The Social Justice Committee would like to thank the parishioners of St. Paul's for their wonderful generosity in donating more than 125 children's books for Little Hands Virginia! Little Hands is the only organization in Central Virginia solely dedicated to providing essentials to economically disadvantaged young children in the first years of their lives. MINISTRY TO HOMEBOUND PARISHIONERS

Prior to COVID, the parish had an active ministry to homebound parishioners.

COVID restrictions prevented this ministry from continuing.

The parish is now looking to restart this valuable ministry.

How can you help?

You can assist in this ministry in two ways:

1. By volunteering to visit homebound parishioners and, if they choose, distribute Holy Communion to them. You will be trained in the proper way to distribute Holy Communion. The visits can, but need not, take place on a Sunday. You can volunteer to visit as often as you like and to visit as many parishioners as you like. In other words, we will tailor your participation in the ministry to your availability.

2. By volunteering to make phone calls to check on and talk with homebound parishioners. Again, you can volunteer to make as many calls as you like to as many people as you like.

Homebound parishioners who would like to be visited or called may contact Deacon John using the email or phone number you see below.

Supporting the Annual Diocesan Appeal is about supporting important ministries of our Catholic Church. The Appeal:

- Funds room, board, tuition, & health insurance for seminarians
 - Supplements health insurance & long term care for priests.
- Just to name a few examples.

If you have not yet made a commitment, you may do so using the QR code or by picking up a hard copy of the brochure in the Commons.

In addition to supporting the mission and ministries of the Catholic Diocese of Richmond, a portion of the Appeal funds are returned to the parish. Your donation helps St. Paul's, too! Thank you!
