The 49th annual March for Life will proceed as planned in 2022. Tens of thousands of pro-lifers from around the nation will once again converge to peacefully protest the 1973 U.S. Supreme Court decision on Roe v. Wade, which legalized abortion in all 50 states, and to celebrate life from the moment of conception to natural death. It is the largest human rights demonstration in the world.

January 22

DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN

While we pray always for an end to abortion, this date is set aside by U.S. bishops to pray that the legal guarantee of the right to life be fully restored in our country. It is also a day to atone for the violations against the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion.

Join millions of believers in a unified plea to Our Lord that change will come in 2022.

Catechesis: “The Mother of Jesus was There.”

Jesus attends a wedding, where He will begin to be revealed and His disciples will come to believe in Him. The setting points to the eternal wedding banquet to come, in which Jesus is the Bridegroom Fully Revealed. It also points to the Mass and the spiritual life in general. In all of it, Mary holds a significant place: “the Mother of Jesus was there.” (John 2:1) It is Mary who initiates the revelation of Jesus to His disciples.

Mary says to Jesus, “They have no wine.” (John 2:3) She is asking her Son to perform a miracle, because she knows He can do it. This action also demonstrates that Mary is concerned not only that we have the basic necessities of life, but also that we have wine. It does not mean Mary spares us from the Cross and its suffering, but it does show that Mary is inclined to bring us joy in life.

Jesus’s response is unexpected: “Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come.” (John 2:4) If we take this expression literally, Jesus would be guilty of dishonoring his mother, even breaking the Fourth Commandment. But this expression did not have that meaning at the time of Christ. “What have you to do with me?” — or “How does your concern affect me?” — was a response to someone whom you would obey.

The same expression figures in the healing of the Gerasene demoniac. The demon “fell down before Him and said with a loud voice, ‘What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me.’” (Lk 8:28) The demon used the common phrase to indicate his obeisance to Jesus, just as Jesus indicates that He wills to obey His mother. (Lk 2:51) Far from showing disrespect, it shows that Jesus continued to obey his mother well into manhood. Mary knows Jesus will do as she asks and simply says to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.” (John 2:5)

But why does he call her Woman? This way of speaking also has negative connotations today; but Jesus, by calling Mary Woman, indicates that she is the New Eve. He will address her in this way once more from the Cross when He says, “Woman, behold your son!” (John 19:26)

Jesus connects the wedding feast at Cana with the Passion of Christ. At Cana, Jesus changes water into wine; at the Last Supper, He transubstantiates wine into His Blood, and at the Crucifixion, this Blood is poured out to save us. Mary is present from beginning to end. In the life of Christ, the Sacraments, the spiritual life, and in Heaven, the mother of Jesus is there.

— J. Patrick Yodzis,
www.heartofthechurch.net

“The sacrament of Matrimony signifies the union of Christ and His Church. It gives spouses the grace to love each other with the love which Christ has loved the Church; the grace of the sacrament thus perfects the human love of the spouses, strengthens their indissoluble unity, and sanctifies them on the way to eternal life.” — Council of Trent, DS 1799

A Catholic Marriage is a Covenant, Not a Civil Contract

Sacred Scripture begins in Genesis with the creation and union of man and woman and ends in Revelation with "the wedding feast of the Lamb." (Rev 19:7, 9) Scripture often refers to marriage, its origin and purpose, the meaning God gave to it, and its renewal in the covenant made by Jesus with his Church. It says man and woman were created for each other.

By their marriage, the couple witnesses Christ's spousal love for the Church. One of the Nuptial Blessings in the liturgical celebration of marriage refers to this in saying:

"Father, you have made the union of man and wife so holy a mystery that it symbolizes the marriage of Christ and his Church."

The Sacrament of Marriage is a covenant, which is more than a contract. Covenant always expresses a relationship between persons. The marriage covenant refers to the relationship between the husband and wife, a permanent union of persons capable of knowing and loving each other and God. The celebration of marriage is also a liturgical act, appropriately held in a public liturgy at church. Catholics are urged to celebrate their marriage within the Eucharistic Liturgy.

— U.S. Catholic Catechism for Adults

Catechesis: The Sacrament of Holy Matrimony

Christ instituted seven sacraments in the Church that touch all stages and important moments in the Christian life. The sacraments of initiation — Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist — form the foundations of Christian life. (CCC 1210-1212) Once initiated, we are called to continue Our Lord's work of healing and salvation (CCC 1421) with grace from two more sacraments, Reconciliation and the Anointing of the Sick. The remaining two, Holy Orders and Matrimony, are "sacraments at the service of communion" and address a vocation in the adult Christian life.

The Church recognizes the goodness of marriage in the story of Jesus's first miracle at the wedding feast at Cana. On the threshold of His public ministry, He was there, enjoying a wedding reception and celebrating a friend or relative's union with another. Cana indicates marriage is an efficacious sign of Christ's presence. (CCC 1613)

As Catholics, we believe God is the author of marriage, and Christ raised it to the dignity of a sacrament. It is not a purely human institution. The couple is called to marriage as a vocation. Their response to life within a family is bound up in the health of Christian society and of all humanity. (CCC 1603)

Marriage is not immune to the effects of evil in the world. Discord, domination, infidelity, jealousy and conflicts can lead to hatred and separation between couples. But none of it stems from the nature of man or woman, nor from the relationship. Rather, it comes from sin. The couple, then, needs God's grace to heal their wounds and uphold their wedding vows. The Sacrament of Matrimony offers that grace as a fruit of Christ's sacrifice on the Cross. (CCC 1615) With sacramental grace, each spouse can help the other overcome self-absorption, egoism and the pursuit of personal pleasure to become self-giving.

The Catholic bride and groom are ministers of God's grace who mutually confer the sacrament upon one another in their consent before the Church. They receive the Holy Spirit, who seals their covenant to give them strength in fidelity and love for one another. (CCC 1624) Each is called to encourage the holiness of the other through their common faith and expression of Christian values and by receiving the Eucharist together.

Getting Married at St. Leo Catholic Church

— OR —

St. Leo receives up to 60 requests for weddings each year. Wedding Guidelines are in place to ensure that our beautiful church is available for the celebration of the sacraments of registered and active St. Leo parishioners and their families.

For a couple to be married at St. Leo, one of two conditions must be met:

1. The bride or the groom is a registered, active, and regularly contributing member of St. Leo and has been so for at least three months prior to the commencement of their six-month marriage preparation period. To be an active member means attending Mass every Sunday and supporting the parish financially.

2. The bride or groom is a registered, active, and regularly contributing member of another parish, but attended St. Leo as part of their childhood. The pastor of the bride or groom's home parish must certify that the couple would be eligible for marriage in his parish.

Marriage Preparation is Required

Candidates for the Sacrament of Matrimony at St. Leo must go through a marriage preparation program. Parishioners of St. Leo who wish to be married in another parish may be enrolled in our parish marriage preparation program as long as the first condition is met — they are registered, active, and regularly contributing members of St. Leo and have been for at least three months.

When a couple meets with one of the parish priests, he will explain the marriage preparation program to be completed before the celebration of the wedding.

Marriage is More Than a Wedding

A wedding is a simple ceremony lasting only a few minutes; marriage is a lifetime commitment of sacrificial love in a solemn and sacramental covenant. Wedding preparation and marriage preparation are different things. Marriage preparation helps to prepare couples for a lifelong sacramental commitment.

For additional information, please contact Mary Beth Young at mbyoung@stleocatholic.org

Can't we get married on the beach?

Sacred events belong in sacred places, and secular events belong in secular places. Canon Law requires weddings to take place inside a church to remind the Church of the sacred nature of marriage, the special participation of God and His Church, and the place of every marriage in the life of the Church. The beach or a vineyard is a nice place, but not a sacred place. Moreover, neither is a place where Catholic people ordinarily meet to worship God in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament and one another. While a wedding al fresco is not allowed, your reception can be anywhere you like.

Why so many rules about weddings?

The Church takes marriage very seriously, because God takes it very seriously. Marriage, a sacred covenant and tremendous gift from God, is a visible sign of His love and commitment to His people. It is the foundation of the family and of society, central to the life of the Church. Marriage is also a public act celebrated as part of the Church's liturgy and introduces the couple into a special state of life in the Church. Because of its significance, the Church has an obligation to make sure marriage is celebrated in the right way, according to the right forms, to attend to the spiritual health of all of God's people.

Guidelines for Wedding Flowers at St. Leo

Traditionally, couples hire florists to provide altar arrangements and, sometimes, a nosegay for our Blessed Mother, then donate the flowers to the parish for use at liturgies following the wedding. It is a time-honored gesture of thanksgiving to God and to the parish for their spiritual support. St. Dorothy's Guild, a ministry at St. Leo, is pleased to offer floral services for weddings. In lieu of hiring a florist, couples can engage the services of the guild for arrangements, bouquets, corsages and boutonnieres to benefit the parish. For details, contact Mary Margaret Yodzis at mmkyodzis@stleocatholic.org
