ST. MICHAEL CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

40501 Hayes Road • Sterling Heights, Michigan 48313

MISSION STATEMENT: St. Michael Catholic Community strives to be a welcoming parish where people come together to worship, learn and grow in faith. Through our actions, we demonstrate our beliefs in fellowship, service and generous tithing of time, talent and treasure while empowering people to take a more active role in the mission of the church. We care for one another and receive comfort and support in our own times of need. All are encouraged to participate in the journey to live by Christ's example and build the kingdom of God by sharing His word with those we meet.

From Artist Mary Gilhuly,
Co-Founder, Song and Spirit Institute for Peace

Dear Friends,

At my first meeting with the 50th Anniversary Planning Committee I was shown a booklet from the 25th anniversary of the parish. In it was a "logo" for the 25th (which I just learned was originally designed by founding pastor Fr. Larry!). I thought it would be a wonderful connection to the past if we brought a variation into play for the 50th.

25th Anniversary Logo
designed by Fr. Larry

If I broadened the garment we could fill it with colorful tiles designed by the congregation, then place abstract "people" under the outstretched arms of Jesus and fill them with even more parishioner-made tiles. It seemed appropriate to create the faces on these figures in a variety of "skin" colors- and then be sure that all those "skin" tones were in Jesus' face and hands as well. At this very first meeting, I learned that the message "All Are Welcome" was very important to your pastor, Fr. Mike. The hymn "All Are Welcome In This Place" gave us the wording that would appear on the banner.

After the participating individuals and families created their tiles I spent quite a bit of time thinking about the elements that would make up the finished piece. The wording was important; the multi-color glass in the faces of Jesus and the "people" backed up this message with a great visual. But, everything needed to support the work of the parishioner "artists" - and work with the architecture of the space. The rich jewel tones on the green robe needed to "pop" on the new wall covering - but also give a "resting place" between those colorful tiles. The piece would be installed on a diagonal line opposite the beautiful interior garden which ties together both of these unique features.

The angled glass cuts in all the faces visually tie in to the rafters of the church with their exposed metal pipes/beams forming wedge shapes in the ceiling. The rectangle-shaped tiles that parishioners created mirror the tall, rectangular niche where the Tabernacle rests just off the Sanctuary.

The glass technique used in the banner was inspired by a 2,000 year-old mosaic found in Israel. This whole installation is a little abstract/contemporary to go with the St. Michael church design, so I thought the banner should be "grounding" and have a little "touch of age" for balance. I added 50 tiny chips of gold mirror to the banner to mark the 50th anniversary of the parish. The "brocade" embellishment down the front of the robe and its richly-colored hem also contain 50 gold mirror pieces each. For these features I chose golden, rust and sage green Van Gogh glass to tie into - but not compete with - the parishioner's art work. Your colorful tiles were placed entirely at random as I pulled them out of the bin where they were stored. Two tiles were placed intentionally - the 50th anniversary cross logo is on the "heart" of the Jesus figure and the tile immediately to the left of it is Fr. Mike's.

Special thanks to the 50th Anniversary Planning Committee for all of their efforts over the last two years(!) and to Deacon Franz and other Parish staff members who helped along the way. Thanks to Fr. Mike for his support throughout the process. I am profoundly touched by the trust that was placed in me by all of them. Thanks especially to the people of St. Michael Catholic Community who shared their creative hearts, hands and spirits in the building of this piece. Please know that it is evident with every encounter I've had here at St. Michael that truly "All Are Welcome In This Place."

Today's Gospel, the story of the Prodigal Son or Forgiving Father is one of the best known stories in Scripture. It is a story with three acts. In the first act, the younger son demands his share of his father's inheritance, runs off to a distant country, and wastes all the money on frivolous things. Feeling just a tad desperate, this younger son gets a job with a pig farmer and ends up eating the garbage that is thrown to the swine. The son makes matters even worse by working for and eating food from a non-Jew, a gentile. He is eating unclean (unholy) food and has thus made himself unclean; he denies his very heritage. This younger son decides that he just can't take this anymore and decides to return to his father. Note, he is not sorry for what he has done, he simply longs to return to the cushy lifestyle he had while living at home. Nevertheless, he prepares a "speech," an insincere speech, to show his dad just how repentant he is.

Act II begins with the actual return of this son. While he is still quite a distance away, his father sees him and runs to greet him, kisses him and embraces him. Those listening to Jesus' story would have been aghast at the image of the father running; this was a cultural taboo in their society. Nevertheless, the two embrace and the younger son launches into his speech. The speech, however, doesn't go exactly as the son planned; it goes even better! He never got to utter his last line, "Treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers." Dad interrupts all of this and orders the son clothed in a robe, ring and sandals. Far from being welcomed as a servant or slave, the son is restored to family dignity and given the signet ring to act with the father's authority. This act ends with a party! Everyone, except the older brother, celebrates the fact that this wayward son has come back home; he has returned to the father. (Hmmm...shouldn't our reconciliation to God end with a party as well?! We should celebrate that God, in all goodness and compassion, continues to welcome us home to him!)

In Act III, the focus is on the older brother. He is furious and resentful that his younger brother, the wanton and wasteful one that he is, should be thrown a party. In an unheard of gesture, the father goes out to the elder son and pleads with him to join in the celebration. But this child will have nothing of it; he is so angry because he perceives that the younger son is getting preferential treatment from their father. His argument is shallow: "Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf." Dad does not argue back, he simply states, "My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found." We never find out if this older son goes to the party and rejoices with his father.

Notice that both sons define their relationship with their father in terms of servitude. The younger son feels he can get back into his dad's good graces by becoming one of his servants and the elder son brags how he has always been a faithful servant. Both of them have a misunderstanding of the relationship between parent and child.

We all know, the story really isn't about how the children act and react; it is a story of the wonderful love a parent has for their children, a story of God's overflowing love for us. Perhaps we should measure the depth of our love for our family against this story. During this Lenten season let's try to "fast" from arguments and resentments that we may have with family members and, instead, "feast" on the goodness inherent in each member of our family.

I hope you are all intending on visiting the “Man of the Shroud” exhibit that will be here at St. Michael shortly (see page 9 for more information). We’ve had inquiries from groups as far away as Grand Rapids intending on coming to see the exhibit. We will have brief talks, and I mean brief, reminding you of the exhibit at the beginning or end of all the Masses.

Now that our 50th anniversary celebrations are over, I can't help but wonder and reflect on what the future of the Catholic Church in America might look like. I am wondering what St. Michael might look like 50 years into the future as well. I just can't stop thinking about it and I'd like to share some of my thoughts with you, and ask you, what do you think the Catholic Church in America will look like 50 years down the road?

What might the future hold for the Catholic Church in America? A future filled with self-driving cars, robot vacuum cleaners (that still miss the corners), shifting demographics, cultural changes, and the occasional Sunday morning snooze button temptation—I contend that there's plenty of reason for hope. Let's be honest: some churches have more open seats than filled. But don't count us Catholics out! The Holy Spirit has a funny way of surprising us. Just when we think the Church is slowing down, God raises up passionate young Catholics, inspiring converts and faithful communities ready to share the Good News.

The truth is, the Catholic Church has seen ups and downs for over 2,000 years, and we're still here. If history teaches us anything, it's that when times get tough, the Church gets tougher (and holier). Gone are the days when the height of parish technology was an overhead projector and a slightly wobbly microphone. Today, livestreamed Masses, Catholic podcasts, and even priests on the internet are reaching people in ways never before imagined.

The next generation of Catholics (we already see it) might not just sit in a pew; they'll be logging in, tuning in, and hopefully still showing up in person (because even the best online homily can't replace the power of a real handshake at the Sign of Peace). There's a common concern that young people are stepping away from the faith. And sure, some are. But many are also stepping into leadership, looking for deeper meaning in a noisy world. They're looking for authenticity, truth, and—let's be honest—a parish that serves really good coffee and donuts at least once a month like we do...ha, ha. The challenge we face now and even more looking down the road is

This and That

welcoming them in a way that speaks to their hearts while staying true to the teachings of Christ. The Church has always been a home for seekers, skeptics, and saints-in-the-making.

While we don't have a crystal ball (just a lot of prayer candles – over in the corner by the garden), we do know that the Church will continue to grow and change. Vocations remain a concern, a big one, but the Holy Spirit is still calling men and women to religious life. And who knows? The future may bring new discussions on the role of deacons, lay ministers, and even greater collaboration between clergy (maybe even married clergy?) and the laity. No matter what, I have the utmost confidence because I know that God is in control—and He's never been one to abandon His Church.

So what does the future of the Catholic Church in America look like? Well, it'll be filled with challenges, but also with joy. There will be moments of struggle, but also moments of incredible grace. More than anything, the future Church will be what we—through prayer, faith, and a little humor—help it become. So my friends, keep the faith, keep showing up, and don't forget to smile in the communion line. The Church is alive, and the best is yet to come. I truly believe that with all my heart. I may not be here to see it, but it's going to happen!

God Bless,
Dcn. Franz

~ April 16th is National Healthcare Decision Day ~
See our Parish Health Team on the weekend of April 12 & 13 to make yours!

National Healthcare Decisions Day (NHDD) is held on April 16 each year to educate us about advanced care planning and empower all to make their care wishes known. It is so important to make sure that someone knows our wishes and can speak for us if we cannot speak for ourselves when it is necessary to make medical decisions. To help with this, the Parish Health Ministry Team will have information tables set up in each Gathering Space the weekend of April 12 & 13 with materials to help facilitate and document your wishes. Please stop by and take the materials. Making your wishes known creates peace of mind for you and for those who love you!

TALES OF WONDER

at the Easter Vigil

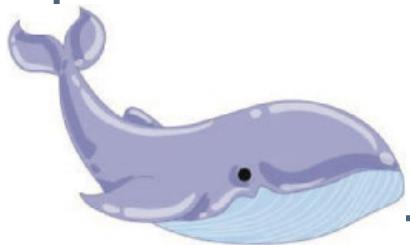

For many years we have proclaimed the word of Creation in the Tales of Wonder at the Easter Vigil. We have children participate by carrying up various stuffed animals/symbols as the script is read. Would your child love to participate and carry up an animal/symbol during the Vigil? If so, please fill out the form below to let us know who will be joining us. This will be during the Easter Vigil which is on Saturday, April 19 at 6:30pm. You will need to be there with your child by 6:00pm.

The challenges continue for our Neighbors in Need

As a important reminder, it has once again been brought to my attention by several parishioners that they have been approached in our parking lot by individuals soliciting for money. If you experience this situation, please DO NOT provide financial assistance. Instead refer them to our Parish Office as we have protocols in place. This helps eliminate any discomfort and giving out of guilt. We are willing to assist anyone through proper channels and resources we have available with your generosity to the Ladder Fund. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (586) 566-4487.

Thank you in advance for your care and compassion.

THE MAN SHROUD of the SHROUD

St. Michael Catholic Community

Presents:

*The Man of the Shroud
Touring Exhibit*

Tuesday, April 1st through Saturday, April 5th

11am-8pm

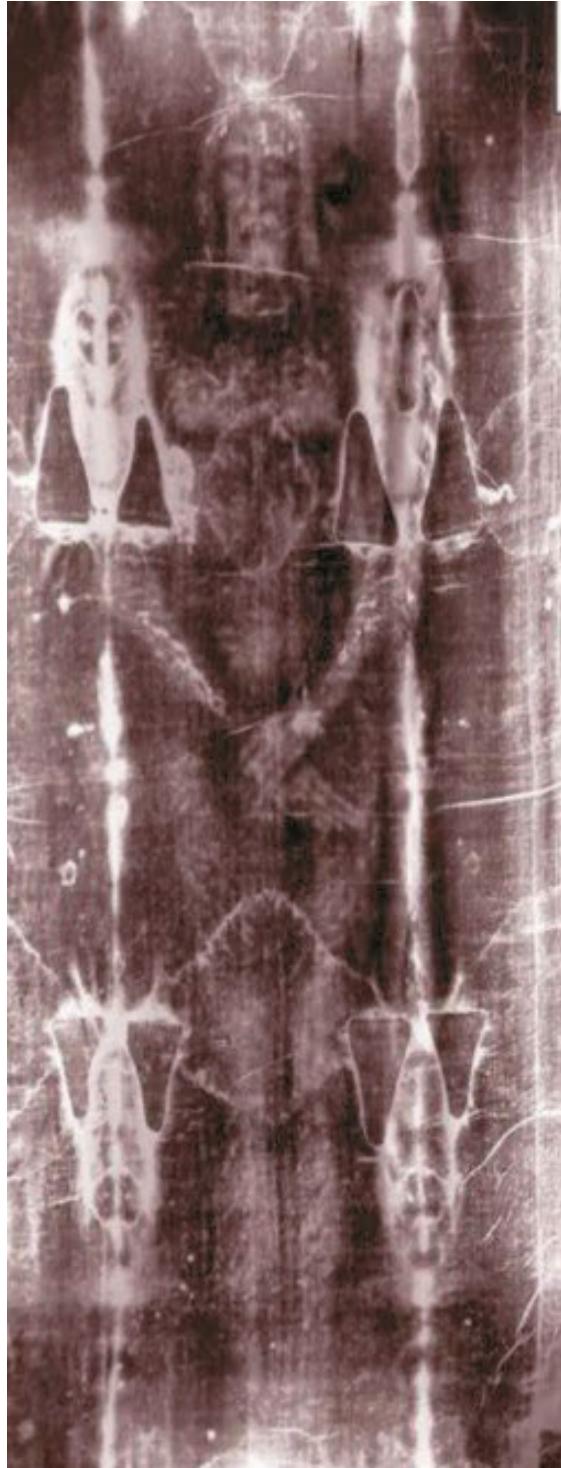

Sunday, April 6th

1:30pm-8pm

All are welcome to view the full-length, front and back, replica of the Shroud of Turin in addition to 30 informational banner displays.

The Shroud of Turin has long been venerated by the faithful and is believed by many to be the burial cloth of Jesus of Nazareth. The Shroud is one of the most scientifically studied religious icons in history.

As science has progressed, so has the speculation on how the image of the crucified man of the Shroud was made. After decades of exhaustive and medical, historical, and scientific research, the Center for the Study of the Passion of the Christ and the Holy Shroud has developed a moving and informative mobile exhibit on the Shroud of Turin. The centerpiece is a full-length canvas replica of the Shroud made by the Shroud of Turin Education and Research Association, Inc. In addition, the mobile exhibit contains a large crucified corpus showing the wounds of Christ corresponding to the passion narrative in the Gospel accounts and the wounds shown on the Shroud (National Shrine of St. Maximilian Kolbe.)

A Lenten Minute

PROTECTING CROPS FROM NATURAL DISASTERS IN BANGLADESH

Shahadat's village, and much of Bangladesh, is located on flat lowlands. The intense rainy season causes flooding that often destroys farms and crops. Find out how Shahadat learned new farming skills from a Catholic Relief Services program that enabled him to increase the yield of his vegetable crops despite the challenges of climate change. Visit crsricebowl.org/week-4 to read this week's Story of Hope.

So how is your lent going so far? Did you start off with a bang promising to fast, pray and give alms? Maybe you started out strong and are still on your chosen path, that's great. Maybe, just maybe, with all your good intentions, you started out strong, but life got in the way and the three pillars just aren't receiving the attention they deserve. Don't despair - there is still plenty of time to put extra meaning into this most holy of seasons.

In addition to the numerous opportunities we encounter to pray and fast each day, you are invited to take part in our Almsgiving Program by donating to one of the twenty-three pre-selected charities performing incredible acts of charity & love within our community. Simply take an envelope, identify the charity you wish to support and include your monetary gift in the envelope provided. Your donation can be dropped in the Offertory Baskets or returned to the Parish Office. Make this Lenten season a time for giving thanks to God for all you have been given through the simple act of giving to others.

HELP US TO SUSTAIN YOUR CHURCH AND SHARE THE GOOD NEWS OF JESUS WITH OTHERS

Please prayerfully consider a one time or recurring gift to St. Michael Catholic Community. Your donations allow us to serve you and others through our Liturgies (in person and livestream), Religious Education programs, Christian Service Outreach and many other ministries. In addition to the regular offertory during mass, we have simplified our e-giving options.

Option 1 is accessed through the “Donate Now” tab on the home page on our website (stmichaelcc.org). This links you to our e-giving platform which allows you to sign up or in. It has choices for Sunday, Christmas, or Holy Day contributions and CSA or Religious Education payments. You simply indicate the donation amount, whether it is a one time or recurring donation, and payment information via credit card or bank transfer.

Option 2 simply involves scanning the QR code on the right which will take you to the same site with the same set of prompts. Options 1 & 2 are processed through Tithely, so you don’t need to do anything if you are already signed up for e-giving.

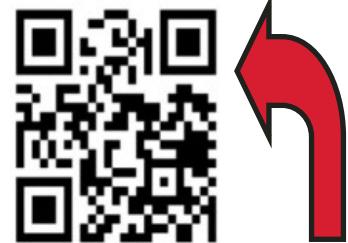

Option 3 is the ability to use a credit card for donations or payments through our Parish Office.

Make a gift online

Regardless of how you choose to donate, you can be assured that we will be responsible stewards of your gifts and very much appreciate your generosity.

Do you have Life Insurance? Accident Insurance for you or your children that pays you for those accidents around your home, at the park or school? How about Hospital Insurance that pays you? Are you turning 65 and will need a Medicare plan? If you said yes, let's talk to see how I may be able to assist you or your love ones.
