He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile."

RESIDENT Alien

As read at each Mass last weekend, in light of the rise in Covid 19 cases and particularly the delta variant, THE ARCHDIOCESE OF DETROIT ENCOURAGES MASS-GOERS, REGARDLESS OF VACCINATION STATUS, TO WEAR FACE-COVERINGS AND TO PRACTICE SOCIAL DISTANCING TO REDUCE EXPOSURE TO COVID-19. In addition, the choir area is to be evaluated and it is strongly recommended that those who are not vaccinated do not participate in the choir at this time. Current practices pertaining to the use of sanitizer and face coverings during the distribution of Holy Communion are to continue. More information is available at aod.org.

Can a Catholic claim a religious objection to receiving the Covid-19 vaccine? In light of the following public statements the answer, logically, is, "No."

Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith: "When ethically irreproachable Covid-19 vaccines are not available...it is morally acceptable to receive Covid-19 vaccines that have used cell lines from aborted fetuses in their research and production process."*

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops: "Receiving one of the COVID-19 vaccines ought to be understood as an act of charity toward the other members of our community. In this way, being vaccinated safely against COVID-19 should be considered an act of love of our neighbor and part of our moral responsibility for the common good."

The Catholic Bishops of Michigan: "It is morally permissible to be vaccinated if there are no alternatives and there are serious health risks. Such serious health risks are present due to the current pandemic."

Pope Francis: "Being vaccinated with vaccines authorized by the competent authorities is an act of love. And contributing to ensure the majority of people are vaccinated is an act of love – love for oneself, love for one's family and friends, love for all people."

*Regarding vaccines using stem cells from aborted fetuses, some "Catholic" sources are misleading. They give the impression that babies are currently being aborted for this purpose or cells are being harvested from recent abortions. This is not accurate. We are dealing with cell lines that are decades old. There are at least two arguments from Catholic teaching which invalidate the objection about fetal stem cells being used in one of the familiar vaccines. First is the principle of proportionality, i.e., the good accomplished through the vaccine is greater than the harm already done. A second is that, throughout history, God pulls good out of evil. The most obvious example, though hardly the only one, is the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

We continue to hold the people of Haiti and Afghanistan in our prayer. In the case of the latter, we need to remember that the Taliban do not represent the majority of Islamic believers, any more than the late Fred Phelps and the Westboro Church represent Christianity. That said, we know all too well the Taliban history especially with regard to women. Though they have made statements about showing more respect toward women, their history, and their understanding of what "respect" means, places the people of Afghanistan, especially women, in a perilous place.

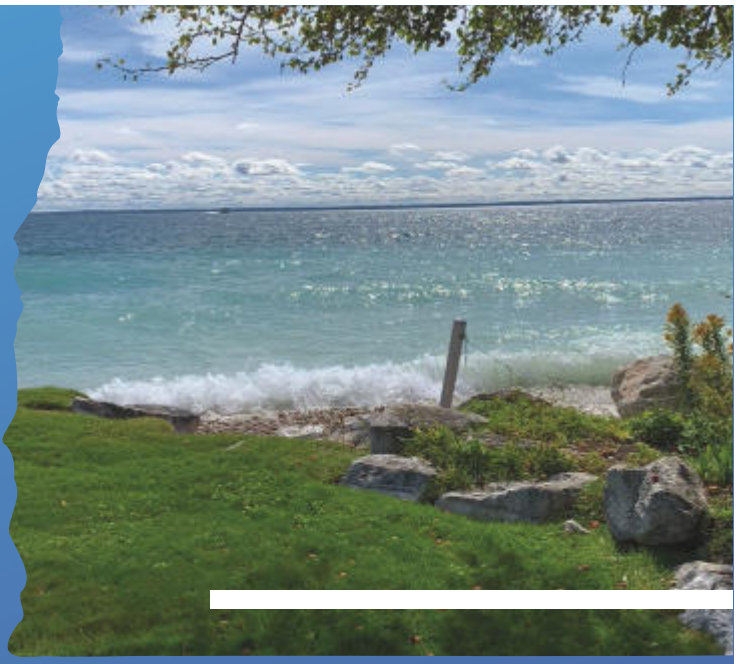
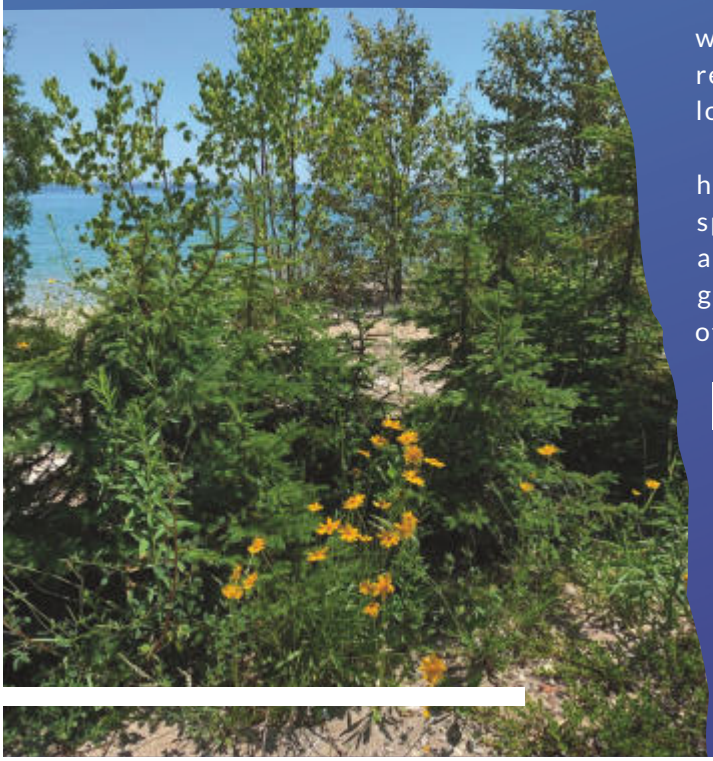
SPIRITUAL DIRECTION



"Spiritual direction is the practice of being attentive to God's life and movement in our quest for meaning as a human being. Spiritual Direction is the telling of one's sacred stories in a sacred space of every day life."

Spiritual direction...

- is a unique one-to-one confidential relationship in which I am trained to assist you in your search for an ever-closer connection with the Holy One,
- helps you to explore on a deeper level the experiences of your daily life by telling your own sacred story,
- is about "holy listening" rather than providing "direction" offering instructions, assignments, or direct advice, &
- is about mentoring because it becomes the foundation for growth in every area of your life.



At times in our daily lives we may find that we need a spiritual nudge. Or we might be looking for support, to integrate spirituality into our daily life, to share with another person that "sacred story" our hopes, struggles, losses, the discoveries and challenges of your spiritual walk.

Like the Prophets Isaiah and Micah and the four Gospel writers each person has their own "sacred story" to tell. Many stories go unnoticed while one may walk the earth. Spiritual Direction gives each of us that "sacred space" to tell our "sacred story".

"Where we meet to share your story becomes a welcoming place where the dignity of every person is respected, honored and welcomed; and where the love of the Holy One is learned and shared."

As you move forward, your spiritual director will help you notice your experiences of God; integrate spirituality in your daily life; share your challenges and losses; celebrate the joys and accomplishments; grow in your relationship with the Holy One, self, others and creation.

We Need Your Help!

CATECHISTS

Teach, pass on the faith and share your own faith. You must be a practicing adult Catholic who loves God, accepts young people and has enthusiasm for the faith.
Catechists facilitate and/or lead faith formation sessions using age-appropriate material provided. Catechists should be comfortable in large and small group settings and have a good sense of humor, a willingness to share their faith, and an openness to further their own personal growth.
As a catechist, you will be provided the materials, training and continuing support to best empower you in your ministry, while taking into account your busy schedule. Our volunteers include parents of children in the program, so you may actually have the opportunity to teach your own child's class if you would like.

CATECHIST AIDES

Catechist aides assist catechists in faith formation session activities for children. They monitor children in class, take attendance, escort children to the bathroom and assist catechists. Aides can be teens, 14 or older.

HALL MONITORS

To be present in the building on all program nights for the safety of all. If you are one of those parents who sits and waits for your children during this time, this would be a great opportunity to assist us as a Hall Monitor.
Hall monitors patrol lobby, bathrooms and other areas while children are in catechetical sessions.

IF INTERESTED IN VOLUNTEERING, PLEASE CONTACT THE PARISH OFFICE FOR FURTHER REQUIREMENTS.

Gospel Reflection

The Tradition of the Elders
Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

This week's Gospel reading reflects on tradition how easy it is to forget the purpose of those traditions. The outward actions we do sometimes become so routine, we forget the reason we are doing them. The Pharisees question why the disciples do not follow tradition of eating with unclean hands. To which Jesus replied with Isaiah's prophecy, "This people honors me with the lips, but their hearts are far from me." Yes, it is a good thing to wash our hands – please wash your hands, but how do we wash what is inside of us? We are all broken; we all have faults; we all have inner battles that are a daily struggle, and those struggles can lead us away from God. The second reading, James tells us "Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves." Jesus is all about action. We pray. We love. We help one another. We do acts of kindness. Outwardly, we go through the motions of our traditions, but if we are just doing them out of repetition, forgetting the "why" of doing them, is that enough? What about inward? What of giving our hearts to God so that our actions have meaning?

We turn to the sacraments and the liturgy. The Catechism of the Catholic Church 1116 states the "Sacraments are 'powers that come forth' from the Body of Christ, which is ever-living and life-giving. They are actions of the Holy Spirit at work in his Body, the Church. They are 'the masterworks of God' in the new and everlasting covenant." For example, the Sacrament of Reconciliation wipes our slate clean, elevates our soul and keeps us moving towards a clean heart with Jesus! The Eucharist feeds us and brings us closer to God. We renew and remember our Baptismal promises as we dip our fingers in the font and make the Sign of the Cross. We are called to go forth and make a difference. We must continually remember what the sacraments do to lift us and others to God. Yes, we will be messy again; we are, after all, human. "Liturgy is an action of the whole Christ...Liturgical services are not private functions but are celebrations of the Church" (CCC, nos. 1136, 1140). All that entails within the Church helps us to continually strive to be better; give our hearts to God. Maybe that is why we are "practicing" Catholics; practice make perfect!

Further in today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that what is inside that comes out, defiles us: "From their hearts, come evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly." Those are some pretty heavy sins weighing down our hearts. To combat this, turn to the fruits of the Holy Spirit: charity (love), joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity.

FAITH FORMATION corner

God gives us all the tools, or gifts, we need to grow closer to Him. Have some fruit – good for you spiritually and physically!

Church is full of tradition. When you go to church, do you actively participate? Do you feel the works of the Holy Spirit moving within you? Don't just go with the flow of our faith, be active in within it! G.K. Chesterton's quote comes to mind, "Just going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than standing in your garage makes you a car." Use all the gifts God has given to us to be the doers of His Word! We are the Church! God is good!

Time to Chat

Why does Jesus call the Pharisees and scribes hypocrites? Jesus teaches us that peoples' words and actions can cause evil. In what way do words and actions hurt people today?

Recipe of the Week

Pudding Fruit Salad
What you'll need:

- 1 container (4 oz) refrigerated vanilla pudding
- 1/2 cup Cool Whip frozen whipped topping, thawed
- 1 cup seedless green grapes, halved
- 1 cup miniature marshmallows
- 1 can (11 oz) mandarin orange segments, drained
- 1 can (8 oz) pineapple tidbits in juice, drained
- 1 cup fresh strawberries, sliced

Directions:
In medium bowl, mix pudding and whipped topping. Gently stir in grapes, marshmallows, oranges and pineapple. Add strawberries; toss gently to coat. Serve immediately or store in refrigerator up to 8 hours. Tips: Top Pudding Fruit Salad with additional strawberries for each serving as an optional garnish. Take this from summer to fall by trading in chunks of apple for the berries and butterscotch pudding for the vanilla.
