MARCH

For a Christian response to bioethical challenges

We pray for Christians facing new bioethical challenges; may they continue to defend the dignity of all human life with prayer and action.

OF MANY THINGS...

This past Tuesday we experienced a 'palindrome' - 2/22/22. This rare calendrical event is special because all the numbers are 2 and it falls on the day of the week that actually sounds like the number. The last a time an event like this occurred was in 1622 and the next time this will happen will be in 2422. How blessed are we that we are able to experience it. Hope you had a happy 'twosday'.

On another note, February 22 is also the feast day of Chair of Saint Peter the Apostle - St. Peter's Basilica is named after him and also where a relic of him is kept. Do some research on this topic...it's very interesting. You know how I love history!

The beginning of Lent is quite late this year. It will begin this Wednesday! It's then that we will begin a period of fasting, abstaining and almsgiving for a period of forty days. We join with Christ in the commemoration of his death and resurrection.

We will celebrate Mass on Ash Wednesday at 8:30 a.m. and again at 5:30 p.m. At these Masses we will distribute blessed ashes. These ashes will be left in the church during the day for those who wish to impose them on yourselves or others.

I need to remind you that Ash Wednesday is a day of fast and abstinence. We are asked to abstain from meat on that day and not eat between meals. This obligation is a requirement for those over the age of fourteen and under the age of sixty. Abstaining from meat on Friday's of Lent is also recommended. If you find this too difficult, you may dispense yourself.

Our Gospel today reminds us that we are offered a self-check on our own motivations. With adequate self-reflection, it's easy to become blind to our own faults. We go through life's motions as our bad habits linger or even increase. We may become increasingly impatient, avoid important tasks or neglect emotional needs of those close to us. Perhaps we even find fault with those around us. In the words of Jesus, "remove the wooden beam from your own eye first." Lent is a good time for self-reflection.

May God bless you and know that I pray for each of you in my daily prayers.

EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading from the Book of Sirach (27:4-7)

When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear; so do one's faults when one speaks. As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace, so in tribulation is the test of the just. The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had; so too does one's speech disclose the bent of one's mind.

Praise no one before he speaks, for it is then that people are tested.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praise to your name, Most High, To proclaim your kindness at dawn and your faithfulness throughout the night.

R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

The just one shall flourish like the palm tree, like a cedar of Lebanon shall he grow. They that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

They shall bear fruit even in old age; vigorous and sturdy shall they be, Declaring how just is the LORD, my rock, in whom there is no wrong.

R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

Second Reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians (15:54-58)

Brothers and sisters: When this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about:

Death is swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Shine like lights in the world
as you hold on to the word of life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

The Lord be with you. And with your Spirit

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke (6:39-45)

Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus told his disciples a parable, "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit?

No disciple is superior to the teacher; but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher. Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own? How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,' when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye? You hypocrite!

Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye.

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit. For people do not pick figs from thornbushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks."

The good news of the Gospel
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

CONSIDERING A RETREAT

It is our Christian calling to live in hope. Hope is the belief that all of life points to our ultimate communion with our God. In his book Dream, Pope Francis says, "the question is whether you're going to come through this crisis and if so, how? The basic rule of a crisis is that you don't come through a crisis the same. If you get through it, you come out better or worse, but not the same."

A weekend retreat gives us a 40-hour gift of hitting the "pause button" of life. In the comfort of a private room (and bath), we can pray, read, listen to talks, and simply reflect about how and where our Lord Jesus Christ has spoken to us. Faith makes all the difference, if we allow it to make all the difference.

This year's theme, Bouncing Back, Living in hope is a gift that will renew your ability to know the Lord has your back. Consider registering for a weekend retreat that starts on Fridays at 6:00 pm and ends on Sunday about noon. Visit St. Paul of the Cross' website www.stpaulretreat.org to register, or call one of your fellow parishioners to ask about our retreat experience.

Inspiration for the week

"From the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." What we say reveals so much about who we are. It discloses what is really going on within us: our integrity, priorities, depth of conscience, level of compassion and understanding of mercy. People whose speech is judgmental or overly critical usually reveal an interior life that is angry, unsettled, defensive, and shallow. Our speech communicates our sense of right and wrong, the strength of our relationship with God and how we feel about our fellow human beings. We are also quick to point out the faults of others, concentrating on their shortcomings and wrongdoings before our own. Only God fully understands what is going on inside the human heart. Only God can see the depth of a human soul. Perhaps it would do us well to consider what may be happening inside our brothers and sisters and temper our critical speech of what we see occurring outside. Looking within will also help us identify our own sins and weakness so that we can be better positioned to offer the type of wisdom and compassionate guidance that can really be of help to our friends.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

With a family like hers, it's no wonder that St. Katharine Drexel (November 26, 1858 – March 3, 1955) grew up to become one of the first American-born saints.

Born in Philadelphia in 1858, her mother passed away when she was only five weeks old. Her father, a renowned banker, remarried a wonderful woman, and together they raised St. Katherine Drexel and her two sisters in a life of privilege. Both financially and spiritually well-endowed, the Drexels were devout Catholics and set an excellent example of true Christian servitude with prayer and care for the poor.

After her father's death, St. Katharine Drexel gave up her inheritance and instead devoted her life to the material and spiritual well-being of black and native Americans. Mother Drexel, as she would become known as, established the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament for Indians and Colored, and together they opened a boarding school in Santa Fe, the first of 50 missions for Native Americans in 16 states.

At 77, she suffered a heart attack and was forced to retire from active ministry. She spent the next 20 years of her life in quiet yet intense prayer. She died at the age of 96 and was canonized in 2000 by Pope John Paul II.

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Let's pretend we're looking through a "blind" eye with a log stuck in it. You see how good you are compared to everybody else. You see other people stuck in sin, and you avoid them or hurt them with your words. Now let's take that log out and look through a good eye. You see your own sins, and you know you need God's kindness and forgiveness. You see other people stuck in sin, and you show God's kindness and forgiveness to them.

PRAYER

God, keep my eyes open to see my sins and your kindness.
Give me a good heart.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

When you catch someone in sin (stealing, lying, using hurtful words) be kind. Remember your own sins, and show God's forgiveness.

FAITH FORMATION

By Maryann Walkuski

Lent is a 10th of the Year... Church poets called the time a "tithe" of our days given back to God. During the other nine-tenths of the year the work of the church is supposed to be directed out to the world, but during Lent we pull back to examine our unhealthy ways. The word quarantine is an old word for Lent—literally meaning 40 days of imposed recuperation.

Lent Is A Learning Time - It's time to sit down as a family and talk about Lent. Does your family have a plan? How can you ALL get closer to Jesus? What can your family do? Beside the usual...attending Mass every week, remembering prayers in the morning and night, being kind. How about a family rosary?...attending the Stations of the Cross? Here's some ideas: LOOK FOR MERCY: Moments of mercy are happening all around us. Help children to identify one merciful act daily during Lent. GET RID OF GRUDGES: Teach children by giving them examples from your life on how you let go of anger and resentments and forgave someone that hurt you.

GO ON A MISSION OF MERCY: Spend a day at a local food pantry, soup kitchen or homeless shelter. Your children will get a hands-on experience in what it means to be merciful. SEND BOOKS TO THE MISSIONS: Visit a Catholic bookstore or website and buy spiritual books for children and adults that you can send to a Catholic mission in the US and overseas. RECEIVE GOD'S MERCY: Take the whole family to a parish penance service. We're all prone to self-centeredness. Help your children understand that admitting to selfish behaviors and asking God's forgiveness helps us to become the merciful people that God is calling us to be. Even children not old enough for confession can take part in the prayers of a penance service. BECOME MORE MERCIFUL: Pope Francis hopes that during Lent we will all become more merciful in everything that we say and do. Holding a door for someone, extending a helping hand, offering a sincere compliment are just a few of the small things that we can practice during Lent that will lead your family to becoming more merciful. SELECT A PSALM: Psalms teach us about God's mercy. They are an easy addition to family prayer at dinner or bedtime. SHOW MERCY: We are merciful when we are kind to one another, when we forgive and when we put the needs of others before our own. Ask your children to share an example of how they were merciful to someone. SPEND TIME IN ADORATION: We have a beautiful chapel! Spend some time there in quiet reflection. It's a good time to teach your children to spend some time in the presence of God. Most children have short attention spans, but a few minutes of silence in the presence of Our Lord is a good way to help them learn about spiritual benefits of quiet reflection. MAKE TIME FOR MARY: Make time to pray the Rosary with your family, focusing on the Joyful Mysteries, which reflect on the early life of Mary and Jesus. Consider a trip to a nearby shrine where you can share a prayer together. Have a prayer-filled Lent!

Thought For The Week—Father, help me to see this holy season of Lent as a time of spiritual renewal, rather than a time of deprivation. Motivate me to reach a new level of experiencing Your grace.

WHAT IS LENT?

Wednesday, March 2, 2022 - Thursday, April 14, 2022—Lent is a 40 day season of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving that begins on Ash Wednesday and ends at sundown on Holy Thursday. It's a period of preparation to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection at Easter. We seek the Lord in prayer by reading Scripture; we serve by giving alms; and we practice self-control through fasting. We are called to abstain from luxuries during Lent. We recall the waters of baptism in which we were also baptized into Christ's death, died to sin and evil, and began new life in Christ. Many know of the tradition of abstaining from meat on Fridays during Lent, but we are also called to practice self-discipline and fast in other ways throughout the season. St. Anselm will offer several opportunities to further your personal experience of Lent.

Aside from our weekend/weekday masses, we will pray the Stations of the Cross each Friday at 7:00 pm, have Lenten discussion groups on Mondays at 9:00 am, 2:00 pm, and 7:30 pm which will meet in the meeting room (connected to the church; registration is not required but would be helpful) and a Charismatic Prayer group that meets in the Eucharistic Chapel on Tuesdays at 7:30pm.

ST. MICHAEL, PRAY FOR US

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

'HOPE RENEWED' PRAYER

Father in Heaven, renew Your wonders in our times, as though by a New Pentecost. Holy Spirit, increase Your gifts in us to move boldly into Families of Parishes with confidence. Deepen our desire for every person to encounter Jesus anew, grow daily as His disciples and give witness to His love and mercy.

This is our mission! And we embrace it anew.

Grant that Your Holy Church in Detroit, praying perseveringly and insistently with one mind, together with Mary, the mother of Jesus and guided by St Joseph, St. Anne and Bl. Solanus Casey, may increase the reign of the Divine Savior, the reign of truth and justice, the reign of love and peace.

We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Father, you desire all of us to be happy. Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many men and women. Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves, their lives, their time and their talents to the service of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord and Savior, and to His Holy Church. May more men and women go forth as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters to bring the truths of our Catholic faith to all others so that soon they, too, may know You better and love You more...and serving You, be truly happy. Amen.
