A Message from Our Pastor

Christmas 2021

Dear Friends in Christ,

On behalf of Fr. Felix, Deacon Bob, Deacon Ralph, and the parish staff, I wish you every blessing this Christmas. Thank you for your continued prayers, generosity, and support throughout the year. Please be assured of my prayers for you and your loved ones.

May the Christ Child bring you His peace, joy, and consolation.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Gober

Reflection for Christmas Morning

Dearly beloved, today our Savior is born; let us rejoice. Sadness should have no place on the birthday of life.

The fear of death has been swallowed up; life brings us joy with the promise of eternal happiness. No one is shut out from this joy.

Christian, remember your dignity, and now that you share in God's own nature, do not return by sin to your former base condition.

Do not forget that you have been rescued from the power of darkness and brought into the light of God's kingdom.

— Pope Saint Leo the Great

The Tempi Madonna (1508) by Raphael
Alte Pinakothek, Munich, Germany

The Octave of Christmas

Western culture encourages Christmas decorations in the fall and busy shopping days in the lead-up to the Nativity. But the Catholic Church invites us to be counter-cultural. In contrast to a month of holiday madness and consumerism, the Advent season, observed properly, is a time of reflection on “waiting in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.”

When Christmas arrives, one day is simply not enough to take it all in, so the Church offers an eight-day feast, from Christmas Day to New Year’s Day — the Octave of Christmas. Although the famous song details “Twelve Days of Christmas,” that practice ended in the Catholic Church in 1970. The Octave has been in place for more than half a century, and how we celebrate each day of it depends on where Christmas falls on the calendar. Here is the plan for this year:

1. Saturday, December 25, Christmas Day: We enter into the joy of the Nativity, when Our Savior was born in the most humble of settings in Bethlehem.

2. Sunday, December 26, Feast of the Holy Family:

This feast is celebrated on the first Sunday after Christmas. This year, it falls on the day after Christmas, so it supersedes the Feast of St. Stephen, the first martyr, normally celebrated on this calendar date. The Church's primary purpose in instituting and promoting this feast is to present the Holy Family as the model and exemplar of all Christian families.

3. Monday, December 27, Feast of St. John the Evangelist: We celebrate Our Lord’s beloved friend, whose writings in scripture focus on the divinity of Jesus and invite us to believe in the Incarnation — God, made man.

4. Tuesday, December 28, Feast of the Holy Innocents:

Afraid the Messiah sought by the Magi would one day dethrone him, King Herod ordered the slaughter of boys aged two years and under in the area around Bethlehem. An angel told Saint Joseph, in a dream, to flee with the Holy Family to Egypt, but the little boys who were there became martyrs, having died in Christ’s stead

5. Wednesday, December 29, Feast of St. Thomas à Becket:

This Archbishop of Canterbury was murdered in the cathedral for standing up to the King of England for religious liberty.

Today we pray for courage in the struggle to preserve our freedom of religion and religious expression.

6. Thursday, December 30, Octave Day of the Nativity

7. Friday, December 31, Feast of St. Sylvester

Although New Year’s Eve now means gaiety, it is really a day for serious reflection. Take time to pray and give thanks for the gifts and blessings from God in the past year and to pray for necessary graces in the upcoming calendar year.

The Feast of the Holy Innocents is a day to reflect upon the dignity of each person and on respect for life. Join us for a Holy Hour immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass on December 28 to pray for today’s Holy Innocents, the victims of abortion.

Holy hours are a devotional tradition of spending an hour in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament to pray for the life of the Church and the world.

Adoration of the Christ Child (1621) by Gerard von Honthorst, Courtesy of the Uffizi, Florence, Italy

The Te Deum: A traditional prayer for New Year's Eve

You are God: we praise you;
You are God: we acclaim you;
You are the eternal Father:
All creation worships you.
To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,
Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise:
Holy, holy, holy, Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
The glorious company of apostles praise you.
The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.
The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.
Throughout the world the holy Church acclaims you:
Father, of majesty unbounded,
Your true and only Son, worthy of all worship,
And the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.
You, Christ, are the king of glory,
The eternal Son of the Father.
When you became man to set us free

You did not spurn the Virgin's womb.
You overcame the sting of death,
And opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
You are seated at God's right hand in glory.
We believe that you will come, and be our judge.
Come then, Lord, and help your people,
Bought with the price of your own blood,
And bring us with your saints
To glory everlasting.
Save your people, Lord, and bless your inheritance.
Govern and uphold them now and always.
Day by day we bless you.
We praise your name forever.
Keep us today, Lord, from all sin.
Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy.
Lord, show us your love and mercy;
For we put our trust in you.
In you, Lord, is our hope:
And we shall never hope in vain
Amen.

Christmas Octave Day 8: Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God

This year, the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God is not a Holy Day of Obligation because it falls on a Saturday — and whenever it falls on a Saturday or Monday, the bishop may abrogate the obligation to attend Mass. While we are not obliged to go to church on Saturday and then return again for Sunday Mass, the day is a solemn one set aside to honor Mary as the mother of our redeemer and her role in salvation history. It is the final day of the Octave of Christmas, and Mass starts at 8:00 AM at St. Leo Church.

In the words of Pope Saint John Paul II:
“Mary, Mother of Jesus who was born in the Bethlehem cave, is also the mother of every man and woman who comes into the world. How is it possible not to commend to her the year that is beginning, to implore a time of serenity and peace for all humanity? On the day when this new year begins under the blessed gaze of the Mother of God, let us invoke the gift of peace for each one and all.”

Madonna and Child (1633) by Simon Vouet
National Gallery of Art, Washington, D.C.

Catechesis: Mary as Mother of God

In the fifth century, Nestorius, the Patriarch of Constantinople, held that Jesus Christ is not the Son of God, that the Son of God lives in him as his soul, and that Jesus only has a human nature, closely united to the Divine Son. Mary, in the view of Nestorius, could only be the mother of the humanity of Jesus, so he rejected the title “Mother of God.” Opposition erupted, most notably from Saint Cyril of Alexandria, who argued in favor of the title “Theotokos,” which means “God-bearer” in Greek. The matter was settled at the Council of Ephesus in 431 A.D., and Nestorianism was condemned by the Church.

The orthodox Catholic teaching is that Jesus is the Son of God. As Saint John writes, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.” (John 1:1) “And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us.” (John 1:14)

Jesus is fully human and fully divine. He has two natures in one Divine Person. These natures are unmixed; each is complete, yet both belong to the one Person of the Son. His Divine Nature has always been, yet His Humanity has not always existed. He assumed a human body made of the dust of the earth that was created in the beginning, and a human soul with a human intellect and will, which did not exist before His Incarnation. He assumed a created nature, yet Jesus is not a creature. He remains an Uncreated Person.

Everything Jesus does He does as God. In Him, God has a visible human face, and He reaches out with human hands. God preached, and God healed. Those who sought Jesus sought God. The friends of Jesus are the friends of God. The Mother of Jesus, then, is the Mother of God.

Mary did not create His Divine Nature; the Divine Son descended to become her Child. Mary is not only the Mother of the Humanity of Jesus but of His whole Person, of both His Humanity and His Divinity. So, with Saint Elizabeth, we can say, “And why is it that the mother of my Lord should come to me?” (Luke 1:43)
