The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

Faith: The Way of Faith

Come along on a journey of faith with St. Jane Frances de Chantal. We'll explore the many aspects of our Catholic faith, how they unite us, and how they challenge us to embrace the world around us with love.

The Way of Faith is a new online video series from St. Jane Frances de Chantal Parish that explores our Catholic faith. As we enter into the season of Advent and focus our hearts and minds on the birth of Jesus Christ, we also pause to take stock of our progress in the virtuous life. "Faith" explores the first theological virtue, faith, and how we follow God's call to holiness through our own faith in Him. Take some time this week to read Scripture and reflect on the virtue of faith in your life. Ask yourself, "Where have I confidently expressed my faith and spread it to others this week?"

As we proceed through the season of Advent, join us as we explore each of the three theological virtues, what they mean, and how to unite them with what we already know about our Catholic faith. We hope you'll come along with us on this journey!
