Father Pete’s Prayer Corner

I have seen God’s fingers in the dawn-streaked light,
God’s royalty star-jeweled robed at night,
Simplicity in a childhood plight,
Beauty everywhere revealed by sight.

I have seen God present in my life.
I have heard God’s feet in a pattering rain,
God’s tapping thus on the window pane,
God’s voice in a thunder rolling ‘cross the plain,
God’s whispering through the forest lane.

I have heard God present in my life.
I have felt God present with refreshing morn,
God’s fury bringing on a threatening storm,
God’s love in the rainbow’s gentle charm
And mercy in a sunset warm.

I have felt God present in my life.
I have sensed God present in a fragrant flower,
The sweetness of God’s peace and of God’s power,
In burning leaves and apples tasting sour,
And breakfast cooking on the morning hour.
I have sensed God present in my life.

AMEN!
