Saint of the Week

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

10 Reasons Why Our Students Think a Catholic Education is Important:

"We gain more knowledge about things. It isn't just about religion-we talk about fun facts and things you wouldn't get to learn in other schools. I personally think it would be weird if you couldn't learn about who created the world and how." Ronald, 7th grade

"I like when we pray." Karoline, Pre-Kindergarten

"It is so much fun learning different things especially learning about God and Jesus." Madeline, Kindergarten

"I'm glad we go to church and talk to God. And I love doing blessings." Rhodes, 1st grade

"I believe in Catholic education because without Jesus, we wouldn't be alive." Anna Claire, 2nd grade

"I think God is the heart and we are the body of the school. He is our savior and we should honor that." Giuliana, 3rd grade

"I can grow in a close relationship with God and the people around me." Summer, 7th grade

"I get to learn about my faith every day. I am fortunate because not all kids can do this." Claire, 6th grade

"I not only get to learn about my faith, but feel I am getting a better overall education." Talen, 7th grade

"Jesus get to me and my friends to peace, love, joy, hope, and friendship." Sadie, 3rd grade
