Christ is risen! Indeed He is risen!

Dear Friends,

This past week was a beautiful expression of our Catholic faith. Palm Sunday through Easter Sunday was a prayerful and spiritual expression of our faith as a community of believers. Masses in our temporary church and High School auditorium were well attended with so many comments of folks who truly felt the presence of God. I want to thank all who had a hand in making Easter 2021 a beautiful prayer to the Lord.

Today we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. Please consider attending the prayer service at 3:00 pm Sunday afternoon.

Below is a picture of those Baptized, Confirmed and received First Eucharist (with their sponsors) at our Easter Vigil service. May God bless all of us as we celebrate this Easter season.

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Mike

TANGIBLE RESURRECTION

Kind words are OK — but when you're at a loss as to what to do or how to get beyond your grief, a cup of coffee with someone who understands can be an experience of resurrection.

The course begins with a detailed syllabus distributed by the professor. The syllabus outlines the readings and texts, the required papers and projects, the schedule of quizzes and exams. The syllabus includes the learning goals for the course and additional resources for students. Students are excited about the possibilities. But the course is not the syllabus: the course is the learning and inquiry that takes place in the classroom or seminar room.

He loves reading about fishing. She's hooked on HG-TV. Both happily loose themselves in the ideas and suggestions, the stories and experiences recounted. He can't wait to try that fly on his favorite trout stream; that color scheme and tile would look great in her kitchen. But they're only wishes and hopes until he wades into the current some spring morning, until she pries open a can of paint and grout and goes to work.

Many of us have mastered Zoom and Skype this past year; we've come to live for those online chats and visits with loved ones. We've learned to teach, to interview, to conduct business with students and clients and coworkers in living rooms all over the world — but an image on a screen is no substitute for a face-to-face exchange, the most effective learning dynamic is experienced in the community created in the classroom, love is most happily expressed in a grandchild's hug.

In today's Gospel, the disciples tell Thomas they have seen Jesus. Thomas replies that "unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger in the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." In countless sermons over the centuries on the Second Sunday of Easter, Thomas has been criticized for his "doubt" in the resurrection — but Thomas is no different than we are: Thomas wants something he can touch; he wants a tangible sign of Jesus' resurrection. After the horrific week since Jesus' crucifixion, he wants more than a metaphor. Thomas wants real life, life perfected and re-created by God. And Jesus acquiesces. The Crucified Jesus lives again — in us. Our compassionate presence to one another, our embrace of one another in peace and respect, our commitment to the Gospel work of reconciliation and justice are all tangible signs of Jesus' resurrection. This Easter season, may we realize the many ways we can "touch" and make real the Risen One in our midst.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY—TODAY, APRIL 11, 2021

A Universal Church Feast observed on the First Sunday after Easter.

In her Diary, St. Faustina recorded 14 revelations from our Lord requesting this feast. The most complete concise description is found in entry 669:

I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. ...The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY AT ST. PATRICK CHURCH

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 1:00-3:00 pm

THE BEAUTY OF OUR FAITH SERIES

This week we look at

HOLY WATER

Holy water will be flowing freely from every font after the Easter Vigil this year. Most churches keep holy water on hand either in the baptistry or in a separate covered font so the faithful have ready access to it. A priest or deacon may pray the Church's water blessing at any time of year, but the blessing of all blessings happens at the Easter Vigil.

Baptism is the sacrament that opens the door to the others and incorporates us into the Body of Christ. So solemn is the rite, so rich its meaning, that we first bless its water. We pray that the Holy Spirit will vivify the water, making it fit for its holy purpose.

Holy water, quite simply, is leftover baptismal water. We set it by the doors of the church and bring it to our homes because it will remind us of our Baptism.

The water we bless at Easter usually does not last the whole year. In the old days, we used to have a second water blessing on Pentecost to boost the supply. Now there are several occasions when we bless water. For example, a water blessing and sprinkling can replace the Penitential Act on any Sunday. On those days when the priest walks around sprinkling you with water at the beginning of Mass, he's not just playing games. He's making the connection between that Sunday and Easter, days of Baptism, faith, and new life.

Other occasions for blessing water include the rite of infant Baptism or a prayer service just to bless water as found in the Book of Blessings. The blessing should be a public event, not a private prayer in the sacristy. That way we can all join in the prayer and the renewal of our Baptism.

Ideally, the water we bless on Easter will at least last throughout Easter Time. During Easter Time, we have alternate prayers for the sprinkling that replace Sunday's Penitential Act, and for the blessing of water at infant Baptism. The prayers assume that we're using water that was already blessed at the Vigil.

Whenever you use holy water, whether walking into church, sprinkling your home, or burying the dead, it will always remind us of what happens at Easter throughout the Church, the Baptism that makes us members of the household of God.

Dear Fr. Swierz & Parishioners,
On behalf of Trumbull Co. Children Services and the families we serve, thank you for your recent donation of Easter Baskets. It was so kind of you to think of the children that are in care. I'm sure it put smiles on the faces of many children on Easter morning. Donations from supporters such as you, make a positive difference in the lives of children in Trumbull County.
Sincerely, Nancy K. Boley, Administrative Coordinator

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

Dear Friends,

Just a short week ago, we were in the midst of remembering Christ's great act of love—the complete giving of his very life to redeem each of us. During the Good Friday service, each person had the opportunity to venerate the cross—to show in a meaningful way their belief in the mercy Christ expressed on that cross.

As I watched one person after another solemnly walk up to the cross, I was deeply touched by the expression of faith each individually expressed. Some touched the cross, others kissed the cross, while still others made a profound bow or genuflected. From the eldest person on a walker to the youngest child guided by their mother's hand to reach out for the cross, each was saying, "Jesus, thank you for being merciful to me, a sinner." Each of the people in that line at St. Patrick Church was carrying on the faith Christians have shown down through the centuries.

ON DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY, WE REMEMBER THAT COMPLETE GIVING OF JESUS. IN THANKSGIVING FOR HIS MERCY, CHRIST ONLY ASKS US TO PASS ON MERCY TO OTHERS THROUGH THE GIVING OF OUR TIME, TALENT, AND TREASURE.

May Jesus, our Redeemer, deepen our desire to be merciful to others as He has been and will be to each of us.

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own..." - ACTS 4:32

All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, your friends, your life, your talents and your money – these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has blessed us with. We are called to be grateful and generous with all of our gifts for the benefit of others.
