• PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Graceful Season of Lent... We come to the last week of Lent. We call this week 'Holy Week' the last days of Jesus' life before his death and resurrection. We begin this 'Holy Week', with Palm Sunday. This is the time of the year we stop to remember and relive the events which brought about our redemption and salvation. The Holy Week is the most important part of our liturgical life. This week leads us to the great events of that Easter morning when God raised Jesus of Nazareth from the dead. What we commemorate and relive during this week is not just Jesus' dying and rising, but our own dying and rising in Him, which will result in our healing, reconciliation, and redemption. Attentive participation in the Holy Week liturgy will deepen our relationship with God, increase our Faith and strengthen our lives as disciples of Jesus.

I would like to invite everyone to take part actively in this Holy Week liturgy. The very important three days of Holy Week are known as 'The Holy Triduum' leading to Easter Sunday.

Holy Thursday the Mass of the Lord's supper and the washing of the feet will happen at 7 pm and the Blessed Sacrament will be transferred to the St Mary altar for adoration until midnight.

Good Friday we will have 'Stations of the Cross' at 12 Noon followed by the liturgy of the Lord's Passion at 1 pm.

Holy Saturday the blessing of food baskets will take place at 12 Noon. The Easter Vigil Mass begins at 8:30 pm. The Easter Mass begins with the service of Light. Easter (Pascal) Candle is lit, the Exsultet is sung, and the Old Testament readings are read, retracing the steps of salvation history. After the Gloria is sung, we celebrate our death and resurrection with Christ with a reading from the New Testament; then the Gospel is read, catechumens are baptized, and confirmations take place. People are received into the Church, and they receive their First Communion.

Easter Sunday Masses will be 8:30 am; 10:30 am & 12:30 pm. I have added one more Mass due to COVID-19 and so you have one more Mass available to you. Kindly plan to attend one of the Masses and receive the Blessings of the Resurrected Lord.

Parish Office: The Parish office will be closed from Easter Monday, April 5th - Friday, April 9th. If you have an emergency, please feel free to call the rectory (241.8645), I will be around to check the messages. Thanks.

Wish you all God's blessing in this Holy Week.

Stay Safe

WHY DO WE DO THAT?*Why haven't Catholic Churches gone the way of disposable cups for wine distribution?

If a Catholic has ever attended a Protestant worship service and saw the communion service that was offered for that community, one of the things that might have stood out was the use of small, disposable cups for distributing the wine or grape juice. This is in stark contrast to the precious metal chalices used in Catholic churches during the Mass.

Although practices for Protestant Christians can vary (ranging from large shared chalices, to personal-use cups, to dipping the bread in the wine/grape juice), the norms governing Catholic practices are fairly direct: "Sacred vessels are to be made from precious metal. If they are made from metal that rusts or from a metal less precious than gold, then ordinarily they should be gilded on the inside. In the Dioceses of the United States of America, sacred vessels may also be made from other solid materials that, according to the common estimation in each region, are precious ... they are to have bowls of nonabsorbent material" (nos. 328-330). Rather than being a commentary on the beliefs or practices of those other communities, these rules are intended to highlight the reverence that Catholics have for the bread and wine consecrated at Mass, which become the Body and Blood of the Lord.

Walk Every Step with Christ

Holy Week is a week for being mindful. We must set loose the baggage of Lent, and not be deterred by the dazzling sunrise of Easter morning beckoning in the distance.

It's okay for us to be excited for Easter. We've waited so long, after all. In my opinion it's one of the best feelings there is: the yearning we have in our hearts for the Resurrection as we embark on Palm Sunday. And in a purely logical sense, many of us have Easter celebrations for which we are preparing, and practical considerations to contend with. It's going to be a busy week, one likely full of happy distractions.

But my friends, we simply must keep our feet on the ground. Let's not "skip" Holy Week. Resist the urge to flip to the last page of the book, to fast-forward to the final scene of the movie. Don't rob yourself of the journey. This week is a blessed opportunity. It is this week that teaches us who we are. In the span of the Triduum, we have the birthday of the priesthood, the institution of the Eucharist, the sacrifice on Calvary and so many other vivid and meaningful scenes.

It may sound strange, to advise someone to savor the moments of Holy Week. There are so many violent and heartrending moments, after all. But this is the valley of tears, remember — we are not in Heaven yet. And here, in our fallen, sin-filled world, it is the heartrending moments that seem to matter the most.

These are the moments that define us as Catholics. Live them. Cherish them. Be present for each one.

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Many struggle with Jesus. Some who consider themselves faithful hail him in their churches but still struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. The message is somehow more palatable when it echoes pious renderings and sentiments and involves singing hosannas during worship. It becomes a bit trickier when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct the business of our lives, becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor, and marginalized, and living as servants of our Loving Creator. Ultimately, it is a struggle between wanting to be God ourselves and letting God be God as God is. That's why it's so easy to become hypocritical. We, like those who hailed Christ as he arrived in Jerusalem and sent Christ to the cross to die, also talk out of both sides of our mouths. We entertain what suits us at the time and walk away from the rest.

Many neglect God's beautiful creation because they prefer what humans have made instead. Progress isn't seen in preserving and enhancing what God has made but replacing it with something we believe is better and more useful. The earth, flowers, and animals are all expendable if they stand in the way of the "more" we want to achieve. We seek to remove as many obstacles and hurdles as possible in search of the easiest, quickest, and most efficient path we can find. We have created drugs and laws that preserve our free choice, even though it may mean setting aside God's vision and example. Why suffer when we can easily be put to rest? Why endure insult or injury when we can retaliate, eliminate or subdue? Why accept life when it is acceptable to choose otherwise? We want to be God and resist accepting the fact that our real Creator has already given us the blueprints for the life we need to live in the Beatitudes and in the example of his Passion. We don't like being stewards and managers and really want the power to do as we wish and desire. We want to create our own way.

Where has the true, effective Christian voice been through all of the wars and violence, prejudice and unjust conquests, abuse of human beings and attempted extinctions of nationalities, the establishments of procedures and protocols that serve only a few and not the many and all of the injustices and exploitations that are a part of our human history? A few courageous prophets have stood up and out throughout all of the comings and goings of our human journey with many receiving the same fate as the Crucified One we hail this week. Some still walk among us as shining stars showing us how it really can be. How would Jesus' journey have ended if he lived life as we do? Unless we encounter the good with the bad, the just with the unjust, the grace with the sin, the glory with the cross, the death with the life we most certainly risk rendering God obsolete. After all, haven't we already convinced ourselves that we can do better?

SUSAN LYKE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

On October 27, 2020, the St. Michael the Archangel Parish Community lost a faithful servant of the parish and of Jesus Christ: Susan Lyke. Susan chose to serve Christ through her ministry as pastoral associate at St. Michael Parish. As the pastoral associate, she committed her vocation to helping ensure the parishioners of St. Michael the Archangel Parish were provided the spiritual nourishment they desired. She worked side-by-side with three different pastors - Fr. Steve Vileo, Fr. Phil Ching and Fr. Kishore Battu, as well as the parish staff, to welcome others into our parish community. Susan worked tirelessly to ensure her faith was shared with all those she met. Susan had an undeniably strong relationship with God and Catholic education, whether for her family or those she ministered to in RCIA and faith formation, was incredibly important to her. To cherish her memory, the Lyke Family has established the Susan Lyke Memorial Scholarship Fund to be awarded annually to a Monroe Catholic Elementary Schools student whose family belongs to St. Michael the Archangel Parish.

Eligibility requirements include: the family being registered members of St. Michael the Archangel Parish; students in good standing both academically and in their conduct evaluations; and are in Young 5s through 8th grade. Applicants must include a copy of their most recent report card. The recipients are selected by a committee, which include representatives from Monroe Catholic Elementary Schools and St. Michael the Archangel Parish, with input from the Lyke Family.

Scholarship applications will be available in MCES School Offices, as well as the St. Michael Parish Office.

If you would like to contribute to the Susan Lyke Memorial Scholarship, you can make a donation by cash or check payable to "St. Michael Parish" and deliver to the Parish Office or Collection Basket.

We are incredibly grateful to the Lyke family for honoring Susan's incredible legacy in our parish in this way that will impact the lives of many students. Thank you!

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - REFLECT AND RESPOND

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah reflects on his obedience to God's call regardless of personal suffering that he endured. Isaiah found strength in his faith and fidelity to God. How does your faith help frame your suffering?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of Jesus' humility as central to his divine identity. What does this teach us about God's nature?

Gospel:

We hear today Mark's account of the Passion of our Lord. What parts of the passion narrative are you drawn to?

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible

Many Catholics want to read the Bible but get bogged down by the long stretches that seem not to make sense or get lost among the sea of Old Testament names and places. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible helps you uncover the story woven throughout Scripture, so you can get the “big picture” of the Bible and understand what it is all about. Aided by a unique color-coded Bible Timeline Chart that arranges the key people, places, and events of the Bible in chronological order, Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you pick up the Bible with confidence and better understand how you fit into God’s plan for our Salvation.

*Due to COVID-19 precautions, this study is limited to the first 8 persons registered.

What: Bible Study – Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible by Ascension Press

When: Thursdays 7-8:30 pm April 8-May 27

Where: Archangel Room (AOD COVID precautions maintained with masks and social distancing.)

Cost: $25 (includes workbook, The Bible Timeline Chart, and online resources).

Register and Information: Contact Bonnie Bruck at djbruck@hotmail.com.

Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of the holiest of Christian weeks. Let us pray for the grace to take up our own cross and to follow Jesus through death to new life.

During Lent, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring the mercy of Jesus into the hearts of the poor, by assisting families, providing food, and for utility and rent bills.

LIVE THE LITURGY

What an ironic twist of events! Jesus is hailed with palm branches as he comes down a street one minute and faces agonizing suffering and death on a cross the next. Does any of this make any sense? They shouted, “hosanna to our King,” out of one side of their mouths and, “crucify him,” out of the other. At first glance it seems like such hypocrisy. Yet, when we step back there may be more truth to the story than we care to admit. We struggle with Jesus. We hail him in our churches but struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. We are fine when we hear pious renderings of his messages and preaching but wince when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct business and becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor and marginalized. We invoke God’s name when we want victory and keep silence when it comes to global solidarity. We talk out of both sides of our mouths too, looking only to what works or suits us at the time and leaving the rest. There exists in each one of us a person who hails our King with hosannas and a person who is all too willing to choose Jesus over Barabbas for the cross. Something to think about this Holy Week!
