FAITH NOTES: SEASON 2 FERUARY 1, 2022: "SEARCH"

Faith Notes is a gathering on Zoom to listen to a topic related to spirituality, theology or life followed by an opportunity to engage in group conversation or Q & A. Time: Tuesdays 6:30 pm – 8 pm. This week's topic, "Search". will be a follow up to last week's "Soul Searching".

"Search" is peer-led weekend retreat experience that seeks to foster community, curiosity, discovery and trust among young people in grades 10-12 and their Catholic Faith. Youth decide to participate in Search for various reasons, some out of curiosity or to experience something different, others to spend time with their friends or to meet other Catholics their own age. Some come to Search with a strong faith while others come with many faith questions. Our special guest will be Monique Wertis who, with her husband, oversee the Search program in Diocese of Raleigh. One or two former "searchers" may join her. The 196th Search Weekend in the Diocese of Raleigh will be held over Palm Sunday weekend this coming April. All are welcome. If you haven't participated before but would like to, email Fr. Dave Noone @ aotea-roa3@hotmail.com for the Zoom ID and Password.

Dear St. Ann Community,

We would like to say thank you to all who participate in our 2021 Advent raffle. The raffle raised over $2,000 for our youth group end of year trip. Thank you so much!!! Sincerely in Christ,

St. Ann Youth Group (Living Waters)

USCCB on Immigration Reform 2022

As another year concluded without meaningful immigration reform, Bishop Mario E. Dorsonville issued the following statement:

“As an essential component of any immigration reform, we have long urged Congress and the President to work together to enact legislation that provides permanent protections—including a pathway to citizenship—for our undocumented brothers and sisters. There is strong support among the American people for congressional action on immigration. Meanwhile, the inability of political leaders to come together and reach consensus on positive, forward-looking legislation has grave consequences for human lives and the wellbeing of this country.

While the road ahead is uncertain, the present reality remains clear: the status quo cannot stand. Almost half of the 11 million undocumented persons living in the United States today have lived here for at least 15 years. Many others are receiving temporary protections but lack access to permanent solutions. They are mothers, daughters, fathers, and sons. They are essential workers, homeowners, and entrepreneurs. Most importantly, they are persons created equally in God’s image, imbued with a potential far beyond the limits of their current immigration status.

In the year ahead, we will continue to pray for and work toward a solution that provides immediate relief to the undocumented members of our society. We maintain our longstanding call for Congress to work on a bipartisan basis to promote the full integration of undocumented persons and to create a more sustainable immigration system, consistent with the common good. During this new year of anticipation and longing, let us go forth with renewed hope, and may Our Lady of Guadalupe, mother to all, inspire universal devotion to this fraternal cause.”

Volunteer Opportunities VITA Tax Program

Catholic Charities is working to transform the Fayetteville regional office to improve the services to help the most needed in our community. However, this transformation needs the great help of volunteers. Volunteers play a very important role in the services that Catholic Charities provide.
