The Church in Latin America

This weekend we take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America! Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean do not have access to church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, rugged rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity enables our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous in the special collection! To learn more, please visit: www.usccb.org/latin-america.

. FAITH NOTES: SEASON 2 JANUARY 25, 2022

Faith Notes is a gathering on Zoom to listen to a topic related to spirituality, theology or life followed by an opportunity to engage in group conversation or Q & A. Time: Tuesdays 6:30 pm – 8 pm. All are welcome but a Zoom ID and Password are needed and can be obtained by emailing Fr. Dave Noone at aotearoa3@hotmail.com. The presentation this week: "SOUL SEARCHING" will offer a summary of the research conducted over a seven-year period by Drs. Christian Smith and Melinda on the inner religious faith of young Americans. The presentation will feature interviews with the researchers, youth pastors, and teenagers from around the country and summarizes what youth today really think about God and religion, what their hopes and aspirations are, and what the research says about the effects of religion in their lives.

FOR REFLECTION

January 22, 2022

Dear Christian,

I was very much looking forward to my life in this world.

I wanted to play with dolls, receive Jesus in Holy Communion, ride a bike, and learn to read.

I looked forward to Christmas, with the shepherds, the Angels, and stars in the night sky.

I'm very sad. I never got to do any of these things. My parents did not let me be born.

But I just don't understand one thing – why didn't any of you help me? I wish you had.

Nobody heard my crying voice.

From,

An unborn baby

USCCB on Chemical Abortion Pill 2022

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) recently announced that they will clear a path for the chemical abortion drug mifepristone to be dispensed by clinics, medical offices, and hospitals through the use of online pharmacies or drug delivery services.

In response, Archbishops William E. Lori, issued the following statement:

“Every life is sacred: the lives of mothers and the lives of the unborn. Not only does this decision further the tragic taking of unborn lives but it does little to care for the well-being of women in need. Far from the accompaniment that women in crisis pregnancies deserve, this decision would leave women alone in the midst of trauma, often without any medical attention or follow-up care.

One of the essential tasks of governments is to safeguard the health and well-being of citizens. As such, the FDA ought to act to protect the lives and health of mothers and children, rather than merely succumbing to the abortion industry’s pressure to loosen safety standards.

I call on leaders of every level of government to stand with women in need by promoting policies that recognize the value and dignity of both mother and child, rather than further promoting the devastating tragedy of abortion.”

“The Holy Family of holy cards does not exist... Every day, families have to learn to listen and understand one another, to walk together, to face conflicts and difficulties. It is a daily challenge and it is overcome with the right attitude, through simple actions, simple gestures, caring for the details of our relationships... Let us convert ourselves from “I” to “you”. What must be most important in a family is “you”. And please, each day, let us pray a little bit together — if you can make the effort — to ask God for the gift of peace in the family.”

Pope Francis

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor... and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord."

- Lk 4:18a, 19
