SAINT MARY
OUR LADY OF THE SNOWS

A Journey in Faith — To Love and Serve the Lord

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT • March 7, 2021

FROM YOUR ADMINISTRATOR

We believe that the Ten Commandments were the foundation of the Law of the Sinai Covenant. They focused on love expressed with a two-part division concerning love for God followed by a series of laws dealing with expressing love for humanity. The articles of the Law were God's gift of love and protection for His covenant people. The Law, conceived in love, served as a tutor and a guide, teaching the children of Israel about sin and sacrifice, and setting them apart as a holy people on the path to salvation.
In the Gospel Reading, Jesus gives us a sign of His divine authority. He cleanses the Jerusalem Temple of the people's profane practice of buying and selling within the Temple precincts. His purification of His Father's house prepares the way for the inauguration of a new liturgy of worship "in spirit and in truth" (Jn 4:23) and a New Covenant (Lk 22:20).
The New Covenant will open the gates of Heaven (CCC 536, 1026) and will give the gifts of eternal salvation and the Holy Spirit that the Old Covenant was incapable of providing. The Holy Spirit came to establish the New Covenant Law of love for God and love of neighbor that fulfills the old Law. Jesus' Body, offered in sacrifice on the altar of the Cross and resurrected after three days, is the New Covenant Sanctuary. From His Body, rivers of living water flow in the Spirit of grace that makes every baptized Christian a temple of the Holy Spirit (1 Cor 3:16) and forms the New Covenant people of Jesus Christ into the dwelling place of God (Eph 2:22). So, Obedience to the Law and Worship are the Signs of Covenant Love and Commitment to God. Let us, therefore, be grateful and use our gratitude to worship God in the way that pleases Him, in reverence and fear, for our "God is a consuming fire". (Heb 12:26-29).

RCIA Coordinator: On behalf of our Parish community, I heartily welcome Mary DelPup as our parish RCIA Coordinator. She comes with a wealth of knowledge and experience. I am confident that she would do her best to impart the faith of the Church, especially, all those who want to become part of our Catholic community.

"Are you capable of risking your life for someone? Do it for Christ". St. Pope John Paul II

With Every Blessings,

Fr. John Peter Arul MSFS

IT'S SAFETY WEEK!!

The Circle of Grace curriculum is part of the Archdiocese of Detroit's ongoing effort to create and maintain a safe environment for children and protect them from sexual abuse. When children are in the building, we would be presenting a Circle of Grace lesson and conducting fire drills and/or tornado drills with the children. The AOD has given permission for these lessons to be presented at home this year. Lessons along with additional information were sent home to parents to share with their child(ren).

Signed Verification forms are due to the Faith Formation office by March 12th via a picture/scan to: faithformation@stmarymilfordmi.org or by USPS.

#19 CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING: UNDERSTANDING AND RESPONSE

The call to work for social justice in the Catholic Church comes from Sacred Scripture and church documents that invite Catholics to bring about Christ's mission. The purpose of this session is to enable participants to examine and integrate each of the themes of Catholic Social teaching: "life and dignity of the human person; call to family, community and participation; rights and responsibilities; option for the poor and vulnerable; dignity of work and the rights of workers; solidarity; and care for God's creation."

BUILDING YOUR FAMILY'S FAITH VOCABULARY

Last week's answer: Litany

3. Some scholars spend their lives studying complicated subjects such as nuclear physics, theoretical mathematics, and the origin of the universe. Still others, people of faith, devote themselves to an even more complicated subject—God. They explore God's revelation so that they, and we, can come to know and understand God better. Lenten Prayer—Science / Technology

Most generous and loving God, you have given us ways to use your gifts of earth's resources to create wonderful tools and instruments which can enhance our lives in many ways.
May we not misuse these fruits of our ingenuity to cause poverty, oppression and injustice to any of your children and our fellow creatures.
Give us the wisdom to understand proper use of technology, nature's resources, industry and labor to the benefit of all — our earth, our fellow creatures and all of humankind.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

KNIGHT NEWS

My Brother Knights – We trust that you are having a great Lenten season. With the Fish Fries underway, many of our Knights are using the season of Lent to give back in a positive way rather than abstaining from some form of pleasure. The two days of sacrifice that several of our Knights do, allows all of us to serve our community. But no matter what you do to serve the Lord in this special season, do it well and do it proudly. By leading by example, we show people who we are.

FROM FULTON J. Sheen: 'God's delays are mysterious; sorrow is sometimes prolonged for the same reason for which it is sent. God may abstain for the moment from healing, not because Love does not love, but because Love never stops loving, and a greater good is to come from the woe. Heaven's clock is different from ours.'

Enjoy Sunday with your family.

WORSHIP

WALK TO CALVARY

CHANGE OUR HEARTS

AS HUMAN BEINGS, OUR GREATNESS LIES NOT SO MUCH IN BEING ABLE TO REMAKE THE WORLD AS IN BEING ABLE TO REMAKE OURSELVES. (Mahatma Gandhi)

What profound words!! What perfect timing------the forty days of Lent, a time to remake ourselves. Praying to the Holy Spirit is the best way to begin our "transformation." Pray for courage and wisdom to know what needs to be changed. "Create in me a clean heart, oh God." If our heart is clean, good thoughts will follow. Our behavior results from thoughts that preceded it …. So, it is the thoughts that we must first work on not so much the behavior.

"Thinking creates an image. Images control feelings. Feelings cause actions. Action creates results." (Leland Val Vanderwall) In other words: "What you're thinking about drops into your hearts. What's in your heart comes out of your mouth. What you speak becomes your action. Your action is the fruit. Actions become habits and habits become what people see as you." (Sunday school lesson)

IN THESE UNCERTAIN times, dealing with covid-19, distancing and separations, masks, not knowing what to believe on the news, job losses and all the issues going on in our lives, it is easy to become discouraged, irritable, overwhelmed, even sometimes, hateful towards others. An examination of conscience will tell us what we need to change. Are we unkind, selfish, prejudice, dishonest, self-righteous? Do we overindulge in food and drink? It might be good to take time to monitor your thoughts, write them down and evaluate them honestly. It will give you an idea of why you acted as you did and why things went as they did----good or bad.

PRAY FOR SOMEONE you dislike or who is irritating to you, for those you may not agree with. Eventually, you will think differently of this person, if your prayers are sincere. Pray for the politicians, that God will guide them or change "their" hearts, if necessary. If you curse, make yourself aware each time this occurs and soon this habit will cease if that is what you want. Bring God more frequently into your thoughts during the day, inviting Him to stay with you and guide you. For instance, ask Him to make you more enthusiastic about exercising and to REALLY BELIEVE that it WILL make our bodies healthier and stronger. (I keep telling myself that). "Think you can, think you can't, either way you'll be right." (Henry Ford)

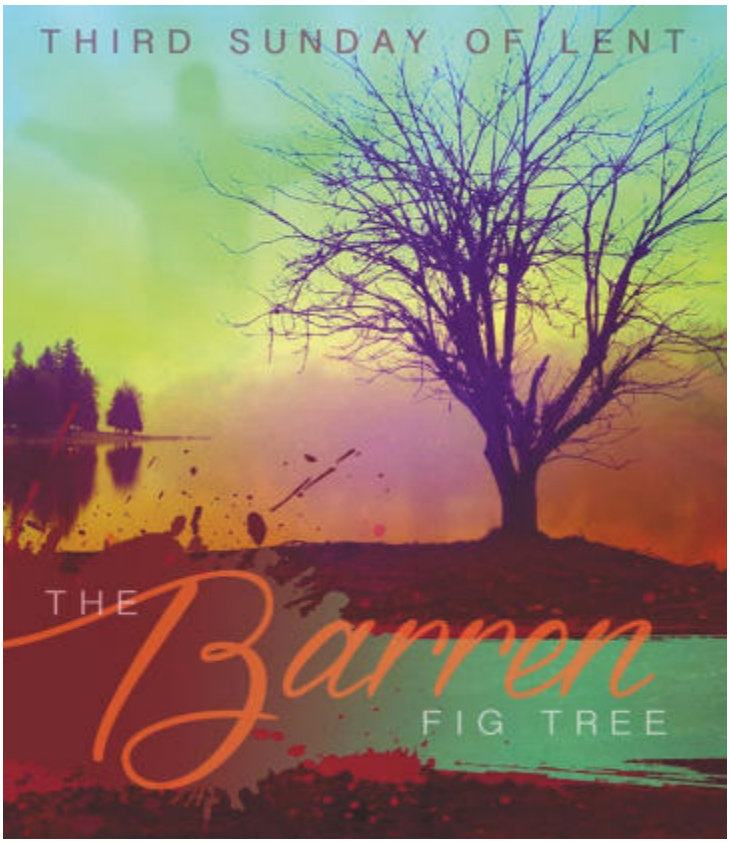
ATTITUDE IS WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT.

So far we've walked 713 miles on this Lenten journey, with a LONG WAY to go. Not so easy this year -------- however, housework, shoveling snow, grocery shopping anything that gets you moving ------- all apply. Remember to jot your miles on the footprints by the map or call or email JV at church. We have many things to pray for while we are walking: our families, our Catholic Church, America, end to the pandemic, our economy and our government, our troops, an end to abortion and for world peace. Offer all of your prayers and efforts to God. May He Help Us In Our Transformation.

Until next week,

Love & Prayers,
Arlene Loehr

P.S. "Do not ask the Lord to guide your footsteps if you are not willing to move your feet."



NEXT WEEKEND'S LITURGY

4th Sunday of Lent

THIS SEASON IS given to us for our spiritual growth and ongoing conversion. Today's readings remind us that God has shown mercy throughout history. An understanding of Israel's painful exile and God's ongoing fidelity are important for us and our own review of how God's mercy has been reflected in our personal lives. Today, we have another chance to make this story our own.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

2 Chron 36:14-16, 19-23 God will be merciful to the exiled Israelites.
Ps 137 Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you.
Eph 2:4-10 We are saved by God's rich mercy.
Jn 3:14-21 God's only Son was sent for our Reconciliation.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

PARENTS JUST DON'T UNDERSTAND

Anybody remember the old rap song by the Fresh Prince, aka Will Smith, "Parents Just Don't Understand?" As we grow up, it is sometimes a struggle for us to imagine that our parents understand us. It can seem impossible that Mom and Dad remember the stress of exam week or peer pressure. We never saw them as children; we never saw their disappointed faces when they weren't invited to a party, or their dashed hopes at a bad test grade. We never saw them homesick their first week of college or nervous to ask their crush to Homecoming. We're often the same way about God. We gripe about what He asks of us. "He doesn't understand sin — He's all-good," we think. "He doesn't understand temptation— He is perfect"

In Scripture, God can be very much a father, telling us what we can and cannot do. And yet, in His divine genius, He is sometimes simply a man at a well, asking for a drink. For me, it turns out I didn't need to tell my parents anything about what I was going through as a kid — they knew already. What I needed was for them to tell me what to do, and how to do it. Similarly, we don't need to tell God about human nature. We need God to tell us about His nature. He's good enough to ask us for a drink, to enter into our humanity. But we have to remember, for our own sakes, to have the humility to ask Him for something, too — the water that will quench our eternal thirst. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LP

ST. VINCENT DEPAUL

IN TODAY'S GOSPEL Jesus is asked "What sign can you show us?" Every day we can see signs of how God has visited us in the blessings of our lives. Let us be a sign of God's love by being a blessing to others.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can be a sign of God's love to the suffering and poor.

Please note that ALL MONIES donated to St. Mary St. Vincent de Paul remain in this area, and are used to assist local families in need.

How to Go to Confession...

May the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ,
the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of all the saints,
whatever good you do and suffering you endure,
heal your sins,
help you grow in holiness,
and reward you with eternal life.
Go in peace.

–Rite of Penance, no. 93

1 PREPARATION: Before going to confession, take some time to prepare. Begin with prayer, and reflect on your life since your last confession. How have you—in your thoughts, words, and actions—neglected to live Christ's commands to "love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind," and to "love your neighbor as yourself" (Mt 22:37, 39)? As a help with this "examination of conscience," you might review the Ten Commandments or the Beatitudes (Ex 20:2-17; Dt 5:6-21; Mt 5:3-10; or Lk 6:20-26).

2 GREETING: The priest will welcome you; he may say a short blessing or read a Scripture passage.

3 THE SIGN OF THE CROSS: Together, you and the priest will make the Sign of the Cross. You may then begin your confession with these or similar words: "Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It has been [give days, months, or years] since my last confession."

4 CONFESSION: Confess all your sins to the priest. If you are unsure what to say, ask the priest for help. When you are finished, conclude with these or similar words: "I am sorry for these and all my sins."

5 PENANCE: The priest will propose an act of penance. The penance might be prayer, a work of mercy, or an act of charity. He might also counsel you on how to better live a Christian life.

6 ACT OF CONTRITION: After the priest has conferred your penance, pray an Act of Contrition, expressing sorrow for your sins and resolving to sin no more. A suggested Act of Contrition is:

My God,
I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.
In choosing to do wrong
and failing to do good,
I have sinned against you
whom I should love above all things.
I firmly intend, with your help,
to do penance,
to sin no more,
and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.
Our Savior Jesus Christ
suffered and died for us.
In his name, my God, have mercy.

(Rite of Penance, no. 45)

7 ABSOLUTION: The priest will extend his hands over your head and pronounce the words of absolution. You respond, "Amen."

8 PRAISE: The priest will usually praise the mercy of God and will invite you to do the same. For example, the priest may say, "Give thanks to the Lord for he is good." And your response would be, "His mercy endures for ever" (Rite of Penance, no. 47).

9 DISMISSAL: The priest will conclude the sacrament, often saying, "Go in peace."

If it has been a while since your last confession, remember, "Do not fear" (Is 41:10). The priest will help guide you. And feel free to take this how-to guide with you! (For more information, visit www.usccb.org/confession.)
