ST. MICHAEL CATHOLIC COMMUNITY
40501 Hayes Road · Sterling Heights, Michigan 48313

MISSION STATEMENT: St. Michael Catholic Community strives to be a welcoming parish where people come together to worship, learn and grow in faith. Through our actions, we demonstrate our beliefs in fellowship, service and generous tithing of time, talent and treasure while empowering people to take a more active role in the mission of the church. We care for one another and receive comfort and support in our own times of need. All are encouraged to participate in the journey to live by Christ's example and build the kingdom of God by sharing His word with those we meet.

From Fr. Mike...

With the new year, we are starting the process of grouping parishes together in an Archdiocesan initiative called Families of Parishes. This process should take about 2 years to complete and, as I mentioned in a previous bulletin article, our parish family consists of St. Blase on 15 Mile Road, St. Martin de Porres on Hoover, St. Ephrem on 17 Mile Road and St. Michael. In smaller parishes or parishes that are teetering financially, the family of parishes concept is that staff support and resources will occur within the family unit. In our situation, all four parishes are financially solvent, but the benefit to this structure is to combine contracted services to get better pricing (landscaping, purchasing supplies), taking advantages of offerings in other parishes within the family (in other words, trying not to recreate the wheel in all four parishes but utilizing other parishes for Lenten programs, retreats, mission groups), and offer priest help as we get older. As I implied above, this structure is critical for maintaining Catholic presence in some area of our diocese, e.g., churches in the center city or small parish communities in the rural areas to the south and north of us. How those decisions are made in those areas will be determined by the parishes involved and the health and abilities of the pastoral workers in each respective family of parishes.

This first part of the process is getting to know the parishes in our family and familiarizing ourselves with the communities and the resources they have. It seems natural that we begin by sharing websites and names of pastors and mass times for each of us. From this point forward, there will be a regular list of our parish groupings and I encourage everyone to check out websites and read the on-line bulletins to familiarize yourself with the parishes and the programs they offer. Since some of the parishes in the Archdiocese have already started this process (They were in wave 1; we are in wave 2.), what we have been told is that larger parishes like St. Michael have seen very few changes in day-to-day operations. The staff and programs remain the same. The archbishop has set it up so that future changes, for instance the sickness or death of a pastor, will be accommodated by other priests in the family who have familiarity with the parish and the staff and the priorities of the parish community in question. I will share that information at the bottom of this article.

We have met as priests a few times already and plan on continuing meeting throughout the process and beyond to share a meal and talk over our respective ministries. There was something kind of interesting that occurred in our last meeting. As we were getting to know each other and sharing our respective biographies, Fr. Aro (the pastor of St. Ephrem) started to talk about growing up in India where his family didn't have a lot of money, struggling to go to school and eventually the seminary, joining a religious congregation that brought him to a couple of different countries including the United States and finally to St. Ephrem. Fr. Tim then spoke about being raised in the Philippines, his parents dying and leaving him orphaned at the age of 11, being taken in and raised by his elder brother, struggling to get an education until his uncle sponsored and paid for his seminary education. He was ordained in the Diocese of Massin and eventually moved to Detroit where he first ministered at St. Sylvester in Warren and then, St. Michael. Then it was my turn to speak. I felt pretty ordinary, like plain white bread on a shelf of fancy French pastries. I started: I was born in Detroit; I was raised in Detroit; I went to school in Detroit; I was ordained for Detroit; I am here now. Lol. I never knew how boring I was! Even the two other native clergy, Frs. Randy and Nick were educated in Europe. Oh well, I own it. I look forward to meeting and working with my confreres in the future months.

Fr. Mike

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time - John 2, 1-12

Let there be wine!

The servants carefully filled each of the six stone jars. Jesus watched silently as they first poured from buckets and finished by ladling water until it reached the top.

Jesus studied the brimming jars and realized that clouds from the afternoon sky were reflected on the water's surface. He imagined entering the reflection and walking beneath those clouds in another time and place. He took a deep breath and sighed. As he inhaled again he felt a satisfying fullness of peace. Jesus seemed charged with the full power of God. Closing his eyes, he breathed a prayer. "Father, let this water become wine."

Instantly there was the taste of wine on his tongue and his nostrils were filled with the sharp scent of wine on the air. Jesus opened his eyes to see that the white clouds in the reflection were now brighter against the darker liquid in the jars. For a moment Jesus thought to dip his finger into the jar to taste the new wine, but he resisted. Filled with God's confidence, he had no need to test the results.

Stepping back from the jars, Jesus instructed the servants to go tell the chief wine steward that there was no longer a shortage of wine.

Jesus turned and faced his mother and the others standing by her in silence. Mary's eyes narrowed slightly, sending a warm thanks to her son. The corners of Jesus' mouth twitched in a brief smile back at her. Then he lowered his gaze and left the patio, walking past them.

Soon the chief steward was marveling at the taste of the new wine. Cups were filled and everyone celebrated.

Away from the crowd, Jesus took no joy in the moment. His heart was filled with a cold dread as he realized what he had truly begun. His journey was started now. There would be no turning back from the path that would soon enough lead him to agony, passion and death.

This Gospel story of Jesus' first miracle presents us with an opportunity to reflect on the beginning of Jesus' ministry. This can lead us to remember the beginning of our own faith journey. Somewhere in each of our lives there is a "wedding at Cana" experience" that marks our coming to faith. Hidden in among the years is this little jewel of experience that we can rediscover and hold up to the light of our lives

FLT News & Updates...

Our FLT year has been moving right along! The children, on all levels, have been actively engaged in learning more about and embracing their faith. Grade 2 students just completed their First Reconciliation and I absolutely love how comfortable Fr. Mike makes the children feel. To be sure, there is no need for nervousness when approaching the Sacrament of Reconciliation. God's love for us is immense and he longs for us to have a good relationship with him and others!

Soon, these children begin the final preparation for reception of First Communion. Please keep them and their families in your prayers and they continue on their faith journey.

I have been reading about the drastic surge in cases of Covid-19, particularly the Omicron variant. It appears that this virus is affecting all age levels and, quite frankly, it is disturbing and downright frightening. I am thankful for our parents who have kept home children who have been exposed to or tested positive for Covid.

In the interest of safety, I have made the decision, with Fr. Mike's approval, to move all FLT classes to a virtual platform for the following dates: January 24/25, January 31/February 1, February 7/8, February 14/15. I will continue to evaluate the Covid numbers and, if practical and safe, we will return to in-person classes on February 28/March 1. We held hybrid classes last year and they went quite well, therefore, I am confident that this, too, will go well.

On Sunday February 13th, millions of Americans will tune in to the Super Bowl football game. There will, no doubt, be parties with abundant food, friendship and fellowship. At the same time, there will be people worrying about staying warm, finding shelter and a warm meal. Please join young people around the country as they demonstrate God's love by loving their neighbors through the Souper Bowl of Caring. It's a simple, yet significant act of caring for others. Drop $1 (or more) in the baskets as you leave worship on February 12th or 13th. Our PRYSM youth are developing hearts for giving that can last a lifetime. Please support their efforts. All donations will be dispersed to local charities.

LECTOR / COMMENTATOR / EM

We are actively seeking people to volunteer for the Lector/Commentator/EM ministry as you have heard in the announcements. We will be doing scheduling later this month that will take us past Easter. If you are interested in participating, please fill out the information and either drop it off in the Parish Office, in the collection box or give it to me. Even if you've volunteered prior but were not contacted, please submit again. For the past year things have been so upside down with the pandemic that many items dropped between the cracks:

NAME: _____ Phone Number: _____
Email: _____ Mass I want to serve at _____

ALTAR SERVER / ACOLYTE

Guess I'm in a find-the-volunteer mood today. As many of you may have noticed, we have reinstated the Altar Server or Acolyte Ministry. Currently we have 6 young people involved. Those of you making your confirmation this year, the Altar Server Ministry counts as your service project and is credited to you. But all are welcome...the only requirement is that you have made your First Communion and are willing to serve a couple times a month. It's a great way to be part of the Mass and learn more about the Mass and your faith. If interested, please fill out the form below and either drop it off at the Parish Office, the collection box, or give it to me directly. I guarantee you will enjoy this ministry.

NAME: _____ Phone Number: _____

MINISTER OF HOSPITALITY

Ok, one more request for volunteers. This is for the Ministers of Hospitality. You serve at Mass to assist people to their seats if needed, Act as a Greeter handing out the music sheet for Mass and welcoming parishioners and visitors. During Mass, you sit in designated seats located in various spots in the church and should a situation arise, be it a person becoming ill, needing some type of assistance or responding to an emergency, you would be the point person for assistance. This is such an important ministry. It's open to male and female alike and would actually be a wonderful "family" ministry. If interested, please fill out the form below and either drop it off at the Parish Office, give to me directly or drop it in the collection box:

NAME: _____ Phone Number: _____
Email: _____ Mass I want to serve at _____

Wow, I am just tired just asking for volunteers. But seriously, our church relies on volunteers to make it work. Please prayerfully consider helping.

God Bless,
Deacon Franz
