PENTECOST SUNDAY

We, the Roman Catholic faith community of Our Lady of the Woods, in communion with ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC, and APOSTOLIC Church and under the patronage of Mary, are joined together as a people of God. Our mission is to spread the Gospel and bring people into a relationship with God and one another through the celebration of the Sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist. We live out Christ's mission in the world through evangelization, worship, education, stewardship, and service to the needy.

you soon.

Are you an adult baptized Catholic who, for whatever reason, has not received First Communion and/or Confirmation? If you would like to receive these sacraments, I can help you. My name is Pat Butler. I am the RCIA coordinator (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults — or how adults become full members in the Catholic Church). I would like you to get in touch with me so we can get to know each other and I can answer any questions you might have. After you talk to me, it is your decision whether or not you want to continue. Just email me at pbutler@olow.org. Hope to hear from

From Our Hood in the Woods

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!! Today is the birthday of our church! The Holy Spirit breathed forth life birthing our church giving Mary and the Apostles the courage to go forth and proclaim the Good News!

How do you imagine or experience the Holy Spirit in your faith life?

Some people imagine the Holy Spirit as a dove...others the Wind...and yet others a blazing tongue of fire. Each represents certain attributes that we encounter when we open our hearts to the third person of the Blessed Trinity called the "Paraclete"... "The Advocate"...in earlier times "Holy Ghost"... and in these more modern times, "Holy Spirit."

Hilary Ann Golden in her post, "Chasing The Wild Goose: A Pentecost Adventure" writes:

"Celtic Christians, on the other hand, chose the Wild Goose as a way to talk about the Spirit. Celtic Christians often forged their symbols out of the ordinary, daily things of the earth that they saw in front of them. For them, the untamed, uncontrollable, erratic nature of the Wild Goose more closely characterized the movement of the Spirit than did a peaceful, tranquil Dove. A Wild Goose is always on the move, always doing unexpected things; it is loud, passionate, sometimes frightening, and certainly unsettling. This has been more like my experience of the Spirit than the peaceful, tranquil Dove.

*"A Wild Goose is always on the move, always doing unexpected things;
it is loud, passionate, sometimes frightening, and certainly unsettling."*

"The Wild Goose," © 2013 Hilary Ann Golden

And so we return to the story of Pentecost. As I consider the events of that day, I see congruence between the story and this Celtic understanding of the Spirit as a Wild Goose. I imagine the people crowding together, attempting to come close and striving to "touch" the Wild Goose, only to find that in a "rush" and a "violent wind," the Spirit had already swept through and left a beautiful, chaotic mess. I love one of the last verses in the story, which says, "Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, 'What does this mean?'"

This story encourages us to expect that God will do the unexpected. It reminds us of the surprise, bewilderment, and astonishment that rattles our bones when the Spirit of God has descended upon us. And I love the way the Wild Goose image of the Spirit of God draws us into community and relationship. By creating a holy mess of confusion, the Spirit leaves us with two choices: give up and remain confused, or work together to find meaning.

And so, on this our birthday, the Feast of Pentecost we feel the presence of the Holy Spirit in a poem from Sister Joan Chittister as she writes:

"May the Gifts of the Holy Spirit bring fire to the earth so that the presence of God may be seen in a new light, in new places, in new ways.

May our own hearts burst into flame so that no obstacle, no matter how great, ever obstructs the message of the God within each of us.

May we come to trust the Word of God in our heart, to speak it with courage, to follow it faithfully and to fan it to flame in others.

Give me, Great God, a sense of the Breath of Spirit within me as I..."

- ☒ from the first reading of Acts...allow the Spirit to enable me to proclaim...
- ☒ from the second reading of Galatians...know the fruits of the Spirit to live in the Spirit that I may follow the Spirit...

 and from the gospel of John...guide me to all truth.

And so on this our birthday, let us live, rejoice and celebrate the Holy Spirit, who some call the Wild Goose by allowing ourselves to be a holy mess of confusion the Spirit has created, and deciding whether we will give up and remain confused, or work together to find meaning.

And maybe the next time you feel you have set out on a “wild goose chase,” it might not be you who is chasing the goose, but the “goose” who is chasing you!

Come, Holy Spirit...“honk” away Wild Goose!

In the Word,
Fr. Bob

Fuel the Mission CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL 2021 / 2022

Our Catholic Services Appeal funds more than 170 ministries, programs, and services that ensure we Fuel the Mission to witness Christ. We are asking all parishioners to contribute to this year's Catholic Services Appeal. We invite all parishioners to reflect on God's blessings in their lives and make a pledge to our 2021/2022 CSA as Christ's disciples. If we all give, we will easily meet Our lady of the Woods 2021/2022 CSA target of $70,668, which is our parish's share of the support for the more than 170 CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services. Any gifts we receive over our target will be returned to our parish in full. If, however, we do not meet this target, we will have to make up the shortfall from our general fund.

Please mail your pledge in the pre-addressed envelope that was mailed to you by the Archdiocese. You may also pledge your gift to our parish's CSA campaign online, using your debit or credit card, at givecsa.org.

Bible Study

Come One, Come All to Turning Point Bible Study, where you will be introduced to people and stories in the Gospel of John that you won't find anywhere else in the Bible. So Grab a snack, Sit back and Kick your feet up. We will meet on Wednesdays from 6 - 7:30 pm beginning June 16 and ending August 18. (NO SESSION THE WEEK OF JULY 4TH.)

If interested contact Claudette Wagner at cwagner@olow.org or 734-671-5101 ext. 106 by Wednesday, June 2nd.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - YOU DON'T HAVE WHAT IT TAKES — BUT YOU WILL

Those of us in ministry love this saying: God doesn't call the equipped. He equips the called.

We all know that sort of queasy feeling we get in the pit of our stomachs when it becomes clear what we're supposed to do, in any situation. It's that feeling of: Oh, no. Not me. Not now. I can't.

We've all got our list of reasons why not, don't we? We do it for everything, from big life problems to small everyday choices. I'm not going to invite my neighbor to church because I don't want to come across as pushy. I'm not going to make amends with my cousin because she'll just walk all over me again. I'm not going to say a Rosary tonight because I'm tired and it'll just stress me out.

However, even if we all put our lists of "reasons why we can't" together, I don't think any of us have reasons quite as valid as the apostles. Their job was to convert the nations — and here they are, a bunch of fishermen who haven't been out of Judea, who speak only their own languages. Were they supposed to preach the Gospel via a particularly compelling game of charades?

But even that big, giant, stop-you-dead-in-your-tracks Reason Why We Can't was nothing, because God had a plan. He didn't call a bunch of equipped men. He called them, and He equipped them. Cue the tongues of fire!

God doesn't call us to do His will because we have what it takes. He calls us because He's ready to give us what it takes. Being a good steward is to answer the call of Christ knowing he will provide.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LIVE THE LITURGY

The phrase "being filled with the Holy Spirit" may summon forth images that are a bit too intense for some folks. They may conclude that when one is filled with the Holy Spirit that they immediately begin speaking in tongues, loudly praise God, sing alleluia from roof tops, and do other demonstrative things. In reality, being filled with the Holy Spirit means being filled with the fullness of God's life and in touch with the power and wonder of God's presence. It is the Holy Spirit that draws us together as a community of faith, inspires us with wisdom and right judgment, and turns us from the darkness of sin to the virtues that bring life. We live in a world where it is hard to discover truth. The Holy Spirit, through the ministry of the church, guides us to truth and shows us the way to be the graced human beings God made us to be. Come, Holy Spirit, and fill our hearts!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Question:

Why are Catholic and Protestant Bibles different?

Answer:

Since the earliest days of the Church, Christians used a Greek translation of the Old Testament known as the Septuagint. This collection of the texts of the Hebrew Scriptures included 46 books. At the time of the Protestant Reformation in the 1500s, the Protestant reformers began to create their own translations of the Bible (into local languages) and some began to question why the Jewish Scriptures would have included texts that were written in Greek, because, they assumed, the only valid Jewish Scriptures would have been written in Hebrew. And so, they decided to remove seven books from the Old Testament: Baruch, Sirach, 1 and 2 Maccabees, Tobit, Judith and Wisdom (as well as portions of the Books of Daniel and Esther). This means that the Protestant Old Testament only includes 39 books, while Catholic Bibles continue to include those original 46 books. Both Catholic and Protestant Bibles include 27 books and letters in the New Testament.

Reflections On Scripture

GOSPEL READING

Begin by taking a moment to calm yourself, focus on your breathing and become aware of the life force that flows through your veins. Center yourself in the words and affections of St. Augustine's Prayer to the Holy Spirit, "Breath in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy. Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy. Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy. Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy." Sanctifying, bringing things to wholeness, blessing, restoring and creating are just some of the fruits of the presence of the Holy Spirit. Being filled with the Holy Spirit is not always about proclaiming loud cries of praise or singing alleluia from a roof top. It is about unfolding and encountering the ordinary in an extraordinary way. Being filled with the Holy Spirit means being filled with the fullness of God's life and in touch with the power and wonder of God's presence. It's about becoming holy.

It is not just for saints or people who have a religious vocation. Holiness is for the ordinary, simple run-of-the-mill person who desires to love God, others, and all of creation. When an ordinary, humble person becomes connected with life and the wondrous power of God's love, they begin to live life more deeply, a bit more reverently, desire a simple fare and find themselves relishing in ordinary beauty. Their senses become attuned to the Author of life and they realize that they are not alone. The Holy Spirit connects all of the dots of human experience and existence, bringing everyone to center on the Divine Presence. The Holy Spirit does not just breathe "on me" but "in me" and is the force behind every breath I take. Take a moment to soak that thought in. There is the Divine Presence of the Holy Spirit in me, right now. When a person becomes in touch with truth, they know that when inspired by the Holy Spirit, his or her actions are not solely their own. They realize that they are moved by Divine Grace and drawn to things not found in secular affairs.

We live in a world where it is hard to discover truth. Real truth is veiled by so many imitators that it is hard to find, especially for those who are young. It is easy to get fooled and duped and often, without full conscious awareness of doing so, we choose to walk down a path of self-absorption and destruction. It is only the Holy Spirit, through the ministry of the church most especially, who guides us to truth and shows us the way to be the graced and holy human beings God made us to be. The wonders and inspirations of today's Feast of Pentecost are necessary to share with both those we love and those who only casually cross our paths. The first disciples, touched by the Holy Spirit, brought the Gospel to the ends of the earth one step at a time. Is it unrealistic to ask that we assist in that same mission by helping people understand who they are and who God is one at a time? Ask the Holy Spirit to alleviate the fear in your heart that prevents you from doing so.

Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!

Come, Father of the poor!
Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine.

You, of comforters the best;
You, the soul's most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below;

In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.

O most blessed Light divine,
Shine within these hearts of yours,
And our inmost being fill!

Where you are not, we have naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour your dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:

Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.

On the faithful, who adore
And confess you, evermore
In your sevenfold gift descend;

Give them virtue's sure reward;
Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end. Amen.
Alleluia.

Registration information has been mailed to registered families in the parish with children ages 4 - 13. You should receive it by the week of May 24th - May 28th. If you do not receive a packet and wish to register please call the Faith Formation office (734-671-5101 ext 110) requesting a packet be mailed.

A Message from the Food Pantry

The OLOW St Vincent de Paul Food Pantry once again thanks our parishioners for their generous donations. Many parishioners have asked what items we are most in need of. Currently we are running low on the following,

- Pasta/ Spaghetti sauce
- Ramen Noodles
- Toilet Paper

Thank you for your continued support!

Respect Life: Prayer & Action

PRAY

Our Father, 3 Hail Mary's, & Glory Be

REFLECT

This month the Church celebrates the meeting of Mary and Elizabeth—and the infants in their wombs—in the Feast of the Visitation. The Gospel tells us that not only is Elizabeth overcome with joy at Mary's greeting, but the unborn John the Baptist actually leaps for joy within her womb. Filled with the Holy Spirit, Elizabeth immediately recognizes the presence of the Lord concealed within his mother, as she cries out with the familiar words, "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb" (Lk 1:42). It is the same presence that leads the unborn John to leap for joy.

This miraculous encounter beckons us to recognize the undeniable humanity of the infants hidden within the wombs of Mary and Elizabeth. Scripture also tells us that, following the Annunciation, Mary set out for the hill country in haste to visit Elizabeth, who is already six months pregnant. At the time of Mary's arrival, she would have been in the earliest stages of her pregnancy, yet Christ was already fully present and incarnate. Both Mary and Elizabeth place their trust in the Lord, and in doing so, bear life into the world. As we also celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost this month, we pray that hearts will be opened to recognize the humanity of children in the womb. We also pray in thanksgiving for all mothers who give their own "yes" to God's gift of human life

ACT (CHOOSE ONE.)

- In preparation for the Feast of the Visitation, join Catholics nationwide in praying A Novena for Life from May 22-30. (Sign up to receive the daily prayers at respectlife.org/visitation.)
- Read and meditate on the Gospel account of the Visitation (Lk 1:39-56). Ask the Lord how you can help witness to the humanity of children in the womb.
- Offer some other sacrifice or prayer that you feel called to do for this month's intention.

ONE STEP FURTHER

Invite friends and family to join in praying the novena in honor of the Visitation by sharing this signup link: respectlife.org/visitation.
