FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We were blessed to welcome Bishop Bonnar to our parish last Sunday. I am very grateful to the deacons, staff, parish council members, and volunteers who helped to prepare for the two Masses. Bishop Bonnar's support for our parish and me was very gracious. In his homily, he encouraged us not to let the past deter us from looking to the future. I believe the future of our parish is bright. Our community will grow in strength and number as we focus on prayer, catechesis, Christian service, and the bonds of community. Sunday's uplifting Mass with Bishop Bonnar was a sign of our commitment to the faith and support for one another. As he said, our parish is honored to have St. Elizabeth Ann Seton as our patroness. I have led two pilgrimages to her shrine in Maryland in conjunction with the March for Life. I hope to return there with parishioners from Warren someday. May God bless you!

Yours in Christ, Fr. Cicero

Memorial Service for Miscarried or Stillborn Children

Calvary Cemetery, Massillon
(3469 Lincoln Way E.) at 5:30 p.m.

Parents, family, grandparents and others are encouraged to attend. Sponsored by the Diocese of Youngstown Office of Worship and Office of Pro-Life, Marriage and Family Life. For more information call 330-744-8451.

Good Shepherd Sunday Also Vocations Sunday

When Jesus says, "I know mine and mine know me", He is also saying, I love mine and mine love me. St. Gregory, commenting on this passage simply takes this for granted. He has Jesus say: "I am the Good Shepherd. I know my own – by which mean I mean I love them and my own know me." And later He adds: "I assure you that it is not by faith that you will come to know Jesus, but by love." (Breviary II)

Jesus shows his love for us by laying down His life for us. How do we show our love for Him? At the Last Supper He says, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (Jn 14:15). And what are his commandments: He sums them all up in one: "I give you a new commandment, Love one another. As I have loved you so you should love one another." (13:34)

Fr. Larry Richards from the Erie Diocese once said, maybe the common apron could be our Christian symbol and not the cross. He was referring to the great example Jesus showed us during the Last Supper. He took off His outer garment and put a towel around his waist. (to Fr. Richards, that towel would be today's apron) and He began to wash their feet. Jesus tells his disciples, "I have given you a model to follow, so that as I have done for you, you should also do. (Jn 13:15) In other words, service is what Jesus wants from us, service to another. Jesus says, "I came to serve not to be served." (Mt. 20:28)

What joy there is on the face of someone who just had something done for them. We have a lot to be proud of as members of this parish. Time and time again we have stepped up and come to the aid of our brothers and sisters in this community and beyond. Through our church we have helped with St. Vincent DePaul, the homeless project with the Basement Outreach Ministry, our neighborhood schools, the homebound and so many more. It is incredible to witness that peace or calm or jubilation that one receives from the service of another and of course never wanting anything in return. Because after all we are called to be disciples of Christ by our common Baptism. And by being his followers, we are called to be imitators of Him who laid down his life for us. How can we expect the flock to follow us if we do not imitate the Good Shepherd Himself? The Good Shepherd is our guide, our protector, our source of life. The more deeply we know Him the more we become like Him. In the words of Pope Benedict XVI, "There is nothing more beautiful than to be surprised by the Gospel, by the encounter with Christ. There is nothing more beautiful than to know Him and to speak to others of our friendship with Him." (Homily of His Holiness Sunday, April 24, 2005)

We are in need of desserts. If you are able to bake brownies, pies, or some other sweet treat it would be appreciated. Contact Darlene Jones at 234-223-2936

Attention Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion for the Homebound

Thank you for your service to our homebound parishioners.

Per Diocesan guidelines, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion for the homebound, must retrieve the Precious Body from the tabernacle after the conclusion of Mass. The practice of receiving Hosts in the pyx during the Communion procession within Mass is to be discontinued.

Please sanitize and dry your hands before taking Communion out of the tabernacle.

Thank you, Fr. Cicero

THANK YOU IN ADVANCE FOR YOUR AMAZING SUPPORT

Announcement from Youth Ministry

Greetings Fellow Parishioners!

Parents, Junior Youth Ministry sessions, for grades 6 – 8, will now be combined with our High School Youth sessions. If your child is not in CCD at this time, please consider having your middle schooler(s) join our high schoolers in a time of fraternity and prayer! These times of meeting are moments when everyone can experience the goodness and challenge of our Lord's call to a deeper friendship and discipleship.

Sessions are every Sunday from 9:45 to 10:50 am, taking place, alternatively, at Blessed Sacrament Church or St. James Church.

April and May are the closing months for college students around the country. The same is true for our own young adults (from our parish) in college/university as they gear up to finish their semester and prepare for their final exams and papers. Later this month I will be sending out care packages to those students whose parents filled out the care package form, to show our support and encouragement in their academic endeavors. Please offer a prayer for them and all other young adults in college/university to finish out the semester well and for God to send them the Holy Spirit to help discern their lives, eventually find fulfilling careers/work.

Also please keep our Seminarian, Travis Seagraves, and all the other seminarians for our diocese, in your prayers as they are finishing up their semester of studies! Pray for their continued discernment and the graces necessary to, one day, become holy and virtuous priests to serve the diocese.

Parents, if you would like updates on everything going on or would like to know more, shoot me an email at dlapolla@warrencatholic.org or call the Blessed Sacrament Parish number at 330.372.2215 ext. 102

May the Peace and Joy of the Resurrected Christ be with you all!! God Bless!

Daniel LaPolla, Youth Minister

Save The Date!!!

There will be a Welcome Back to Church Celebration on Sunday, June 6. We will have a safe, socially distanced event in a tent on the St. James Property immediately following the 11:00 Mass. Fellowship, food, fun!! Invitations will be mailed in a May letter from Father Cicero.

Rosary Rally

May is the month of Our Lady and the Rosary Makers will lead a rally in the Warren City Square at the gazebo at 12:00 Noon on Saturday, May 15, 2021. On May 13, 1917, Our Lady appeared to the three children at Fatima. To commemorate this apparition, we wish to increase her devotion to her Immaculate Heart by reciting the Rosary as she requested in her apparitions while bringing her message of prayer, repentance, devotion to the Holy Trinity, and recitation of the Rosary daily for world peace. All are welcome to join us! Pray the Rosary Daily!
