Written in a Mother's hands are the stories of her life,
a kind and loving mother through happiness or strife.
Faith, and love, and righteousness are written in her hands, charity and service as she follows the Father's plan.
Sturdy through the storms of life, humble as she prays,
I'm grateful for my Mother's hands and the love she shows each day.

To all Mothers and Grandmothers—Happy Mother's Day from Fr. Mike and the Staff of St. Patrick Parish

"PICK A PERSON A DAY . . . "

A year ago, at the start of the pandemic, the famed cellist Yo Ma began posting videos he recorded at his home during the lockdown. With no ornamentation or accompaniment, he performed Antonin Dvorak's "Going Home" as his first posting. That video has been viewed over 400,000 times.

"Going Home" became one of many early offerings in Ma's #SongsofComfort project that has now spread across six continents and spurred an internet phenomenon, with musicians around the world and from every genre from rock to opera posting contributions.

Some of Ma's recordings have come with dedications, such as his recording of Bach's Cello Suite No. 3 for health care workers: "Your ability to balance human connection and scientific truth in service of us all gives me hope," he wrote. He posted Albinoni's Adagio in G Minor with the simple caption: "For those grieving."

Yo Yo Ma has posed this challenge to every musician and artist who owns a phone: "Practice the one-on-one principle because as a musician, your job — our job — is to actually move one person at a time. So pick a person that you know, or maybe you don't know . . . that may need what you do as a service. Maybe it's someone who's healthy, maybe someone who's ill, maybe it's a child who has been stuck at home. Pick what you think is the right thing to play for them. Make it personal, because [music] is always personal, and record it with a little message and send it to them...

The effectiveness of the one-on-one relationship, Ma believes, is the "first principle" of music and science — and everything of value and meaning: "That's how we rebuild our humanity," Ma says. "So create the value of that one-on-one idea: for each musician, for each actor, for each poet, for each artist to say, Pick a person. Pick a person a day."

Such empathy, such awareness of the struggle of others, is at the heart of today's Gospel. Loving as Christ has loved us begins by putting aside our own hopes and wants to help realize the hopes and wants of others; by caring for and about others with selflessness and understanding, regardless of the sacrifice demanded of us; by readily making the first move to forgive and to heal, no matter how undeserving. May we realize the powerful sense of resurrection we can bring about by embracing the spirit of Christ's love in our lives and the lives of others.

IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for the soul and family of Joseph Sivulich
who has fallen asleep in the Lord.
"May the Angels welcome him to Paradise."

THE MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

THOSE WHO NEED OUR PRAYERS... Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servants to health once more. Please remember to keep in prayer…

THE BEAUTY OF OUR FAITH SERIES

This week we look at the

ROSARY

The Rosary is a prayer based on the repetition of the Lord's Prayer, the Hail Mary, and the Glory Be. During its recitation, the believer reflects upon the birth, life, death, and glory of Jesus Christ and the role of Mary. A chain of beads resembling a garland of roses gave the Rosary its name. The beads are not essential to the prayer, but they help count through fifty Hail Marys (five decades). The recitation of the traditional fifteen decades permitted unlettered Christians to imitate more simply the monastic practice of reciting all 150 psalms in weekly prayer.

In addition to meditation, the Rosary leads to petition. It implores Mary's intercession in bringing our prayers to God. As she won the cooperation of Jesus at the wedding feast at Cana, so we ask her to bring our needs to the Holy One of God.

The precise origins of the Rosary are obscure, but it probably formed in imitation of meditative practices of Islam and after the Christian desire for prayer in a language more easily understood than the Latin of the Mass. Its popularity increased after the fifteenth century due to the zealous encouragement of the followers of St. Dominic, who believed the Blessed Virgin had miraculously given the Rosary to him. Because believers who attended Mass at that time had less to say, do, or see compared with today, the recitation of the Rosary during Mass became a popular Catholic devotion much encouraged by religious educators. This was an honored custom for many centuries. The popes of the Church have continually cultivated the Rosary as part of the faithful's private devotion and especially in family prayer. Many Catholics recite it privately or in groups before Mass. The liturgy for the dead calls for a vigil service of Scripture readings on the night before the funeral, but many parishes replace it with the Rosary, even though the rubrics make no such provision.

Today we are encouraged to participate in the Mass and to pray the Rosary apart from the Eucharist.

FIRST STEP FOR CHANGE

One way to support the Catholic Church's pro-life, pro-family position is to participate in First Step for Change, a campaign sponsored by Catholic Charities to assist low-income pregnant women and families with food, formula, clothing diapers and other items essential to a child's health, safety and well-being. Pick up a First Step Packet or baby bottle, fill it with your donation and return to the parish by June 20. Support the Gospel of Life by reaching out to women, children and families who need a helping hand.

AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

There will be a blood drive on Wednesday, May 19 in the parish center from 1:00-5:00 pm.

STEWARDSHIP

DEACON JOHN'S STEWARDSHIP COLUMN

Mother's Day is the day we give honor to our mothers. A mother is truly a role model of stewardship to all of us. She joyfully gives her time, talent, and treasure to her children, giving hours upon hours of time to them. She is their nurse when they bruise their knees. She is their teacher when they need help with homework. She is their advisor when problems arise in their life. A mother shares her talents with her children. Our mothers have many talents. Some are athletes. Some are great chefs. Some are great in the arts. I believe that each of us can name something for which our mother is memorable. A mother gives all her treasure to her children and that treasure is her love. There is not any love we will experience as close to the love of God than the love of our mother. A mother's love is unconditional, and it is truly God's gift to the world.

"God could not be everywhere and therefore he made mothers." (Jewish proverb)

Love,

Deacon John

SHARING OUR TREASURE

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" - JOHN 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?
