UPDATE—new panel

We are taking plaque requests for the next section of the Memorial Wall located in the back grassy area of the parking lot. If you would like to honor a loved one, mark a special event, or remember someone who has died, please consider creating a plaque for the memorial wall. Plaques are $150 each with twelve plaques to one panel. If you have any questions please call the rectory and we can email you the order forms and assist with wording. If you would like special etchings or styles that will be priced accordingly.

Readings for January 16, 2022

First Reading: Isaiah 62:1-5
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:4-11
Gospel: John 2 1-11
“Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.”

Father Pete’s Prayer Corner

The Lord I Love

The Lord I love and treasure and profess did not wear fine clothes or valuables possess. He did not reprimand, embarrass or scold except to help someone change and grow. Compassion, healing power, and peace he offered to those open to such gifts and who are willing to do to others what he did to each. To live as he did, to speak his words, to embrace his vision, to do his work, define the sheep of the flock this Shepherd herds.

The actions which mediate to others his presence and his touch, the sound of his voice, the lessons of his love, when done even in small ways accomplish much.

The Lord lives and acts and speaks through those today who follow what he taught, who offer what he gave and fight what he fought.

AMEN!
