WASHINGTON—Pope Francis has accepted the resignation of Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M., Cap., from the pastoral governance of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and has named Bishop Nelson J. Pérez of Cleveland... to succeed him.

The resignation and appointment were publicized in Washington on January 23, 2020 by Archbishop Christophe Pierre, apostolic nuncio to the United States.

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia is comprised of 2,202 square miles in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and has a total population of 4,119,268 of which 1,292,704 are Catholic.
Sunday of the Word of God: making the Scriptures part of our everyday lives

Pope Francis is inviting Catholics across the world to deepen their appreciation, love and faithful witness to God and his Word.

That’s why, as established by a papal decree - the third Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 26 this year, is to be observed as a special day devoted to “the celebration, study and dissemination of the Word of God”.

As Archbishop Salvatore Fisichella, President of the Pontifical Council for Promoting New Evangelization explained during a press conference on Friday, it is an initiative that the Pope has entrusted to the whole Church so that "the Christian community may concentrate on the great value that the Word of God occupies in its daily existence" (Aperuit illis 2).

An opportunity to renew commitment and understanding
Fisichella said the occasion offers Christians an opportunity to renew their commitment and understanding of “the inexhaustible richness that comes from God's constant dialogue with his people.”

He said it foresees a host of creative initiatives “that will stimulate believers to be living instruments of transmission of the Word,” and comes in the wake of the many different pastoral initiatives spurred by the 2008 Synod on the Word of God that aimed to increase and enhance the knowledge, diffusion, reflection and study of Sacred Scripture.

Ecumenical value
He underlined the great ecumenical value that this Sunday possesses as it falls close to the Day of Dialogue between Jews and Catholics and the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

As with other initiatives of the Pontifical Council for Promoting New Evangelization, Fisichella said this too has a characteristic logo that is immediately identifiable and may provide inspiration for a catechesis that helps to understand the meaning of the celebration of this Sunday.

Vatican II Lectionary to be enthroned
Noting that Pope Francis will celebrate Holy Mass on Sunday of the Word of God, he revealed that at the beginning of the Liturgy “there will be the solemn enthronement of the Lectionary that was used in all the sessions of the Second Vatican Council.”

At the conclusion of the Eucharistic celebration, he said that in a symbolic gesture the Pope will give a Bible to 40 people representing “different expressions” of our daily life: “from the bishop to the foreigner, from the priest to the catechist, from the consecrated person to the policeman, from the Ambassadors of various continents to teachers of all grades, from the poor to journalists, from the ‘Gendarme’ to the prisoner serving a life sentence”.

A representative of the Orthodox Churches and of Evangelical Communities will also receive a Bible from the Pope.

“This Sunday, he wants to stimulate all Christians not just to place the Bible on the shelf as one of many books, perhaps filled with dust, but as an instrument that awakens our faith.”
CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

January 26 – January 31

Saint Stanislaus School embraces the belief that knowing Christ develops students of goodness, discipline, and knowledge. Ours is an environment of diversity, self-discipline, and joy where we celebrate the many abilities, races, creeds, and talents of our students. Our students are challenged every day to know Christ and to do their personal best. Join us as we celebrate the way Saint Stanislaus School develops children who are true servants of God.

Monday, January 27
Parish Day!
All School Mass 8:30 a.m. Join us as we celebrate the liturgy with our parish community and friends.

Infants and Toddlers of Slavic Village

How much do your donations mean to the Ozanam Center and the families that come to them for assistance? More than you can imagine! Because of your generosity 150 jars of peanut butter were delivered to the Center this week! They are ALWAYS in need of these basic items: peanut butter, jelly, tuna, canned pastas, mac' cheese, cereals, soups, noodles, etc. Please help our neighbor's in need...what you give will be returned to you a hundred times over in God's loving care. Thank you! A can of tuna is 89 cents at Marc's...can you spare a couple cans to help a needy family? Marie Busch

BASKET RAFFLES TO HELP FUND OUR DIVINE MERCY SHRINE

The basic structure of the shrine has now been installed! Many additional decorative applications exist in the woodcarver’s atelier along with some pieces still to be carved. The paintings have been commissioned (The central panel featuring the Divine Mercy image, the right panel that of St. John Paul, the left panel of St. Faustina). Once they arrive the scaffolding will be put back into place and the altar will be completed. The time frame will be determined by the artist painting the triptych. We all look forward to its completion!!

Want to become a patron of one of the three paintings? Please contact the parish office for details. Your donation to this cause will be most appreciated.
