LECTIO DIVINA FOR NEXT WEEKEND

Abraham is asked to sacrifice what he loves most, his son, to prove his love for God above all things. God sacrificed his only begotten Son, Jesus, for love of us to prove his love for us. Jesus is transfigured before some of his close apostles as he reveals his glory to help them deal with the sacrifice of his cross.

- What does God ask you to sacrifice this Lent?
- What glory have you experienced in crosses you have carried?

PASTOR'S COLUMN

NEW WINDOWS INSTALLED

New saint windows have been installed in our church. Several months ago, we had our first installment of saint windows including: St. Patrick, Sts. Louis and Zellie Martin, and Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati. Added to them are: St. Therese of Lisieux, Sts. Monica and Augustine, and Sts. Clare and Francis of Assisi.

SAINTS MONICA AND AUGUSTINE

Monica and Augustine are mother and son. Monica found in the Catholic faith everything that young Augustine could not grasp. In his youth, he was intelligent and skilled as an orator and lawyer. He thought he could find fulfillment in physical pleasure and the accolades of others. All of that became unfulfilling for him, as he found his life being far removed from truth and beauty. All the while, in his waywardness, his mother Monica prayed unfailingly for him. She shed countless tears over his self-destruction, and she took her broken heart to God as her son floundered and failed in the culture of his times. Finally, Augustine discovered his mother's Catholic faith. Through great mentors, like bishop, St. Anselm, and his mother's prayer, he was baptized and became an advocate for the faith. He eventually was ordained to the priesthood and became a bishop.

St. Monica prays with us now in our community as a mother's voice to God for her child who is worse than physically lost. Her son, Augustine, was lost spiritually. She pleaded to God to intervene in her son's life. Even though Augustine dismissed her as being irrelevant and overly pious. God intervened and prayers were answered. Augustine's life was turned around, and what was once lost, was finally found. He used his gifts of communication and his intellectual skills to convey to all, the beauty and truth of our Catholic faith. The two of them stand as a witness that we too, cannot give up on our wayward children, especially those, who for now, seem spiritually lost.

SAINTS FRANCIS AND CLARE

Clare and Francis of Assisi were friends, spiritual friends, who sought the same goal – God. Both grew up in the town of Assisi, Italy. Both were of the upper class society. In his younger days Francis had his priorities set on wealth and fame and on increasing his family's popularity and rising in the ranks of prestige. Clare's younger days were spent in prayer, living in the shadow of social convention which would dictate, eventually, marriage. From her family's expectation her marriage would solidify themselves in the noble class, since her husband-to-be would be chosen from the upper class of their society.

Francis was the first to undergo conversion and change. A failure at being a knight and sent home in sickness and labeled a deserter bringing his family shame, he heard instead the voice of God calling him to defend another kingdom, the Kingdom of God. This is when Clare noticed him and his heart's change. Walking away from family expectation and social convention and under protest from her family, she joined Francis in his call to follow Christ. Both Francis and Clare founded religious communities that radically followed the Gospel call of poverty, chastity, and obedience. Their spiritual friendship began a renewal in the life of the Church. In our window, Francis is shown with the stigmata, he bore on his body, the actual marks of Christ on the cross. Clare is shown with a monstrance that contains the Eucharist. She held it aloft over her convent wall to scare off warring invaders. She and her nuns remained unharmed. May their spiritual friendship build up the same deep friendship in our community that can root us in the Gospel and bring us closer to God.

SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX

Strategically positioned in our church next to her parents, Sts. Louis and Zellie Martin, St. Therese was known as a spoiled child, catered to by her father and older sisters. At a very young age, she experienced the death of her mother. Into her teen years, she felt the subtle call of Christ to become a cloistered nun. She radically gave up everything to follow Christ into a life devoted to prayer. However, in her monastery she also wanted to reach out. She felt compelled to be a missionary. She wanted to bring Christ to convicts on death row. She wanted to bring Christ to foreign lands that were hostile to Christianity. Her prayers from behind monastery walls, it is reported, enlightened the lives of people far and wide. This young woman was able to fulfill her vocation and call to the life of being a missionary, while still living behind the walls of her Carmelite monastery. This is one reason that St. Therese is known as the patron saint of missionaries. May she pray with us in our community so that we do not neglect the power of prayer and the call to be missionaries in our own ways of spreading the Catholic faith and the help of God. In our window she holds nine roses, which represents each sibling in her family. Before her death she said that from her place in heaven she would do good on earth, and she would let fall a shower of roses, symbols of God's grace.

I live for Jesus Christ,
Fr. Tom

THE YEAR OF SAINT JOSEPH, 2021

Now, one hundred and fifty years after his proclamation as Patron of the Catholic Church by Blessed Pius IX (8 December 1870), I would like to share some personal reflections on this extraordinary figure, so close to our own human experience. For, as Jesus says, "out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks" (Mt 12:34). My desire to do so increased during these months of pandemic, when we experienced, amid the crisis, how "our lives are woven together and sustained by ordinary people, people often overlooked. People who do not appear in newspaper and magazine headlines, or on the latest television show, yet in these very days are surely shaping the decisive events of our history. Doctors, nurses, storekeepers and supermarket workers, cleaning personnel, caregivers, transport workers, men and women working to provide essential services and public safety, volunteers, priests, men and women religious, and so very many others. They understood that no one is saved alone... How many people daily exercise patience and offer hope, taking care to spread not panic, but shared responsibility. How many fathers, mothers, grandparents and teachers are showing our children, in small everyday ways, how to accept and deal with a crisis by adjusting their routines, looking ahead and encouraging the practice of prayer. How many are praying, making sacrifices and interceding for the good of all". Each of us can discover in Joseph – the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence – an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble. Saint Joseph reminds us that those who appear hidden or in the shadows can play an incomparable role in the history of salvation. A word of recognition and of gratitude is due to them all.

SUPPORT ST. BRENDAN SCHOOL

NAVIGATOR NEWS FROM THE SCHOOL

3rd Grade Virtual Guest Speaker – Mrs. Daisy Johnson's 3rd grade recently enjoyed a visit with virtual guest speaker Bryan Skavnak, a teacher and founder of "The Be The Nice Kid Campaign." In his presentation, he encouraged the students to be themselves and to always be kind. Mr. Skavnak talked about doing the right thing even when it's hard and including everyone even if they are different from you. Thank you to the PTU for supporting the presentation by making a donation to The Be The Nice Kid Foundation, which distributes school supplies for teachers all over the country.

4th Grade Native American Homes – The 4th graders in Mrs. Diane Thomas' Social Studies class studied Native American tribes at the beginning of this semester. To wrap up the unit, the students researched various types of Native American homes. Each 4th grader then selected a type of home about which to write a report and build a model. In their reports, the students described the homes, the tribes that built them, the areas where the tribes lived, and the lifestyles of the tribes.

1st Grade Animal Masks – Mrs. Olivia Kostecke's 1st grade students enjoyed a fun literary response activity recently. After reading "The Farmer in the Hat" by Dr. Seuss, in which the students in the story make farm animal masks, Mrs. Kostecke's students created their own unique animal masks.

3rd Annual Bowling for Biographies – The 3rd annual Bowling for Biographies competition was held in the Library at the end of January. Adapting to social distancing requirements, this year the students in grades 2nd through 8th searched for biographical facts in biographies from our library collection to earn bowling pins. At the end of the period, their homeroom teacher had the opportunity to bowl on-line (displayed for the class on the library smart board) to knock down the pins they had earned and gain bonus points for the class. This year's winner, and recipient of the St. Brendan Library Bowling for Biographies trophy, was Mrs. Sinclair's 7th grade!

CALLED FOR MORE – PARISH SURVEY

St. Brendan Parish is participating in a survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute and we need your help!

Please participate in a 10-15 minute survey online. From February 20 through March 22, the survey can be accessed at <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/dmi/survey/d908cd90pc>. The survey will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses are confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole.

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to St. Brendan Parish and our various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer. If you prefer to fill out a paper copy of the survey, they are available on the tables in the Church, in the Parish Office, and in the red book box in front of St. Brendan School. Completed paper surveys can be returned to the marked baskets on the tables in the Church or to the Parish Office no later than March 22.

Please contact Mary Oldja with any questions – sjbrendanreo@yahoo.com or 440.777.3702. Thank you for helping with this important project!
