GOSPEL MEDITATION

May 10, 2026

6th Sunday of Easter

John 14:15-21

In my family, we can hardly speak about orphans without tears. My father was adopted as a baby. He frequently told us stories of how his parents welcomed him not just into their home but into their hearts. It was never merely a relocation or a legal transaction. It was the joy of being chosen, of receiving a family, a name, and a place where he belonged forever. Even in his later years, recalling that gift still moves him to tears of tender gratitude.

That is the kind of tenderness behind Jesus' words in today's Gospel: "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." (John 14:18) He is going away, but not abandoning us. Instead, he sends us the Advocate, the Holy Spirit — his own Spirit, shared with the Father — who dwells in us. Through the Spirit, Christ is present in us, and we are present in him. His Spirit gives us a home and a family.

We deepen this knowledge in the sacraments, in prayer, and in the daily life of the Church. The Spirit is the bond of belonging, the power that makes us God's sons and daughters, not spiritual orphans. And this is not a one-time event. There is always a deeper outpouring of the Spirit available to us, a fresh appropriation of the promise that we are never abandoned. If only we could be as grateful as my dad is for his adoption, realizing that we have been adopted by God Himself. In Christ, we are never left as orphans.

— Father John Muir

OUR SHARED SACRED SPACE

We kindly ask for everyone’s help in keeping our church a clean and welcoming place for all. Recently, we’ve found food wrappers, soda bottles, and partially filled coffee cups left in the pews after Mass.

As a reminder, food and beverages are welcome in the Commons Area, but we ask that they not be brought into the Sanctuary. This helps us maintain a respectful atmosphere for worship and ensures the space remains clean and comfortable for everyone.

If you do bring items into the building, please take a moment to dispose of them properly or carry them out with you. Your consideration is greatly appreciated and helps care for our shared, sacred space.

ICE CREAM FUNDRAISER

The St. Theresa Parish Council will be sponsoring an Ice Cream Social on Friday, May 22nd from 6:00 to 8:00 pm. All donations going to “Alive in Christ.”
