UPDATE—new panel

We are taking plaque requests for the next section of the Memorial Wall located in the back grassy area of the parking lot. If you would like to honor a loved one, mark a special event, or remember someone who has died, please consider creating a plaque for the memorial wall. Plaques are $150 each with twelve plaques to one panel. If you have any questions please call the rectory and we can email you the order forms and assist with wording. If you would like special etchings or styles that will be priced accordingly.

Father Pete’s Prayer Corner

As each new year approaches, we look back and look ahead. We assess how we got t where we are and try to figure our where we’re headed. It is most important at a time like this to remember what is constant in our lives and what sustains us. First & foremost, the presence and love of God with us; and the wonderful oved ones whose care sustains us.

Let us pray

Like stepping stones across the stream of life,
Our years are passed.
And looking back, we see the path they formed.
Like pennies in our hands that we will spend.
More years will be.

Every time I think I’ve found myself,
I seem to move.
And when I start again to find myself,
I think of you.
Each step I take, each glance ahead,
All that I do begins again.

So often it’s so hard to dress a feeling up in words.
It’s my poor attempt to be understood.
I want to say, I want to do those things
That show I love you.

And while I still have pennies in my hands,
I want to spend them all on you.
AMEN!
