From the Pastor's Desk

Happy New Year St. Ann Parish,

I hope you are all doing well and that you had a joy filled Christmas. I know this past year has been a year filled with many joys, but also with many sorrows. Yet despite these challenges, our parish has stepped forward to help comfort and support each other. Through your generosity, we installed a new floor in the social hall, expanded a sidewalk to allow Heritage Place residents easier and safer access to our church, installed a plaque commemorating the founding of St. Ann parish and helped numerous social outreach programs like Catholic Charities, Soldier's Angels Stockings for Heroes and many others. All these things are true signs of a parish that loves God and loves their neighbor. This unity is something that the apostles strived to foster in their early faith communities. We should be proud of God's work in our community.

During this new year, let's continue to share our joys and comfort one another in our sorrows as the new year, 2022 unfolds. Let us continue to keep our eyes on God and strive this year to come closer to Him who loves each of us, more than we can comprehend. In this new year we should determine to raise up each other, our community and our country in our prayers.

God Bless,

Fr. Mike

FOR REFLECTION

"Very often, each one of us look inside, when we are working on something and when we finish, immediately we look for our telephone to make another call... we are always like this. And this does not help, this makes us slip into superficiality. Profoundness of the heart grows with silence, silence that is not mutism..., but which leaves space for wisdom, reflection and the Holy Spirit. We are afraid of moments of silence. Let us not be afraid! It will do us good. And the benefit to our hearts will also heal our tongue, our words and above all our choices... Silence, speaking in the right way, and biting your tongue a little, which can be good at times instead of saying foolish things."
