GOSPEL REFLECTION

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

If I only knew then what I know now, how different life would be. This sentiment, expressed in myriad ways, is found on every human being's lips at one point or another. Life may have brought us to a vulnerable place where we see some of the poor choices we made and the effects they are having. Perhaps we fell into some destructive and dysfunctional relationships or behaviors and are finding how they held us captive. Our zeal and passion for life may have drifted away and we are waking up to the reasons apathy has taken hold. Life can be hard. In fact, some would describe their lives as a drudgery. They walk through each day with an anxious unsettledness, wondering when their restlessness will cease. There is a temptation to believe that what I see is all I will get. Mortality and hopelessness await the dawn. If I could only have known what would come in the future, I could have made better choices and avoided all of this misery!

Really? While we can certainly give into weakness, sin, impulsiveness, and idiosyncrasies that cause us to stumble over ourselves, life is really a journey. If we don't make the mistake of wallowing in the mire of self-pity and realize the new life God is calling us to, then there are thrills, adventures, surprises, and soul-searching graces we can surely miss. We are not tethered to our past nor are we bound to the ills life can bring upon us. We are never hopeless or helpless. The problem is that our myopic vision only allows us to see the misery and misfortune that is before us, not the potential that can come from choosing healthier and more life-giving options. Jesus came that we might have fullness of life. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let Him help us to our feet.

We need to allow God into our pain and heal our past. We have to wrestle with our histories, agonize and search and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. Job could not see how his story would end or trust the guidance of the God who called him. We live in that same blindness and suffer from the same lack of confidence. Once we allow ourselves to be touched by God's healing power, we begin to see that all of the pieces of our lives are necessary parts of a greater whole. Along the way of our lives, God uses our omissions and failures to create new things and possibilities. When doors close, others open and we can be amazed by the joyful and unexpected surprises we receive. Once we know the power of God's creative, healing, life-giving, forgiving, and dynamic presence, it is no wonder we want to put ourselves at the service of others and show them what life can be. © LPi

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tabernacle Memorial Flowers

The flowers near the tabernacle were donated in memory of Lester (5th Ann.) and Brent Champagne by wife and mother Irene Champagne. Our church office staff is still accepting donations for flower arrangements near the tabernacle for 2021.

ATTENTION Virtual Families: Virtual Courses are Available!

Our church parish is associated with My Catholic Faith Delivered, an on-line platform which offers individually-paced, catechetical courses for students of all ages (including adults). Families who are not yet ready to enroll their children in our on-site elementary, middle school, or high school classes may prefer to enroll their children in age-appropriate, grade-level virtual courses ranging from elementary to high school. Parents should contact Mrs. Frances at the church office to discuss this option, especially if they would like to associate this option as part of their children's religious education journey here at Our Lady of Lourdes. Adults who are interested in signing up for their own individual course(s) (or sign up their children without any direct association to our church parish) may view available course titles and purchase "seats" in courses at:

www.mycatholicfaithdelivered.com/home.aspx

NOTES:

- Each course for elementary, middle school, and high school grade levels is reasonably priced. Year-long subscriptions to adult courses seem to vary in price due to the number of components in each course.
- If/When we have enough participation in a particular grade level, we would be able to assign students to local teachers who would accompany them through their course work. Until we get to that point, individual students simply work at their own pace and contact Mrs. Frances (who does occasionally monitor their progress and quiz grades) when a question/concern arises.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

You are invited to participate in this year's Eucharistic Procession
honoring
Our Lady of Lourdes!

Shorter route than usual.
12:00 Noon on February 14
(instead of in the evening).

Don't miss this memorable celebration!

- Hear the story of Our Lady's apparitions to young Bernadette Soubirous!
- Prayers, hymns, and/or a few minutes of Adoration will be offered on the route.
- Please wear comfortable shoes and modest clothing.
- Donations will be accepted to defray the cost of the lanterns and candles.
- "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world." ~ John 1:29

"I do not promise to make you happy in this world, but in the other."

Our Lady of Lourdes's words spoken to Bernadette Soubirous (and to us)!

Do you have a desire to help those who are grieving?

Fr. Metrejean is considering the possibility of organizing a Grief Support Group here in our church parish. Parishioners who may be interested in serving as a facilitator for this type of ministry are encouraged to contact our church parish office at 937-6888.

Once we are able to secure a facilitator (or two), we will set up a Flocknote group to assist in communications and will request contact information for parishioners who would like to become members of the group. Please join us in praying for the success of this ministry!

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Although we use this prayer most often when we view a televised or online video of a Mass, we may also choose to pray this prayer when we attend Mass, but don't feel worthy of receiving Holy Communion because we haven't been to a recent Confession. Please note, too, that, according to the quotation from St. Leonard, if we whole-heartedly offer this prayer several times each day, we can expect to be transformed!

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot, now, receive you sacramentally, come, at least, spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you have already come and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

— St. Alphonsus Liguori

"If you practice the holy exercise of Spiritual Communion a good many times each day, within a month, you will see yourself completely changed." — St. Leonard of Port Maurice

VOCATIONS PRAYER

God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ.

We ask that You inspire young people whom You call to the priesthood and consecrated life from Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Erath to courageously follow Your will.

Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the Sacraments.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Update Regarding Text Messages Sent to Fr. Metrejean:

At the present time, Fr. Metrejean attempts to divide his time between celebrating Masses (including weddings and funerals), teaching classes, bringing Holy Communion to homebound parishioners, administering the Anointing of the Sick whenever he is called to do so, and keeping in touch with parishioners who text or email him. Lately, he has been receiving an abundance of text messages and has decided that, at times, he needs to distance himself from text messages (except for dire emergencies—Anointing of the Sick, etc.). As a result, on occasion, he will activate an automatic reply app: “I will be away from my phone texts for a while. I will respond to your message tomorrow. If this is an emergency, please call 337-306-2955.”

BISHOP’S SERVICES APPEAL

This year, at a time of extraordinary challenge, we may perceive longing in the eyes of many around us. It is the expectant hope expressed by a blind man named Bartimaeus, unable even to see Jesus as the Savior, but calling out to Him for healing nonetheless. Responding to the man’s cry, Jesus asked a question filled with meaning for us, “What do you want me to do for you?” The man replied simply, “Master, I want to see” (Mark 10:51).

Our concerns may be equally clear, but the Lord invites us also to acknowledge them and to confess our dependence on His touch so that we, too, may “see” those around us. The theme of our 2021 Bishop’s Services Appeal—Bringing Hope and Healing—uses the image of Bartimaeus to remind us to extend the hope of Christ to others to bring more healing light into the world. Please prayerfully consider pledging your support to the 2021 Appeal.

Please make checks payable to the Bishop’s Services Appeal. Seal cash or check donation in a BSA envelope.

Place BSA envelope in any weekend collection this weekend or mail it directly to:

ASH WEDNESDAY UPDATE IN TIME OF PANDEMIC

The Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments has directed that the following adaptations be made to celebrations of Ash Wednesday this year:

Prot. N. 17/21

NOTE ON ASH WEDNESDAY Distributions of Ashes in Time of Pandemic

The Priest says the prayer for blessing the ashes. He sprinkles the ashes with holy water, without saying anything. Then he addresses all those present and only once says the formulas as it appears in the Roman Missal, applying it to all in general: “Repent, and believe in the Gospel”, or “Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return”.

The Priest then cleanses his hands, puts on a face mask and distributes the ashes to those who come to him or, if appropriate, he goes to those who are standing in their places. The Priest takes the ashes and sprinkles them on the head of each one without saying anything.

From the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, 12 January 2021.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

Have you ever wondered what life would be like if you could see the future and know how things turn out? While it’s intriguing to ponder what life would be like if we possessed this knowledge, actually knowing could easily rob us of the thrill, adventure, and soul-searching graces of our journey. Like Job, life does not always leave us on a happy note. Life experience can bring us face-to-face with our mortality and leave us with a profound sense of helplessness. We do not see the wholeness and fulfillment that will one day come and cannot grasp the certainty that a resolution to our plight will come our way. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus’ hand and let Him help us to our feet. Living a life of faith means realizing that we are not here to figure out life on our own. In order to drink deeply of what life presents us, we have to wrestle in the depths of our souls, agonize and search, possibly reach the lowest point of desperation, and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. It is no wonder that those who are touched by God’s healing power want to then serve others and show them the deeper waters that can be explored. Knowing too much can rob us of joyful surprises.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments:

THE AUDACITY OF HOLINESS

Do you know a holy person? I'm not talking about piety — that's important, too, in its own way. But right now, I'm speaking of holiness.

St. Therese of Lisieux called holiness "a disposition of the heart that makes us humble and little in the arms of God, aware of our weakness, and confident — in the most audacious way — in His Fatherly goodness."

The holy person sees a storm on the horizon of life and, rather than give themselves over to fear and despair (natural and understandable reactions), regards the gathering winds as an opportunity to rely more fully on God. The holy person takes a bad situation and sanctifies it with charity and understanding that defies our fallen human nature.

Peter's mother-in-law was still in the throes of a fever when Jesus grasped her hand. It wasn't until she took his hand and allowed Him to help her up that "the fever left her and she waited on them." Before the fever could leave her, she had to commit to holiness — to put her trust in him in a most audacious way. She had to find it within herself to lift her weakened hand to grasp His — and as soon as she did, she was rewarded. Her bodily health restored, she gave thanks, and attended to His needs.

God's hand is always outstretched to us. Will we take it, even if the fever of sin and pride and worldly concerns rages in our souls? Will we muster the strength? Will we be audacious enough to have confidence in His Fatherly goodness?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
