2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

JOHN 2:1-3

With the readings this weekend at Mass, we take a short diversion into the Gospel of John prior to returning to Luke's narrative of the Gospel next weekend. This short diversion into John features one of the best known stories of the Gospel, but one which only occurs in John's narrative: the changing of the water into wine at the Wedding Feast of Cana.

There is an interesting tradition that surrounds this great mystery (so great a mystery, that Pope St. John Paul II included this singular event as one of the five Luminous Mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary!) Tradition tells us that three events happened on the same day in different years: the visit of the Magi during the Infancy Narratives in Matthew's account of the Gospel, the Baptism of the Lord by John in the Jordan River, and this event where Jesus turns a huge amount of water into the best type of wine available. All of these events were tied together in the traditional celebrations of the Epiphany, because they are all manifestations of the divinity of Jesus through His humanity.

As we look at this particular event this weekend, one thing that always strikes the reader is the conversation between Jesus and Mary. It almost sounds that Jesus is being dismissive of His Blessed Mother in His initial response to her: 'Woman, how does your concern affect me?'

That initial declaration of 'Woman!' is not dismissive, but is rather a 'normal, polite form of address,' as a comment in the Revised New American Bible attests. It seems that Mary knows something that He doesn't yet, or perhaps, better, she intuits something: 'You have your disciples now, it is time for your work to begin.' And what a marvelous work He does: turning roughly 150 gallons of water into the finest of wines!

By doing so, He, again, manifests His divinity through His humanity. He manifests that He does not desire us to have the so-so; but the best. And lots of it, too!

This manifestation of His divinity through His humanity, even here at the very start of His public ministry, is why this event is connected with the Epiphany: everything celebrated that day is a way of recognizing that Jesus is the Revelation of the Father, He is the fullness of the Godhead who has come to dwell with us and restore us to a place of greater prominence.

This is what unfolds over the pages of the Gospel and what we are invited into throughout the Gospel. The Gospels start in such a way so that we can know where we are going: into a deeper, more powerful relationship with the God who created, sustains and redeems us. Daily.

What a beautiful gift this is and what a wonderful thing to continue to celebrate, together, as we enter this new year.

God Bless

Fr. Kyle Schnippel

LIVE the LITURGY

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grace dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

FAMILY FAITH MOMENTS

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), no. 373, designates January 22 as a particular day of prayer and penance, called the "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children": "In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion." (from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops)

As individuals, we are called to observe this day through the penitential practices of prayer, fasting and/or giving alms. At your family prayer time, thank God for the gift of human life. If you have any baby items you no longer need, check with the Elizabeth New Life Center for donation information by calling 937.226.7414 or visit elizabethnewlife.org.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Please join the Outreach and Justice Commission in an hour of prayer, for all Priests and religious, during Friday's Eucharistic Adoration at St. Peter Church on the third Friday (January 21) of the month from 12:00 noon to 1:00 pm.

- 12:00 noon | The Angelus
- 12:15 pm | The Rosary
- Prayers for Priests, Consecrated Religious, Deacons, Seminarians, and Vocations
- Private Adoration

MEDICAL EQUIPMENT

Our region has MEDICAL EQUIPMENT that parishioners can borrow as needed. We offer walkers and wheelchairs, canes and crutches, shower chairs, and much more. We also have SHOWER GRAB BARS that our volunteers will install in your house. If you need an item, please contact Deacon Leo Cordonnier at 937.879.5408 to arrange for pick-up.

MINISTRY to the HOMEBOUND

You can put the Works of Mercy into action by volunteering with the Ministry to the Homebound, Sick and Dying in our region. At this time, we have a great need for those who can drive elderly to appointments, relieve caregivers, and do light housekeeping. Please call Virginia White at 937.236.6674 for more details.

BLESSINGS of HOMES

There is a Catholic Tradition to have homes blessed as a means of being made more aware of God's presence in our lives and to respond to the One who loves us. It is the Church's hope that having invoked these blessings, the people know that they, too, are blessed and are called to make the world a more holy place by their very lives. Region XII clergy would like to extend the opportunity to have your home blessed. For more information, please call the Parish Administration Office at 937.233.1503.

2022 CMA CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

“Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.”

- Matthew 5:16

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is the annual campaign to support six local ministries that teach, feed, and heal.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CINCINNATI

Your gift to the CMA supports:

- Catholic Charities and Catholic Social Services
- St. Rita School for the Deaf
- New Evangelization
- Retired Archdiocesan Priests & Senior Clergy
- Campus, Hospital, and Prison Ministries
- Seminary and Vocations

“Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.”

- Matthew 5:16

Your support of the CMA impacts thousands of lives in our communities.

Catholic Charities and Catholic Social Services

These organizations provide emergency relief, counseling, Su Casa Hispanic services, senior services, food for the hungry, and more.

Retired Archdiocesan Priests & Senior Clergy

The CMA assists our retired priests through contributions to the Priest Retirement Plan. For our priests who choose to postpone retirement and continue serving in active ministry beyond age 70, the CMA helps to cover the compensation of these priests.

Seminary and Vocations

Mount St. Mary’s Seminary & School of Theology offers seminarian education, diaconate formation, and lay pastoral ministry programs.

St. Rita School for the Deaf

St. Rita School for the Deaf meets the educational and social needs of children who are deaf or have communication needs. The school educates students in grades pre-K through 12.

New Evangelization

The Center for the New Evangelization provides programming for some of the most important stages in people’s lives. Key areas of ministry include formation and training for Parish Leaders as well as running Archdiocesan evangelization ministries.

Campus Ministry

Catholic Campus Ministry helps keep college students connected to their Catholic faith during this pivotal time in their lives.

Hospital Ministry

Catholic chaplains and lay pastoral ministers at local hospitals offer prayer, the sacraments, companionship during a hospital stay, and a listening presence to those in need.

Prison Ministry

The incarcerated receive support through RCIA classes, the celebration of Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and other faith-based programs.

Examples of Your CMA Donations at Work

Campus Ministry

The CMA supports Campus Ministry at the University of Cincinnati, Miami University, and Wright State University.

Retired Archdiocesan Priests

98 priests are currently receiving retirement benefits.

St. Rita School for the Deaf

more than 200 students enrolled.

Prison Ministry

The CMA supports Prison Ministry at Lebanon Correctional, Warren Correctional, and Dayton Correctional Institutions.

Seminary and Vocations

For the current school year, 59 men are in formation for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati.

New Evangelization

This past year,

722 engaged couples attended a Genesis Pre-Cana Retreat.

Catholic Charities & Social Services

33,000+ families served with food distribution services.

Hospital Ministry

“Give us the wisdom to know Your will for our lives and the courage to follow it as we seek to make our community a clearer reflection of the Kingdom of God.” These words acknowledge that we need to be about God’s will, not our own; and in that journey, we will bear greater witness to the transforming power of Jesus Christ.

Through Him, we are called to live a stewardship way of life and we have been given many good gifts, but it is never truly about us. We are never the main thing. In the same manner, it is never really about our parish either. Our combined stewardship leads to many fruits, like an increased offertory and more vibrancy in parish life. However, it is always about the Kingdom of God and the King, Jesus Christ.

Through our stewardship, we allow our region community to be a shining city on a hill for others to see and then be drawn toward Jesus Christ. It is about leading people to heaven. Our actions of stewardship do not point toward us but instead to the one who calls us to this life. Our constant prayer needs to be that we always seek to discern God’s will and follow it instead of our own. By doing that, we can transform our own lives, our parish communities, and then the world around us.

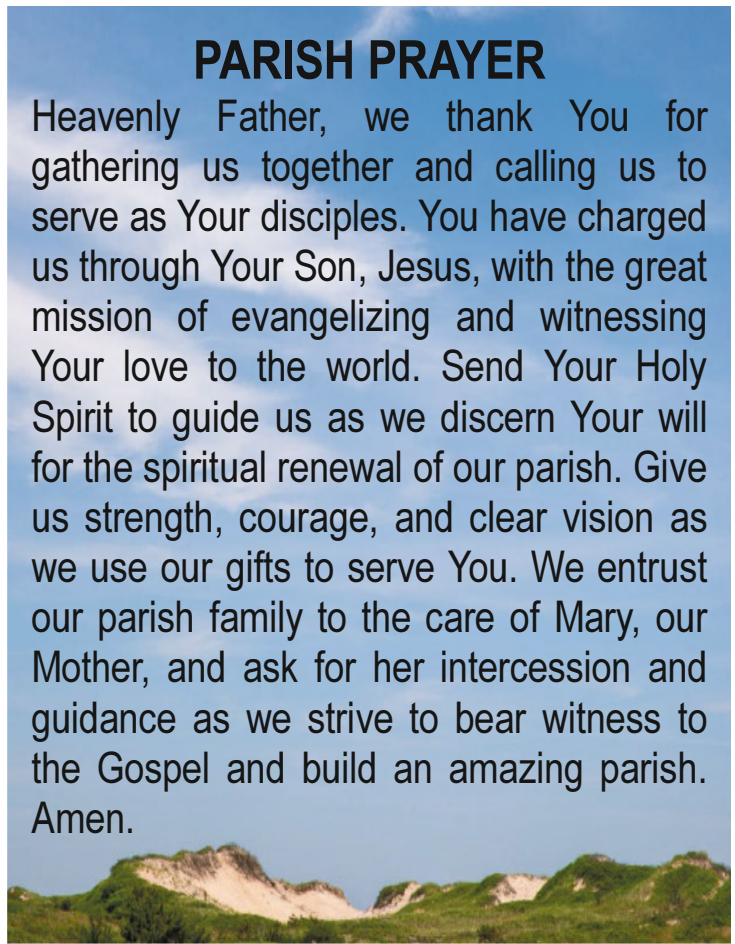

Thank you for your continued support of the parishes in Dayton Region XII. Please remember that donations, including extra contributions, can be made on our website at daytonxii.org; and you can specify the church that will receive the donation.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

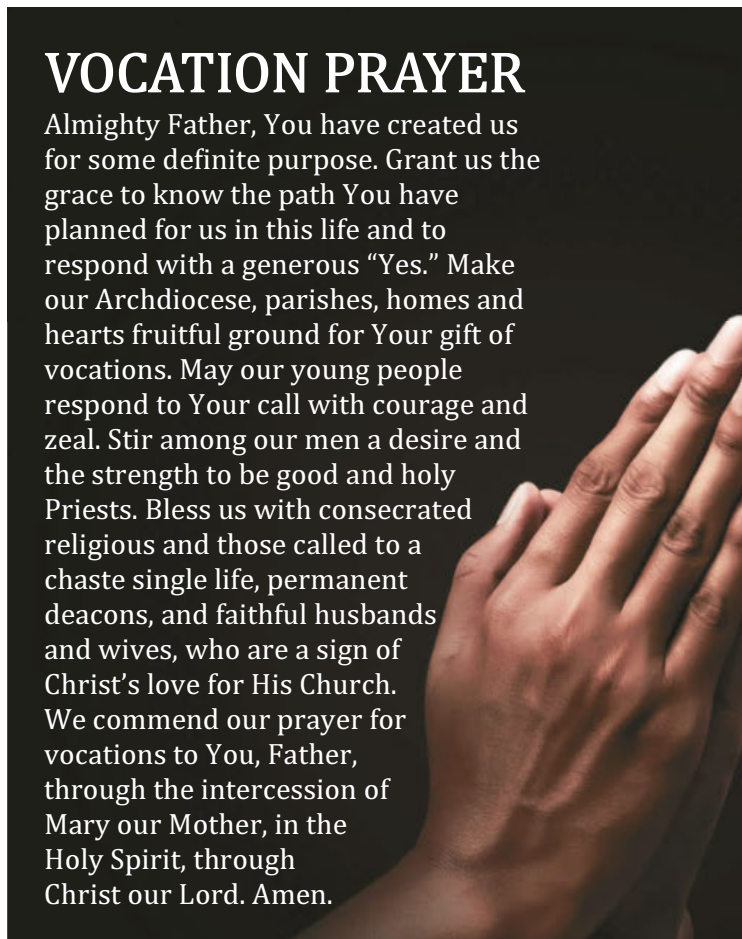

PARISH PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we thank You for gathering us together and calling us to serve as Your disciples. You have charged us through Your Son, Jesus, with the great mission of evangelizing and witnessing Your love to the world. Send Your Holy Spirit to guide us as we discern Your will for the spiritual renewal of our parish. Give us strength, courage, and clear vision as we use our gifts to serve You. We entrust our parish family to the care of Mary, our Mother, and ask for her intercession and guidance as we strive to bear witness to the Gospel and build an amazing parish. Amen.

VOCATION PRAYER

Almighty Father, You have created us for some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous “Yes.” Make our Archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy Priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ’s love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
