MARCY 14, 2021

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

We, the Roman Catholic faith community of Our Lady of the Woods, in communion with ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC, and APOSTOLIC Church and under the patronage of Mary, are joined together as a people of God. Our mission is to spread the Gospel and bring people into a relationship with God and one another through the celebration of the Sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist. We live out Christ's mission in the world through evangelization, worship, education, stewardship, and service to the needy.

So hard to believe that Easter Vigil is on a couple of weeks away!

Everyone in this group have been amazing. They are loving and supportive to each other as well as to me and that is not easy when all of our sessions are on Zoom.

Last week we prayed the Stations of the Cross talking about them as we prayed them. Next week it is an in-depth study of the Our Father. Please keep all of us in your prayers.

From Our Hood in the Woods

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT: LAETARE SUNDAY

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

They have been defined as: simply moments of truth that reflect the power of our strengths...moments of illumination which show that we each have our own true strengths and the power to live into them...they are often hard to hold onto, if for no other reason than we rationalize them away...but they can often feel like such moments of truth, such natural expressions of our talents and strengths, and they feel so right, that it is hard to capture just how exceptional these moments actually are...

THEY ARE CALLED “GLIMMERS OF HOPE!”

This Sunday brings us some “glimmers of hope” that should fill us with joy:

We are over “HALF WAY” through our 40 day Lenten Journey! Has it made a “difference”? Have I somehow felt “different”? Amidst the Lenten call for extra prayer, almsgiving and fasting, we are moving along towards that transforming moment in our lives that is the ULTIMATE HOPE MOMENT: THE RESURRECTION!

Today, we also experience DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME: as we “lose” an hour of sleep we “spring forward” towards warmer weather (of course that is extremely relative in Pure Michigan!) and anticipate life being renewed through buds, blossoms, and the flowers of nature announcing a different season.

In our faith lives today, we celebrate LAETARE SUNDAY. It also is known as one of the two REFRESHMENT SUNDAYS or ROSE SUNDAYS (the other one being Gaudete Sunday, the third Sunday of Advent) where the color of the vestments has the option of being “rose” and other liturgical symbols such as flowers are possibly seen in the sanctuary.

Laetare is the first word — meaning “rejoice” — in the Latin text. Today, the Church expresses hope and joy in the midst of our Lenten fasts and penances. The “rose” color, different from the purple during the rest of Lent, indicates a glimpse of the joy that awaits us at Easter, just before we enter into the somber days of Passontide.

As Michael R. Heinlein, editor of Simply Catholic writes: “Laetare Sunday is the Church’s way of giving us “a shot in the arm” as we approach the darkness and horror of the days through Good Friday and Holy Saturday. It’s an opportunity to savor and keep in the back of our minds what awaits us on Easter Sunday — the reality that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead, and that our hearts will always be filled with joy!”

I have often thought in many ways that LAETARE SUNDAY and GAUDETE SUNDAY were reminders that amidst our need for reconciliation, for penance, for conversion, for challenges, in the midst of a pandemic, that these are THE GOD SMILING MOMENTS: that GOD SMILES ON ME, GOD SMILES ON YOU, AND GOD SMILES ON EACH OF US, and that it is the invitation for each of us, and all of us, TO REJOICE!

As Jessica Reedy sings: “God has smiled on me He has set me free, oh God has smiled on me...He's been good to me!”

We can therefore make the choice: as we are waiting for a vaccination in line or in a car...WE CAN CHOOSE TO REJOICE! As we walk through uncertain or challenging moments...WE CAN CHOOSE TO REJOICE! As we face racial tensions, national division, political polarization, moments of emptiness or weariness...WE CAN CHOOSE TO REJOICE! Amidst the ongoing moments of COVID-19... in moments of job fatigue: WE CAN CHOOSE TO REJOICE!

God gives us three smiles: one in each of the readings this weekend when we hear in the first reading “GOD IS WITH US”, in the second reading, “GOD HAS MADE EACH OF US HIS POEM”, and in the gospel: “Whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that our works may be clearly seen as done in God.” What better reasons to rejoice?

Perhaps, Ann Sexton, in her poem, “WELCOME MORNING” from her collection entitled The Awful Rowing Toward God, 1975, helps us to embrace and “hug” this LAETARE SUNDAY MOMENT, as she writes:

There is joy
in all:

in the hair I brush each morning,
in the Cannon towel, newly washed,
that I rub my body with each morning,

in the chapel of eggs I cook each morning,
in the outcry from the kettle that heats my coffee each morning, in the spoon and the chair that cry "hello there, Anne" each morning, in the godhead of the table that I set my silver, plate, cup upon each morning.

All this is God,
right here in my pea-green house each morning
and I mean,
though often forget,
to give thanks,
to faint down by the kitchen table in a prayer of rejoicing as the holy birds at the kitchen window peck into their marriage of seeds.

So while I think of it,
let me paint a thank-you on my palm
for this God, this laughter of the morning, lest it go unspoken.

The Joy that isn't shared, I've heard, dies young.

LAETARE SUNDAY... A GLIMMERING MOMENT OF HOPE...GOD IS SMILING ON US – SMILE BACK!!!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Question:

Why do priests wear a Roman collar?

Answer:

The practice of priests wearing the Roman collar developed in the mid-nineteenth century as an alternative to wearing the cassock which in some places was seen as impractical or which was even outlawed by anti-Catholic legislation. Since its introduction, it has taken different forms, and if you visit different countries today, you will see variation in what priests wear.

The Code of Canon Law simply observes that priests wear "suitable ecclesiastical garb" according to the judgments of the national bishops conferences and local custom (no. 284). The US Bishops have instructed that outside of liturgical functions, a "black suit and Roman collar are the usual formal attire for priests. The use of the cassock is at the discretion of the cleric." Priests who are members of religious communities are to follow the rules of their institute regarding the habit or other approved clothing.

In the end, whether a priest wears the Roman collar, a religious habit, or, as is the case in many European countries, a suit and tie (to distinguish them from Protestant clergy who wear a collar) the goal of their clerical clothing is to serve as a sign of their commitment to guide and to serve, and to also allow them to be truly public figures because they are ordained for the service of all.

LIVE THE LITURGY

God's messengers always seem to get mocked. They speak a truth that some folks do not want to hear. While on the one hand we admire them, we also are quite happy keeping them at a distance. After all, they are not referring to me but someone else, aren't they? We often wrongly conclude that because we may be more avant-garde, contemporary, politically sensitive, and untraditional, we are somehow more in the light than others. People tend to prefer darkness more than light, even the most spiritually sensitive among us. The light always carries with it the richness of God's mercy and compassion which see beyond ideologies and concepts to relationships that cultivate life, earthly and eternal. Every hand of compassion and mercy extended to a human being must always point back to God. The call always involves ordering our lives in accord with our truth and essence of being. As God never forgets us, we must never forget God. Now is the time to take stock of our infidelity and return to the light, even though it is difficult to look at.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP -

AWAKE, O SLEEPER!

This morning came a little earlier than I would have liked — Daylight Savings Time always does. Sometimes that morning sunlight seems more intrusive than illuminating. You're still half-lost in sleep, and that sun is demanding of you a lot more than you're ready to give.

I've said it, and I'm sure you've said it, too. "Just five more minutes." You hit the "snooze" button on your iPhone once (maybe twice? Show of hands?) and turn away from the window.

So many kings of the Old Testament were steadfast in their sleepy ways, rejecting the light their God tried to share with them. Likewise, John tells us that, though Light — Christ — was sent into the world, the world preferred darkness.

Sometimes it seems, when reading through Scripture, that all throughout salvation history, God has been trying to pull back the curtains, to rouse us from our defiant slumber. And we resist Him. Time and time again, we resist Him.

Light brings a certain responsibility with it. It seems to compel productivity. Furthermore, there's no hiding in the light. Any photographer worth his salt knows how to manipulate it, highlighting the good and casting some merciful shade on the bad.

As we enter into the fourth week of Lent, we're getting so close to the main event. Can we handle the light that will come on Easter morning, bursting into the tomb as the stone is rolled away? Can we keep ourselves from hitting the "snooze" button on our souls, and sit up to face the dawn of a new day?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Reflections On Scripture

OLD TESTAMENT READING

The author of 2 Chronicles reflects on how historically God's fidelity and mercy was often met with Israel's disobedience and arrogance. How does the Lenten journey provoke an examination of conscience for you and your faith life?

NEW TESTAMENT READING

Paul speaks of our faith and our salvation as "the gift of God" to us. In what ways do you show appreciation for God's grace?

GOSPEL READING

Is there something to Lent that goes beyond our own spiritual house cleaning and spiritual refinement? Yes, there is! It has to do with listening and learning so that we can take up the task of the Gospel with greater clarity and fortitude. While the spiritual refocusing of Lent is necessary, the fruit of this Lenten conversion has much more to do with learning how we can be a better Church than it does about our eternal salvation. Salvation is a gift that flows out of God's unconditional Mercy and cannot be merited. The spiritual maturity we can experience as a result of our Lenten disciplines serves to reduce the anxiety and apprehension we may experience as messengers of good, but very challenging, and unsettling, news.

St. Oscar Romero said that, "a church that doesn't provoke any crises, a gospel that doesn't unsettle, a word of God that doesn't get under anyone's skin, a word of God that doesn't touch the real sin of the society in which it is being proclaimed, what gospel is that?" When we listen to those descriptive and provocative words, do they resonate with anything in our experience? As messengers of the Gospel, we are called to bring an unsettling message to the world. If our main concern is protecting our self-interests, then we are missing something huge! Many really struggle with being rejected, dismissed, or perceived as someone who is speaking out of turn. There is a counter cultural message that must be preached that clearly sides with the poor, marginalized, victimized, oppressed, neglected, disregarded, and lost souls throughout the world. There is a widespread misery among the peoples that is all too often allowed to fester with no one coming forward to offer a change or resolution.

The Church can speak to the needed structural changes that will allow people to earn just wages, feed their families and share abundantly and equally in the gifts of God's good earth. Such a vision is not some optimistic fairy tale, but the vision of the Creator himself. Lent reminds us, as St. Oscar Romero also states, that, "we are workers, not master builder, ministers, not messiahs. We are prophets of a future not our own." We are not called to labor simply for the benefit of the here and now but of the "what is to come." Our myopic vision can be replaced by a more far reaching Lenten vision that is much greater and deeper in scope. As long as we are carrying the right blueprints with us and our thoughts extend beyond ourselves, then even the little things we do and the simplest prayer we utter go a long way.
