Dear Lord Jesus and Mary, Mother of God, hold all these brave souls in the palm of your hand; comfort them and their families. Send angels of protection, love, and comfort to all the service men and women still at war, bring them home safely and comfort their families. We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

If you have a loved one called to active military service, whom you would like included on our military prayer list, please call the Parish Office: inform us of his/her name and branch of military service. Likewise, when any of our listed military personnel returns home, please share that good news with us as well.

On behalf of the parish family of St. Perpetua, we would like to extend our deepest sympathy to the families of Gabriel Mio & Fr. Thomas Cusick, retired priest of the Archdiocese of Detroit. May they rest in peace.

Volunteers needed for St. Joseph Mercy Home Care & Hospice

St. Joseph mercy Hospice is currently seeking volunteers for our hospice program. A volunteer with St. Joseph Mercy Hospice will have the opportunity to offer a special service to patients who have chosen to live their final days with dignity and peace.

If you are interested in becoming a St. Joseph Volunteer, please contact Lori Stoll, Volunteer Coordinator, at 734-343-7538 or by email: mortierl@trinity-health.org. Our deepest thanks and appreciation in advance for your time and consideration.

Daughters of Isabella Meeting: February 2nd @ 7:00 pm

Any Catholic woman who is 16 or older can join. We are women from all walks of life - professionals, full-time moms, retirees, the young and the young at heart. We all belong for our own personal reasons: Meetings are held the first Wednesday of every month (except July & August) at 7:00 p.m. in the carpeted meeting room. We currently have approximately 35 members and are looking to expand our membership.

Take Five for Faith
Help the dream awaken

One of the many things Martin Luther King, Jr. taught Americans was that faith could—and should!—be a driving force for positive social change. He also showed that people of all faiths could put aside differences and do this work together. A Baptist minister, King met with Pope John XXIII and many other faith leaders who later together publicly lamented his death. Keep King’s spirit of faith-based social action and interfaith cooperation alive—gather with Catholics and other people of God to discuss, learn, pray, plan, and act on a peaceful journey toward healing all forms of inequality.

Right to Life - LIFESPAN

Right to Life LIFESPAN
Motor City Caravan

Plan to join other pro-lifers in the second annual Motor City Caravan on January 22, 2022. Last year’s caravan was a great success, as we traveled down Woodward Avenue to Detroit and back, with pro-life flags reminding everyone along the route that Human Life needs to be respected and protected. This year’s caravan will assemble in the parking lot of the National Shrine of the Little Flower at 12 Mile and Woodward. Call the Wayne West office of LIFESPAN for details at 734-422-6230.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
It Takes All Kinds

“If every flower wanted to be a rose,” wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, “spring would lose its loveliness.”

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of “varieties of tongues” might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, “Do whatever he tells you,” her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God’s instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God’s word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

New Baby in the house?

Congratulations! To schedule the Sacrament of Baptism for your new addition, please contact the Parish Office at 248-682-6431.

Have you heard?

We have hearing devices available for those in need to be used during Mass.
Please see an usher for assistance.

Here is a prayer that was received from a very close friend of Fr Jack. We need to pray daily to be in union with Fr Jack because he prays this prayer daily and it gives him great consolation.

Oh My God, you have created me to do some definite service.

You have committed some work to me that You have not committed to another.

*I have my mission, I am a link in a chain,
a bond of connection between persons.*

I will trust You, whatever, wherever I am.

If I am in sickness, my sickness will serve You.

If I am in perplexity, my perplexity may serve You.

If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve You.

You do nothing in vain. You know what you are about.

Though friends be taken away, though I feel desolate,

though my spirits sink,

though my future is hidden from me,

yet I will trust You, for You know what You are about.

I ask not so much to see as to be used:

through Christ our Lord, Amen
