SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

MOTHER'S DAY

On this 6th Sunday of Easter, we celebrate Mother's Day. Mother's Day gives us the opportunity to pause and reflect on the place of motherhood in our lives. Needless to say, there are those in our midst whose experience of motherhood has been awful, their own mother was not, for whatever reason, a good mother. Whatever may be, in most cases a mother plays a vital role. The experience of my own mother taught me a great deal. I was raised in a big family with strict rules and regulation and with much love and faith. Whatever I am today is because of my mum. After my dad passed away, my mother never married again and continue to work hard to raise us up. She worked day and night to feed us. I remember at the family meal, once we children have our fill at the end my mother used to eat leftovers. The best thing my mother taught me is going to church, faith in God. I am sure all of you experienced mother's love in your life. Today as we celebrate Mother's Day, let us thank God for our mothers. Let this be our prayer for our mothers:

Heavenly Father, on this Mother's Day, we thank You for our mothers through whom Your gift of life begins and through whom we are nurtured into great human beings. We lift up all mothers to Your love and care. We pray for them, for their needs of strength and support to continue to nurture a family of love, in honor and love for You, our God. Lord Jesus Christ, we call upon Your blessed name to bless all mothers today and every day. Extend Your hands of grace over them. We ask You, Lord, to bless them for all their contributions toward family life and its growth. Grant that they may be joyous in their ordeal of being a mother and proud in raising the family You have gifted.

CONFIRMATION

On the 7th Sunday of Easter, The Ascension of the Lord, the Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit, who is also the Regional Bishop of the Monroe Vicariate, Most Reverend Gerard W. Battersby will be here to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation. Bishop Battersby will confirm the 8th graders on Sunday, May 16th during the 10:30 Mass. If you usually go to that Mass, you might think about changing your schedule for that weekend. The students have already made their decision and had their interviews and picked a new saint's name. Kindly keep them in your prayers.

Have a blessed Week!

Stay Safe

God bless you

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

What is the difference between a “Saint” and a “Blessed”?

The process of proclaiming someone as a saint in the Catholic Church has evolved over the course of many centuries. In the beginning, those honored as saints were almost exclusively biblical figures or martyrs. However, after the legalization of Christianity in the fourth century, new holy women and men came to be honored as saints, and this was often done by popular acclaim or by the local bishop or abbot.

It was Pope Gregory IX (who was pope from 1227 to 1241) who officially proclaimed that only the pope had the authority to add someone to the official list (the “canon”) of saints. This is the meaning of the word “canonization.”

Today, the saint-making process includes several steps, including detailed studies of the person’s life and a recognition that they died as a martyr or lived a life of “heroic virtue.” Once someone is recognized as a martyr or if a miracle is attributed to their intercession, they will be beatified and honored as “Blessed.” This means that they can be celebrated by Catholics in a particular country or region or by the members of certain religious community. If another miracle occurs and is approved, then the “Blessed” is canonized and honored with the title “Saint,” meaning that they are now officially recognized as a universal model of holiness and an intercessor.

Choosing to Love One Another

Love one another. The greatest commandment, the simplest commandment — and if you’ve ever loved anyone, you know it’s also the hardest.

I’m man enough to admit it. I’ve seen one or two of those cheesy Hallmark movies that are especially popular around the holidays. Boy meets Girl. Boy and Girl encounter a catastrophic roadblock to their relationship — they’re coaches of rival high school volleyball teams, or he runs a dog kennel and she works at a feline rescue, so it could never, ever work out, right? But sprinkle a little movie magic over the whole situation and Boy and Girl find what Hallmark tells us is true love.

I could make a list of all the things that are inaccurate about these movies, and something I would put right near the top — maybe even above the sometimes-unbelievable storylines — is the idea that love is a feeling.

See, I’m not sure if it’s accurate to call these movies love stories. Attraction stories, sure. But if you’ve ever forgiven someone who’s hurt you, nursed a dying parent, gotten up for an infant’s night feeding or let your kid have the last piece of cake, you know that real love is a verb. It’s something you do. And it is almost always a choice.

Love one another. How often do we hear this? How often do we think about what it really means? How often do we take a moment to consider the action Jesus is asking us to take and the choice he is asking us to make?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.” - Jn 15:16-17

MAY CROWNING

May 2, 2021

Thank you
Father Kishore and the Hendrick family
for our beautiful
May Crowning in honor of the Blessed Virgin
Mary.

Confirmation with Bishop Battersby will be celebrated Sunday, May 16th at 10:30 am Mass. Due to COVID-19 safety protocols and the number of candidates with their families, please consider attending another Mass next weekend.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

“Remain in my love,” and, “I call you friends,” are powerful words that are found in John’s Gospel. Most of us probably have them committed to memory or have at least heard them proclaimed dozens of times. They are words that can easily become trite and quickly glossed over without fully pondering and digesting their profound beauty. When we take the time to immerse ourselves in them, they can radically change our lives and our relationships. They can open up new doors of adventure and hold countless possibilities for meaning. The essence of love and friendship are things that can easily be taken for granted. They have always been there and are a significant part of our lives. Many would say that they could not live without love and friendship, and they put a great deal of care into preserving, deepening and sustaining them. Love and friendship share a mutual relationship with each other that deserves more reflection.

Where does love come from? We can consider relationships that have not succeeded and conclude that they were somehow due to our “failures in love.” In doing so, we assume that human beings are the ones responsible for love, its success and also its failure. While our weakness, emotional composition and sinfulness can easily impact our ability to love, its origin is not human. God is love. God is love’s author and origin. When we love, it is God who loves in and through us. It is because of this divine closeness that Jesus is able to call us friends! It is not because of anything we have done but simply because of who we are. Realizing and contemplating this awesome reality becomes a game changer across the board. It gives us reason to clear the table of anything that can adversely affect the way we love so that we can open the door for its author to shine forth.

Coming upon this truth is what leads folks like St. Francis of Assisi to leave that which is comfortable and worldly and live a radical life. They relate with the love of God that radiates in and through all living things and appreciate their sacredness. It was having an intimate experience of God’s love and friendship that propelled St. Francis and others to embrace simplicity, act nonviolently, pursue humility, love enemies, care for the earth and open up avenues for true justice. Understanding this profound truth will also help us find peaceful solutions to world’s problems, restore relationships with our sisters and brothers, bring the grace of loving stewardship to creation and heal many wounds. Once we begin to see how wonderfully holy all of life really is, we discover joy. We lose our need for fear, develop a fierce fortitude, act prudently and seek justice. There is great power in love because it comes from God. It will never fail. It also enjoys the company of two other friends who are eager to become our friends as well: faith and hope. These are just as important to have and to share.

REFLECT AND RESPOND

First Reading:

In the home of the Gentile-believer, Cornelius, Peter revealed one of the most significant insights from the early Church: “In truth, I see that God shows no partiality.” Where do you see this message of unity needed today?

Second Reading:

John saw love at the very core of God’s divine identity. In fact, for John, “God is love.” For this reason, believers are called to love one another. How do you keep this virtue paramount in your life?

Gospel:

During his farewell discourse, Jesus refers to his disciples as his “friends.” How often do you think of Jesus as your “friend?”

Monroe Council # 1266 Knights of Columbus

As our country's COVID-19 pandemic continues, the Knights have stepped forward with the new "Leave No Neighbor Behind" project.

We believe our duty is to lead our families, protect our parishes, and serve our communities, remembering where there's a need, there's a Knight! Nationally, the Knights have accepted this pandemic as an opportunity to deepen our commitment to the very principles which define us: Charity, Unity and Fraternity.

The Knights will serve and sacrifice for those in need. Many, including in our own councils and parishes, are isolated and alone in quarantine. Food banks, blood centers, and other essential services have been depleted of their vital supplies. There are many people and places that require urgent help. As we look forward in this year, the Knights of Columbus will be on the forefront of helping their communities recover from this pandemic.

The "Leave No Neighbor Behind" program has been temporarily added as our ninth community category option in our Faith in Action model. Knights throughout our country have committed to engage in five service activities including support to our Brother Knights, our parishes, our communities, our food banks, and donate to blood drives.

The Knights of Columbus is the world's largest Catholic fraternal service organization. Charity is our foremost principle. To learn more, visit www.kofcmonroe1266.com.

God is love. These three simple words deserve a great deal of attention. They have the power to transform our relationship with God from something that is static and distant to one that is personal and real. We all know the power of love and how important it is to completing all of the human and divine circuits of our lives. But we do not often consider the awesome fact that it is given to us as a gift and is not simply part and parcel of the human package. God is the author of love and love itself. When we truly love another human being, it is really God being God in and through us. The love to which we are called and the love of which the Gospel speaks is a selfless love that seeks the wellbeing of not only our significant others but of all of our brothers and sisters. This love, which is of God, is a love that will endure all things and bring immeasurable joy when experienced. It is the most sincere form of friendship.

Sixth Sunday of Easter:

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us, "This is my commandment: love one another as I have loved you... You are my friends if you do what I command you."

With your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you fulfill this commandment.

Pantry Needs: Gravy mixes, pancake mix, syrup, and canned fruit.
