The Epiphany of the Lord

O God
Who by a star
guided the wise men to
the worship of your Son,
we pray You to lead to Yourself
the wise and great of every land
that unto you every knee may bow,
and every thought be brought into
captivity
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Our culture encourages Christmas decorations to come down about now, but the Catholic Church invites us to be counter-cultural. We've just gotten started! The Octave of Christmas is the first week of the liturgical season of Christmas, but the celebration continues beyond the Octave through the Epiphany of the Lord, celebrated this year on January 2, to the Baptism of the Lord, next Sunday, January 9. Take time to enjoy the richness and beauty of our Christmas Season.

The Epiphany of the Lord marks the arrival of the Magi from the East, who came to see the newborn king. It marks the appearance of Christ to the Gentiles and calls us to fall on our knees before Jesus and give Him the very best that we have to offer. In his Epiphany homily in 2021, Pope Francis said the day is a reminder of our need to worship our Savior:

“Worship is an act of love that changes our lives. It is to do what the Magi did:

- To bring gold to the Lord and to tell him that nothing is more precious than he is.
- To offer him incense and to tell him that only in union with him can our lives rise up to heaven.
- To present him with myrrh, balm for the bruised and wounded, and to promise him that we will aid our marginalized and suffering neighbors, in whom He Himself is present.

“...Today each one of us can ask: ‘Am I a Christian who worships?’ Many Christians pray, but they do not worship. Let us ask ourselves this question:

Do we find time for worship in our daily schedules and do we make room for worship in our communities?

“...In worshiping, we too will discover, like the Magi, the meaning of our journey. And like the Magi, we too will experience “a great joy.” (Matt 2:10)

The Wise Men (1900) by J.C. Leyendecker

50th Anniversary of the Diocese of Charlotte

The Diocese of Charlotte will celebrate its 50th anniversary this year, 2022. Bishop Jugis is proclaiming a yearlong celebration and encouraging everyone to “come together in celebration of our unity as one family of God.”

The celebration will include special events and initiatives at parishes, schools and ministries — as well as a pilgrimage and charitable outreach initiative in communities across the western half of North Carolina.

Bishop Jugis will kick off our celebration on Wednesday, January 12, 2022 — 50 years from the date of our inception — with an opening Mass and Holy Hour at St. Patrick Cathedral in Charlotte. The 8:00 AM Mass on January 12, 2022, here at Saint Leo will mark the beginning of our parish-based anniversary celebration.

If you would like to volunteer to help coordinate our events in this special year, please contact Mary Beth Young at mbyoung@stleocatholic.org

CATECHESIS

I H S

THE HOLY NAME OF JESUS Feast Day — Monday, January 3

When the Son of God became man, He received the name of Jesus, which means “YHWH saves.” As the name of the Son of God, Jesus is the name of God Himself, made accessible to humanity. As a divine name, it “is the only one that contains the presence it signifies” and contains “God and man and the whole economy of creation and salvation.” (CCC 2666) To reiterate that point, the Name of Jesus mystically contains Jesus Himself and all that Jesus unites to Himself.

The Name of Jesus is, therefore, a prayer and “is the simplest way of praying always” (CCC 2668).

To pray the Name of Jesus is to invoke Him and to welcome Him into your heart. The Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus is truly a celebration of the sacred humanity of Jesus, because it celebrates a name that is both human and divine; a human name spoken by human lips, and a mystical name that invokes God.

The Sacred Monogram IHS is from the first three letters of the name of Jesus in Greek. Over the centuries, IHS also became various acronyms for Greek phrases — for example, “Jesus, our Savior” and “Jesus, Savior of Men.” It even became an acronym for an English phrase, “In His Service.” But the original intent was a Christogram, an abbreviation of Christ’s name.

As an object of veneration, however, the IHS is meant as a depiction of the Holy Name of Jesus, especially when it is depicted as surrounded by rays of sunlight. (See the photo above from the Church of the Gesu in Rome.)

St. Bernardino of Siena, an early 15th century Franciscan missionary, popularized this devotion. He carried a wooden placard with the Sacred Monogram so that the Holy Name could be venerated just as we venerate the Crucifix and other holy objects.

Elizabeth Ann Seton:

From New York Socialite to Courageous Saint

“Elizabeth Ann Seton is a saint. Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton is an American. All of us say this with special joy, and with the intention of honoring the land and the nation from which she sprang forth as the first flower in the calendar of the saints. Elizabeth Ann Seton was wholly American! Rejoice for your glorious daughter. Be proud of her. And know how to preserve her fruitful heritage.”

—Pope Paul VI

Elizabeth Ann Bayley in 1794, at the time of her wedding to William Seton, Jr.

Faith lifts the staggering soul on one side. Hope supports it on the other. Experience says it must be, and love says let it be.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

From Collected Writings, Volume II, p. 117

Elizabeth Ann Bayley was born in 1774 in New York City to a prominent colonial family. She grew into a woman of beauty and talent, notably as a pianist, as well as a devout Episcopalian, attracted to contemplative prayer and charitable works. Despite her charm and flair, she led a life marked by loss.

She was only two when the American Revolution began, so her earliest memories were of wartime. She lost her mother at age three; then lost her beloved stepmother when her father separated from his second wife. At 19, she fell in love with William Seton, Jr., and for a time enjoyed a happy marriage in a fashionable residence on Wall Street. But William contracted tuberculosis, went bankrupt, and then died seeking innovative medical treatment in Italy.

In Italy, Elizabeth became acquainted with Catholicism and converted after she returned to New York, only a few years after anti-Catholic laws had been abolished. Still, she faced persecution for her conversion. For example, at the school she opened as a young widow, parents withdrew their children upon discovering she was Catholic.

She considered moving to Canada but was persuaded to remain in the U.S. and move to Maryland. In Emmitsburg, Elizabeth founded a free school dedicated to educating poor girls and then founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, which eventually adopted the rule of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul and St. Louise de Marillac, thereby grafting the new community to the Vincentian spiritual tradition.

As a foundress, Elizabeth was called Mother Seton, a title that remains significant for Catholics in the U.S. Her vision of a free school for the poor led to the American Catholic school system. Through her faith and heroic virtue, she became a saint, the first native-born American to be canonized by the Catholic Church. Along with Mother Cabrini, representing immigrants, and Saint Kateri Tekawitha, representing Native Americans, Mother Seton serves as a spiritual mother and intercessor for Catholics in America and a model of living as both American and Catholic. She is the patron of widows, Catholic schools, parents experiencing the death of children, loss of parents, in-law problems, people mocked for their piety, the state of Maryland, and all U.S. seafaring services — the Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and Merchant Marine.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, pray for us!

— J. Patrick Yodzis

New York at the Time of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

Saints arise from the vicissitudes of their times. Elizabeth Ann Bayley was born in colonial New York on August 28, 1774, just one week before the first Continental Congress. Not a single Catholic church existed there at the time, because Catholic worship was illegal. In 1776, the Revolutionary War began, and the British gained control of New York City the day before Elizabeth's second birthday. Her early years were colored by the long occupation of British soldiers in the city and the sacrifices it entailed.

After the war, Elizabeth's father, a prominent surgeon and professor, became New York's Health Officer, a position through which he worked with Alexander Hamilton. Elizabeth became a close friend of Hamilton's wife, Eliza, and the two of them collaborated on charitable projects, especially through their parish, Trinity Episcopal Church. Along with another friend, they founded an orphanage in Hamilton's memory after he was shot in a duel by Aaron Burr. Although Elizabeth Ann Seton isn't mentioned in the Broadway musical "Hamilton," the orphanage that she helped found figures in the story.

*Lord God,
You blessed Elizabeth
Seton with gifts of grace;
As wife and mother,
educator and foundress,
so that she might spend
her life in service to your people.
Through her example
and prayers, may we learn
to express our love for you in love for our fellow men
and women.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with
you and the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Why is St. Elizabeth Ann Seton the Patron of America's Sea Services?

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton's two sons, William and Richard, were in the U.S. Navy. Many letters she wrote to William reveal her deep motherly concern for him at sea. When he served aboard the USS Macedonian and sailed around Cape Horn to Valparaiso, Chile, she worried where he was and how he was doing. She died on January 4, 1821, while William was on that deployment.

Applications are now open for the 2022-2023 school year, Pre-k through 8th grade, at St. Leo School. Call to schedule a tour, (336) 748-8252, or come to our next open house, January 12, 9:00-11:00 AM.
