

OUR LADY OF THE WOODS

APRIL 4, 2021

EASTER SUNDAY

We, the Roman Catholic faith community of Our Lady of the Woods, in communion with ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC, and APOSTOLIC Church and under the patronage of Mary, are joined together as a people of God. Our mission is to spread the Gospel and bring people into a relationship with God and one another through the celebration of the Sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist. We live out Christ's mission in the world through evangelization, worship, education, stewardship, and service to the needy.

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

We made it! Forty Days through the wilderness with Jesus (encountering some confrontations with the devil; but also assisted by angels!)...walking into Jerusalem with Jesus on Palm Sunday through Holy Week experiencing ecstasy and agony, highs and lows, treacheries of betrayal and desolation, feelings of abandonment, fear, betrayal, moving through the Triduum in moments of isolation, helplessness, violence, death and emptiness...NOW ABLE TO PROCLAIM WITH OUR LIPS: "ALLELUIA!"

As Bishop Barron writes:

"Jesus is the Divine Light inserted into the darkness. What's Easter? The explosion of the light from within the darkness, breaking its power...That He might transform it from within."

May each of us, and all of us, together as family and parish, experience THE EXPLOSION OF LIGHT FROM DARKNESS...A BREAKING POWER...A TRANSFORMATION – Jesus, who is The Light of the World!

THE EXPLODING LIGHT OF EASTER is apparent in our parish through the newest family members who we welcomed at the Easter Vigil this weekend.

THE EXPLODING LIGHT OF EASTER is through God's Word where we hear Mary Magdala tell the Apostles: "They have removed the stone from the tomb..." The stones of each of our lives will be removed so that we can come out as Resurrected People from tombs of grief, selfishness, apathy, bewilderment...to come out from the TOMB OF THE PANDEMIC!!!

THE EXPLODING LIGHT OF EASTER gives me hope that I will meet again one day my brother, Bill, and my parents, aunts and uncles and all the loved ones who are marked with the sign of faith...along with each of you experiencing your own loved ones who have transitioned into new life with Christ!

THE EXPLODING LIGHT OF EASTER gives me confidence that more of us will be able to embrace, visit and celebrate with each other.

THE EXPLODING LIGHT OF EASTER reminds me of the cycle of life with flowers that have bloomed, and creation shouting forth with the grandeur of God's beauty.

THE EXPLODING LIGHT OF EASTER reflects the daily resurrections of life that we are called to embrace...through renewed relationships...insightful moments of growth...in new beginnings.

THE EXPLODING LIGHT OF EASTER as it brings unsanctioned growth with faith, hope and love to our family of parishes that will birth new life within exciting new RESURRECTION MOMENTS.

On behalf of our parish staff and myself personally, I wish each of you, along with every family, a very blessed and grace-filled Easter and Easter Season filled with hope and a renewing spirit for the beauty of life, with the ever-growing confidence of: "Death: where is your sting?" "Oh Death, where is your victory?"

Let me close reflecting on "THE EASTER POEM" by Sr. Joyce Rupp

Sturdy, deep green tulip shoots.
How did they know
it was time to push up through the long-wintered soil?
How did they know
it was the moment to resurrect,
while thick layers of stubborn ice
still pressed the bleak ground flat?
But the tulips knew.

They came, rising strongly,
 a day after the ice died.
 There's a hope-filled place in me
 that also knows when to rise,
 that waits for the last layer of ice
 to melt into obscurity.
 It is urged by the strong sun
 warming my wintered heart.
 It is nudged by the Secret One,
 calling, calling, calling:
 "Arise, my love, and come."
 My heart stirs like dormant tulips and hope comes dancing forth.
 Not unlike the Holy One
 kissing the morning sun,
 waving a final farewell
 to a tomb emptied of its treasure.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Question:

Do we need to fast for one hour before Mass, or one hour before communion?

Answer:

The practice of fasting before receiving the Eucharist is a centuries-old act of devotion that was once very different than it is today. In the 1917 Code of Canon Law, for example, anyone who wanted to receive the Eucharist had to fast from midnight until the time of communion (even water and medications were forbidden). Over the following decades, the rules for the eucharistic fast were relaxed, first by Pope Pius XII and, later, by Pope Saint Paul VI.

The current Code of Canon Law (1983) states very clearly: “A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before holy communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine” (Canon 919, §1). And, in the case of those who are ill and the elderly, the rules are even more accommodating, “The elderly, the infirm, and those who care for them can receive the Most Holy Eucharist even if they have eaten something within the preceding hour” (Canon 919, §3).

So, if we strictly follow the “letter of the law,” the fast is calculated from the time of Holy Communion and not the start of Mass. However, when we remember why we fast — it is a reminder of the deeper hungers of the spirit that our physical thirst or hunger symbolize — we see that the issue is much bigger than simply fulfilling what is called for by Church Law and tradition. Joining fasting to our prayers and reflection before Mass is an opportunity to really center ourselves and to prepare our minds, hearts, and bodies to welcome the One we receive in the Eucharist.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Alleluia! Christ is risen! About today’s feast, St. Augustine writes: “And he departed from our sight that we might return to our hearts and find him there. For he left us, and behold, he is here.” Christ’s resurrected presence lives not only in the highest heaven but in the fragile human heart. Christ’s life inspires us and moves us to see a future for every human being and discover our true purpose and meaning. Every human being has a desire to live, and this cry can be heard within. There is a longing for a connection with Someone greater than ourselves that gives an import to our existence that we cannot supply. Today, our deepest questions find answers.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - A HAPPY ENDING ISN'T THE WHOLE STORY

“Is there a happy ending?”

When my kids were young, we never made it past the first whiff of any narrative tension before I got this question. As soon as whatever princess or furry woodland animal who was the hero of the story got into any small scrape, they wanted that reassurance, “Is there a happy ending?”

I can’t say I blame them. Don’t we all feel that way sometimes? We enter into a relationship with someone or some situation, and we just want to protect ourselves. We want to know it’s not going to go badly — or, if it does, that we will be able to come back from it. It’s a human instinct, a reflex. Our inclination to protect ourselves makes it so that we sometimes want to press fast-forward on the bad stuff and skip straight ahead to the happily-ever-after.

Easter is the ultimate happy ending. It’s the day of miracles. The day when all the stones roll away and all the sins are forgiven. It’s the day that puts everything right.

But if we learned anything from this week — from the Passion and death of the Lord — it’s that we can’t press fast-forward on the hardships of life. That tension, that loss, that fear — it’s crucial, isn’t it? As Catholics, we are who we are because of Easter. But Easter doesn’t happen without Good Friday.

So, does the story of salvation have a happy ending? We know it does. But we also remember that the ending isn’t all that matters.

Reflections On Scripture

FIRST READING

We hear today part of the speech that Peter delivered in the household of Cornelius, a centurion and Gentile-believer in Christ. Peter bore witness to his experiences with Jesus, including Jesus' resurrection. To whom do you bear witness to your faith in the resurrected Jesus?

SECOND READING

Paul urges the Colossians to remain focused on Jesus' resurrection, ascension, and final return — to “seek what is above.” What do you find appealing in this spiritual exercise?

GOSPEL READING

Who are you? This question was most assuredly asked of Jesus on the day of resurrection and it is a question asked of each of us. Our identities can be described in so many ways. We can start with our gifts and our talents, expertise and unique personality expressions. We can describe things we like and things we prefer to set aside. As descriptive and captivating as these can be, none come close to our essence, our real and true self. While accurate in their own right, the self who lives and interacts with the world is the self we want others to see, the one we project. But there is much more to us just as there is much more to Jesus.

Jesus could describe himself based on all of the same criteria we use for ourselves. After all, Jesus is totally human. With all that people witnessed and all that Jesus knew about his physical human self, his divinity also shined forth. There was so much more to know about him. Whereas once Jesus was transfigured on top of a mountain before his disciples' eyes, so today he is transfigured before our eyes as he reveals his resurrected self as the Christ. Alleluia, Christ is risen! His glorified presence stands before us showing us that we are all much more than we see ourselves to be and show to others. We have a depth, purpose, and essence that go way beyond the superficial treasures of our existence to the very core of who we are.

Within each one of us is a spark of Divine Love where creature and Creator meet, and we are known uniquely by the name God whispers to us. It is not the earthly name that was given to us but the one that flows from Divine Power and claims us as one who is special and chosen in God's eyes. This is the self that will rise one day with the eternal Christ of God and live eternally as God provides. This is the self that when free from all superficial constraints layered upon it in this life can discover and know freedom in a way never possible before. This is love lifting us up and transforming us into who we really are, not who we want or need ourselves to be. Who are you? A special, unique child of God who has been fashioned in God's image, sustained by the power of God's love and kept eternally with the Blessed Trinity in heaven. Get to know this deeper, truer self as it is who you really are.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION – 2020/2021

STRUCTURE

Adult Faith Formation centers around THREE FAITH SURGE MOMENTS on our parish calendar within the academic year of 2020-2021.

WHAT IS A FAITH SURGE?

SHORT PERIODS OF TIME...CONCENTRATED EFFORT...REACHABLE AND OBTAINABLE GOALS WITHIN DEFINITIVE MOMENTS WHICH FOSTER GROWTH IN OUR FAITH!!!

The THIRD FAITH SURGE is from after Easter (April 4) until the end of May, 2021.

WHY DO WE NEED THEM IN OUR PARISH?

The Church and its adult faithful have a mission in and to the world: to share the message of Christ to renew and to transform the social and temporal order. This dual calling to evangelization and justice is integral to the identity of the lay faithful; all are called to it in baptism. Accordingly, faith formation seeks to help each adult believer become "more willing and able to be a Christian disciple in the world." As salt of the earth and light for the world (cf. Mt 5:13-16), adult disciples give witness to God's love and caring will so that, in the power of the Spirit, they renew the face of the earth.

—excerpted from Our Hearts Were Burning Within Us:

A Pastoral Plan for Adult Faith Formation in the United States

WHY ME?

"Evangelizing is the Church's mission. It is not the mission of only a few, but it is mine, yours and ours... We must all be evangelizers, especially with our life!" (Pope Francis, May 22, 2013) Thus, the role of adults in the evangelizing mission of the church is critical. As Catholics we are called to respond to this mission. However, to fulfill it, most of us need to renew and deepen our understanding or our faith. Through formation, we acquire the knowledge and the confidence to fulfill the Church's mission. (Paulina Espinosa, Director of the Office of Evangelization and Adult Faith Formation, Diocese of San Bernardino, CA)

Choose one, or choose as many as you think you are interested in or can manage...BUT CHOOSE SOMETHING TO GROW IN YOUR FAITH. NOTE: Some sessions may go beyond the designated dates due to the length of the course. Some programs will be taped and placed on the social media site of our Parish. PLEASE REMEMBER this is also a TENTATIVE schedule depending on the COVID-19 situation.

THIRD FAITH SURGE: APRIL - MAY, 2021

☞ "HOW TO DRAW A LOVED ONE BACK TO THE CHURCH " with Thom Shanaver and members of the evangelization committee. We all have loved ones who are not practicing their Catholic Faith. Join us as together, with the help of the Holy Spirit, we develop a step by step plan to bring those loved ones back home to the Catholic Church. (session dates TBD). Register now by emailing Thom Shanaver at DiscoveringChrist@olow.org Subject Line "Draw Them Back". (Based on the amount of participants interested multiple sessions will be offered.)

☞ "A WALK THROUGH THE CHURCH" with Pat Butler Have you ever wondered what are the names of some of the items in the church or their history? Walk with me to discover what you may have known but forgotten. Or did not know at all. After the 4 pm Mass on April 17, 2021 and after the 9 am and 11 am Masses on April 18, 2021.

☞ "THE WHY COURSE" Led by Fr. Bob. Series includes three engaging, thought provoking 25 minute episodes looking at some of the most important and intriguing questions human beings have ever asked, and explores one of the three vital questions the course is built on: "Why God?", "Why Christ?" and "Why the Church?" The beautifully shot film uses some of the world's most beautiful art and nature scenes to produce an exciting and entertaining presentation featuring Catholic leaders, priests and teachers. The third episode "Why the Church" will be offered twice in April: Friday, April 16th from 11 am until 12 noon in the social hall (up to 15 people, socially distanced with masks and hand sanitizer and wipes available) and on Friday, April 23rd from 3 pm until 4 pm in the social hall (up to 15 people, socially distanced with masks and hand sanitizer and wipes available). Please register by April 13th for the April 16th class, and register by April 20th for the April 23rd class. Register by emailing Fr. Bob at frbob@olow.org
