUL'S has welcomed and is sponsoring a family from Aghanistan who arrived in Richmond earlier this year. Commonwealth Catholic Charities connected us with the Ahmadi family, who fled their country to escape persecution by the Taliban. The Ahmadi's are ethnic Hazaras, a group that some consider one of the most persecuted in the world. They left their home with literally the clothes on their backs. We learned that the father and five-year-old were wounded by Taliban gunfire.

The father Ali, works at the Tyson's poultry plant. He and his wife, Jawahir, will welcome their second child in August, and their five year old son, Friadon, will then become a big brother! The father's 17 year old niece Maasuma, and 11 year old nephew Milaad, are also part of the household. They all are native Dari speakers and only Jawahir arrived in the U.S. with the ability to speak very basic English.

Ali's background is in tile-work. He has been taking beginning ESL (English as a Second Language) classes, through Henrico County and CCC.

Jawahir taught elementary school and was attending nursing classes in the evenings in Afghanistan. She is also enrolled in ESL classes. She passed her Learner's Permit test and cannot wait to learn to drive, something she was forbidden from doing in Afghanistan.

Friadon is a sweet boy who loves cars, watching shows on the iPad, Paw Patrol, and Lay's potato chips. He is picking up English from TV and books, and calls out "Let's go!" from his car seat when we are stopped too long at a traffic light! He will attend kindergarten in the fall.

Masuumma is enrolled at Tucker High School. She wants to be an airplane pilot. Like her aunt, she is excited about learning to drive. Milaad is a student at Longan Elementary. He loves pizza. He and his sister both enjoy watching WWE Wrestling on YouTube!

A cohort of nine parishioners has been instrumental in finding medical and dental care, transporting family members to appointments and grocery stores, helping understand budgeting, and finding out about obtaining Asylum in the U.S.

The parish community has been very supportive with financial and material donations. The Ahmadi's are very grateful. The family's most pressing needs at the moment are for a working vehicle and assistance with the Asylum process. In the near future, parishioners will have the opportunity to help with items for the Ahmadi's baby girl, due in August, and with school supplies for the kids in the fall.

Dale Brumfield, author of Closing the Slaughterhouse: The Inside Story of Death Penalty Abolition in Virginia, will be available to speak with you and to personally sign your copy of the book.

Here is a brief overview of the book:

"For over 400 years Virginia's death penalty embraced a 'finality over fairness' philosophy, ensnaring many innocent and undeserving victims under the bogus pretexts of 'offering closure' or being 'tough on crime.'

"Death was the Virginia way. Now, thanks to five decades of diligent work by dozens of abolitionists, advocates, capital defense attorneys, faith leaders, and more, it's over.

"Combining almost 50 interviews and hundreds of sources, Closing the Slaughterhouse is the true, inside story of death penalty abolition in Virginia."

Save on Highway Use Fee. Virginia DMV will start the new Mileage Choice Program on July 1. The program is an option for drivers of electric, hybrid or fuel-efficient vehicles who pay the highway use fee. The current fee is based on the average number of miles driven in a year, which is set at 11,600 miles. Enrolled drivers, who drive less than that, will pay for only their actual number of miles driven, and, therefore, will pay less. Payment of the highway use fee will be spread throughout the year rather than paid in one lump sum annually. Drivers may enroll in the program when it is time to renew their vehicle registration and must sign up prior to their renewal. For more information and details about the program, go to the DMV website at https://www.dmv.virginia.gov/general/#va\_mileage\_choice.asp.

Today's Reflection

First Reading

1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21

Elijah anoints Elisha as his successor.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 16:1-2,5,7-11

I set the Lord ever before me.

Second Reading

Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Christ has set us free.

Gospel Reading

Luke 9:51-62

Jesus resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem.

Today's Gospel reading begins a long section unique to Luke's Gospel. Jesus begins his journey to Jerusalem, which will end with his ministry in Jerusalem. We read that Jesus' days for being "taken up" were fulfilled. The Greek word that Luke uses for "taken up" is the same word he uses to describe the Ascension. We also read that Jesus is determined to journey to Jerusalem. For Luke, Jesus ministry begins in Galilee and then is one long journey to Jerusalem. In Jerusalem he will meet his death but also enter into his glory. Only in Luke does Jesus then spend 40 days in Jerusalem instructing his disciples. It is in Jerusalem that his disciples wait after his Ascension to be sent the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. And it is from Jerusalem, in Luke's second volume, the Acts of the Apostles, that the Good News is spread to Rome and the ends of the earth.

Immediately Jesus is met with rejection, as a Samaritan village will not receive him because he is going to Jerusalem. There was animosity between Samaritans who worshiped on Mount Gerazim and Jews who worshiped in Jerusalem. Jesus was also rejected as he began his ministry in Galilee in Chapter 4. And he will be rejected for the last time when he reaches Jerusalem. James and John want to call down fire from heaven to destroy the people in the village, but Jesus rebukes them and moves on. There is often the temptation to use violence to achieve right. Jesus has come to break this temptation. He is aware that he must undergo violence himself before he can enter his glory.

The rest of today's reading is about the radical demands of discipleship. The three people who volunteer to become disciples on this journey show that they do not understand the demands Jesus will make of them. Neither care of self, care for the dead, nor care of one's family (as required by the Fourth Commandment) can come before the demands of discipleship. Jesus reminds the first volunteer, who would go wherever Jesus goes, that animals in the wild have more security than do Jesus and his followers. The second, who wants to bury a parent, is reminded that the demands of proclaiming the Kingdom of God take precedence. And the third, who wants to say farewell to his family, is reminded that once you put your hand to the plow you cannot look back or the furrow will be crooked. Such a person is not ready for the Kingdom of God.

Jesus seems harsh here, but he is only asking of his disciples what he asks of himself. Jesus' unconditional commitment to God's saving work will demand of him his life. He knows this, but the disciples do not understand. Jesus does not want anyone to rush into discipleship, because the demands of discipleship require everyone considering it to be aware of the cost, make Jesus and his mission central to his life, and then go forward without looking back.

What Are Acts of Spiritual Communion?

It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion, which is a source of grace. Spiritual Communion is an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and lovingly embrace him at a time or in circumstances when one cannot receive Him in sacramental Communion. The most common reason for making an Act of Spiritual Communion is when a person cannot attend Mass. Acts of Spiritual Communion increase our desire to receive sacramental Communion and help us avoid the sins that would make us unable to receive Holy Communion worthily.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

*My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire
to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.*

CONGRATULATIONS AND HAPPY 100th BIRTHDAY

To

Thomas Brown!

Your St. Paul's family rejoices with you and wishes you many happy returns of the day!
