(we strike our breasts three times during the next line:)
thru my fault, thru my fault, thru my most grievous fault;
Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The following article is a Holy Week/Easter Week message from our new bishop. For various reasons, it was not possible to include it in the Holy Week or Easter Week bulletins. However, even though this time has passed, he has so many good things to say, I thought it would be beneficial to impart his message to you at this time. I hope you're continuing to have a blessed Easter Season.

*Devotedly in the Lord,
Fr. Joe*

My Dear Friends -

Sisters and brothers in the Lord, It's my great privilege to enter this holiest week of our Christian life together with you as your pastor and shepherd. Although it's been just a little over 2 months since I arrived in Buffalo, I've been so moved by the warm reception and expressions of support and friendship by so many during my travels across our Diocese. In every place, I have encountered tremendous commitment to the Faith that unites us - and utmost determination to be part of the renewal that is so needed and which together we are working to bring about.

The challenges that we are confronting do not ultimately define us. Past failings and the developments that have threatened to obscure the immense goodness that is accomplished each and every day by our active Faith and broad ministries are things that we must address with honesty, transparency and with a renewed commitment to accountability. This is my pledge to you. But as I have made clear wherever I go and with whomever I meet - the work of renewal is ultimately the work of us all. It is something that we will bring about because of our collective will - our shared talents and resources - and our resolve to reclaim the zeal for the Gospel of Jesus Christ that is summarized in this final week of our Lenten journey.

As we now prepare for the celebration of Palm Sunday - and in the coming days, the Triduum of the Lord's Passion which culminates in our celebration of Christ's Resurrection on Easter, we have the possibility to rediscover what it is that defines us as followers of Jesus Christ - Disciples like those first imperfect Disciples who left all they had to follow Him, only to discover that what they had signed-up for was far beyond anything they had imagined. By now, the story of Christ's entry into Jerusalem, his last hours with his beloved Disciples, his agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, his betrayal by one of his own and his brutal crucifixion is a familiar one. But it's a story that we must somehow discover and experience anew again and again - This great sacrifice by the One who bore the sins of us all - which defines us and the meaning and purpose of our lives. As Paul's letter to the Phillipians recounts: “Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.”

Like Him, we are asked to empty ourselves - to abandon what we know and which provides us security - to follow Him to Calvary - and to die with Him so as to experience the rebirth that His obedience and sacrifice makes possible. These cannot just be theological concepts. The Lord's passion, death and Resurrection must give meaning here and now to who we are as baptized believers - and lead us to real change. They must inspire our thoughts, words and most importantly, our actions. The essence of this timeless story is that sin and death - sorrow and disappointment - are not the final verdict of our lives. Because we choose to follow Him, our lives are interpreted through this defining gesture of God's unconditional love - the gift and sacrifice of His only Son so that we might experience forgiveness and redemption once and for all time. And, yes, that we might then forgive as we've been forgiven.

“He was pierced for our offenses, crushed for our sins; upon him was the chastisement that makes us whole, by his stripes we were healed.”

It's that simple, and yes, that awesome.

Part II to follow next weekend.

Best Wishes, Lucy Hurley!

Dear Parishioners.

I would like to take this opportunity to express gratitude to Lucy Hurley for all her work and service in the music ministry at St Joseph Parish. Lucy will be leaving her position to spend some well earned time with her family. Please take a moment to read Lucy's letter and wish her well when you see her around the Parish. Thank you Lucy for all those years of dedicated service.

*Devotedly in the Lord,
Fr. Joe*

My Dear St. Joseph Family,

It has been an honor and a privilege to be in Music Ministry for 46 plus years and serving as Music Director/Organist at St. Joseph Church for 32 years. It has always been my prayer that the Holy Spirit guide me in knowing when it's time to pass this privilege on. During this past year, He/She has spoken in return, I am resigning my position as Music Director/Organist at St. Joseph Church as of April 19, 2021. I am not resigning from Music Ministry though. I am still available to help send loved ones home to heaven at funerals and other occasions. I will continue to help with music at Bible Camp as well as NCCS Masses.

I have totally enjoyed all the musicians and singers and handbell ringers, children and adults, that I have met along the way. It is my hope that we get to collaborate in some form in the future.

What lies ahead for me? Jim and I are so fortunate that all our children are back in Western New York and we have a Granddaughter. In the past, especially during holidays, my family had to take a back seat. I look forward to spending as many weekends with them as possible.

For now, I will refer to myself as a Freelance Musician.

Thank you, my Dear St. Joseph Family!

With all my Love and Gratitude to God and to you,

Lucy
